A MESSAGE TO THE DEAF.

By Professor Hoffman.

The writer of this advertisement was once three days and six nights in a hospital for the deaf, and during that time he learned many things about the deaf, and how they can be helped. He learned that the deaf are not a race of people, but that they are people who are deaf. He learned that the deaf are not a race of people, but that they are people who are deaf. He learned that the deaf are not a race of people, but that they are people who are deaf.

...to be deaf, and that the deaf are not a race of people, but that they are people who are deaf. He learned that the deaf are not a race of people, but that they are people who are deaf. He learned that the deaf are not a race of people, but that they are people who are deaf.
