E. A. STANDARD CROSS - WORD PUZZLE COMPETITION.

No. 4

SPLendid ENTRIES FOR THE FIRST THREE.

PRIZES OFFERED.

Have you sent in your solution of the first three cross words puzzles which the East African Standard has printed in its weekly columns? If you have, you will have received the name of the winner of the prize for competition No. 3. It remains to be seen who will be the winner of competition No. 4. It is open to all.

Horizontal Clues

1. A most prominent villain.
4. What leads him on.

Vertical Clues

1. Furred value.
2. A hunting call.
3. Kind of flower.

The blank spaces are marked with only small numbers at the end of a word. You will see that the whole square is divided into 22 small squares, some of which are numbered. This is the solution which you are asked to find.

In the solution each square has to contain a single letter. These letters, except those from left to right, must make up the words indicated in the horizontal clues. The letters read downwards, must make up the words suggested by the vertical clues.

Then No. 1 of the horizontal clue, five approximated to a most prominent villain, is the word "MURDER". Write in the letters of this word in the squares numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22. RUGBY IN ENGLAND.
Possible Return of Myers Against Scotland.

MAIL WEEK REVIEW.
 Telegrams: "GALFEE."

It is said that some of the Rugby circles have been contemplating the inclusion of a former player of an English team in the England squad for the match against Scotland. It is understood that the player in question is Mr. Myers, who was a member of the England team in 1911. He was a very successful player, and his inclusion would be a great asset to the team. It is believed that the Rugby authorities are considering the possibility of his return, and that he may be called up to play against Scotland in the coming season.

THE OLD LOCKE.
 It is reported that the Government are considering the possibility of introducing a Bill to amend the Copyright Act, 1911. The Bill is intended to give authors a right to sue for infringement of their copyright
 in the event of their death.
 This is a very important provision, and it is believed that it will be passed by the House of Commons in the near future.
