REPLY TO ALLEGATIONS.

The Empire Cotton Growing Association has taken action of the Kenya Government in Kenya that it has applied to various courts to enforce its claims to give cotton to the Empire Cotton Growing Association and to be indemnified as the following statement shows:

An application has been made to the High Court in Nairobi to enforce the provisions of the Cotton Growing Act, 1912, which gave the Government the right to purchase cotton from the growers of the Kenya Colony, and to sell it to the Empire Cotton Growing Association at a price to be fixed by the Government.

The Government has refused to do so, and the Association has applied to the High Court to enforce its claims. The Government has also applied to the High Court to have the provisions of the Cotton Growing Act, 1912, declared null and void.
