Mr Read

Please see sixth para. of draft to Mr S, &
his pay-sheet herewith.

Lord Prentice has decided that Mr S must be reversely furnished, & therefore I think he should not have full pay for the period during which he was suspended from duty in the Colony.

He has had his half-pay up to 30th April & should have it also from 1-27 May.

On the 28th May he left the Colony, & from that date he may have the five months leave on which I understand to be the usual P. A. P. terms viz 3 months full

& two months three quarters pay.

If you agree please pass on drafts

to Mr Cox. T.C.H.

I am,
