To J. N. Evans and to J. G. J.

M<sup>r</sup> Harcourt

For this appointment, I submit M<sup>r</sup> R. N. Evans (40422/08) 33 and named. He has been a clerk in the Capital Counties Bank since 1894 and has been on our books for some time. He made such a good impression on all who have seen him that we have been very anxious to get him an E.A.P. <sup>Treasury</sup> post (he will not go to West Africa) for he ought to make a good Treasury official. But there has been such a lack of vacancies in the E.A.P. Treasury that he is prepared to take this Customs post as a first step.
