Mr. Reed

We were on the point of approving of a successor to Mr. Parkinson on ^{for} below. We must wait & make sure that the applt. of Registrar is really valid.

It is idiotic of the local people to get us to approve of a new applt. at £400 to recommend a man for it, then to tell us that he wants increments & to urge that he should have £500. It makes it look too much like a personal salary. No doubt we could get a man at £400 without increments. I should like to say that the app. having just been accepted at a fixed salary of £400, the S. of B. seems proud for now asking the Treasury to approve of the scale £400 for £500. That if Mr Parkinson will not accept it at that salary, we will endeavour to make other arrangements to please it.
