Pedestrians and Motorists. A NOVEL COMPETITION

A Novel Competition

In view of the fact that the rain season is now upon us, and that the roads are becoming very muddy, it is necessary to take extra precautions to avoid accidents.

It is recommended that motorists should take extra care when driving on muddy roads, and that pedestrians should be particularly careful when crossing streets.

It is also suggested that motorists should avoid driving on muddy roads when possible, and that pedestrians should avoid crossing streets when it is raining.

Enlargements from your Best Negatives.

An enlargement is often the making of a picture. It reveals interesting details which pass unobserved in the small original print. Bring your negative round. We will advise you on size and style. We make rich, deep, velvety enlargements in black and white or sepia—enlargements which turn your snapshots into pictures. Charge on application.

A LONDON LETTER.

The Labour Split.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT]

Mr. Kirkwood's last 25 minutes of the Labour Party Conference in London was devoted to the subject of the Labour Party's position in the House of Commons. He pointed out that the Labour Party was now a minority in the House of Commons, and that it was necessary for the Party to consider its position in the House of Commons in the light of the fact that it was now a minority in the House of Commons. CROSS WORDS

Last week's Mr. Macdonald's crossword puzzle was very interesting to solve. It was a puzzle of the type which is so common in the papers. It was a puzzle of the type which is so common in the papers. It was a puzzle of the type which is so common in the papers.

AN ENQUIRY

Ultimately the following record was made:

"That with a view to securing greater efficiency the Labour Party is recommended to be re-organised into three divisions: (a) a division for the purpose of carrying out the Party's programme in the House of Commons; (b) a division for the purpose of carrying out the Party's programme in the House of Commons; (c) a division for the purpose of carrying out the Party's programme in the House of Commons."

THE SIR ROBERT CORYDON MEMORIAL FUND. GOVERNMENT HOUSE, NAIROBI, 20th March, 1935.

The Sir Robert Corydon to the Legislative Council on the 17th December last, expressed his wish that the fund should be known to a Memorial, which would be of value not only to Kenya, but to the whole world.

The Committee here is the universal wish of all concerned in the Kenya that the memory of the Sir Robert Corydon should be perpetuated by a Memorial which should be of value not only to Kenya, but to the whole world.

The Committee is therefore proposing for funds for the erection of a building which shall be known as a larger Memorial and institute devoted to the advancement of the study of the Sir Robert Corydon.
