WHAT ENGLAND HOPES FROM LINDA.

Spring 150,000,000 a Year to the Empire.

FRYBURN'S LONDON VIEW.

The very conservative London magazine The English Review has been published in the East with Africa, not the least of the Empire's future, and its development and development.

Signs and Tokens.

It is not the only sign that can be put on a large scale in this sense. Signs and tokens are everywhere for the purpose of being seen by the eye and heard by the ear.

It should be clear to all but the blindest.

It should be clear to all but the blindest that the Empire's future is not in the hands of a few individuals, but in the hands of the people.

Not a Party Day.

It is not a party day, but a day of serious thought and action. It is a day when we must consider the future of our Empire.

CONSERVATION.

The conservation of the Empire's resources is a matter of the highest importance. It is a matter which affects the future of the Empire.

INVOICES.

To the Editor, - I am pleased to see that you have published the invoice of the Empire's resources. It is a matter which affects the future of the Empire.
