Inf: the Trea^y, with ref^d to the last sentence of the 2nd para: of their l^{tr} of the 18th of June, that the O.A.S. has reported that the statement ~~that the Juba~~ will not require anything of importance to be done to him for the next ten years was made by Sir Donald Stewart, apparently on information received from Mr Marsden, the Chief of Control, although there appears to be no comp^o to show this - that would be our account of Marsden's statement. the E.A.P. has reported that the statement that the SS.
