Camp equipment unaccounted for.This copy of Audit Query Requests Lieut Jones be asked for explanation and failing satisfactory answer be called upon to refund value of R. 774.92.Lieut. D. B. Butler
Mr. Butler

The cost amounts to over £50.

It is a thoroughly unsatisfactory business, but there seems no chance of getting hold of Mr. Jones for purposes of an explanation or a refund, unless we put the police on his track. And it is more than unlikely that he still has enough money to pay.

I think we might reply that Mr.
Jones' whereabouts are unknown & that as it is their responsibility to get into touch with him, the matter

Mr Bottomley

He called today & asked for a statement of his services & discharge. Was asked to write in for him.

He is now a colliery clerk in Wales, his address he gave being 30 Aberfan Rd, Aberfan (present address in London: Norm's Hotel, 69 & 70 High Holborn).

Looks very ill & is still very hard up, apparently, but he says

I mentioned the water leak with in 44774 to him & understood³⁸ that he wd. dispute the liability if he were taxed with it.

I can see no point in doing anything for the moment, but
pb. might come up in a week if he has not written.

Query

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No. 282 of March 28th relating to the grant of a gratuity of £300 to Lieutenant C.P.G. Jones as compensation in respect of the breakdown in his health.

2. I note that you have decided to dispose of his case in England and consequently transmit herewith for favour of necessary action a copy of Audit Query No. 1853 of February 16th relating to certain Camp Equipment which was handed over to the care of Lieutenant Jones and cannot be accounted for.

3. I shall be grateful if Lieutenant Jones may be called upon for an explanation as to the disposal by him of the missing articles, and, failing a satisfactory explanation, if the value, viz. Rs. 774.92, may be recovered from him.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your humble, obedient servant,
