U.N. failure to find "mutual consent" for a ceasefire was discussed by politicians at Cabinet's reaction to U.N. team's report

Beirut observers predicted that the Lebanon might ask for a Security Council meeting at which to demand an international police force to seal the 200-mile Syrian-Lebanese frontier. The Lebanese Government has ordered the expulsion of "unreliable" villages. A Foreign Ministry official said they had contacted the U.N. "in vain."

Mr. Louis Dupont, a leading Lebanese Deputy, proposed that the Government appoint a new and be appointed by the President. He said "we are that the failure of the policy of the Foreign Ministry to clear the way for a settlement of the crisis."

Dr. Fisher explains 'bad character' reference

D. FISHER has called the Archbishop of Athens and the Patriarch of Alexandria explained his reference to Archbishop Makarios as "bad character" in a television broadcast. It was learned in London. Dr. Fisher made the reference in a broadcast on Sunday.

The Archbishop of Canterbury called, "Archbishop Makarios' ecclesiastical office highly honoured by me. My remarks expressly concerned his conduct in his personal character. Criticism qualified strictly to certain political aspects. Sincerely regret use of unparliamentary phrase. I am sure that ecclesiastical brotherhood may remain unimpaired."

He said in the broadcast, read out from his position, is no concern of mine. You remember that I am sure that ecclesiastical brotherhood may remain unimpaired."

"I have said official people who are heads of churches, but I am not a churchman. I am a member of the Prime Minister's Council. I am a member of the Prime Minister's Council. I am a member of the Prime Minister's Council."

Higher standards at music festival MORE VARIETY IN DANCES

ENTRERS in this year's Kenya Music Festival, which began in the Kenya National Theatre and at the Royal Technical College, Nairobi last Thursday, have so far been of a higher standard than in previous years. Particularly there have been few changes in which none of the competitors has qualified for a certificate. Funds in the amount of KSh 100,000 have been set aside for the festival, and a panel of four judges selected three contestants from each class to go on to the finals. There will be no dancing in the preliminary rounds. Mrs. Margaret Macpherson, Kenya College summer afternoon college supervisor, afternoon college supervisor, afternoon college supervisor, afternoon college supervisor will be in charge of the festival.

900 competitors
In all there are 95 classes in the festival through which have attracted many entries. These entries were received from all the provinces and districts. The festival committee had a hard task in arranging the schedule to suit the convenience of schools, secondary competitors and those unable to attend during the day.

The Central Western State dancing section was held on Friday at the Kenya National Theatre. The adjudicator was Miss Kathleen O'Connell, Honorary Secretary of the Royal Academy of Dancing and Executive Technical and Overseas Committee of the Royal Academy of Dancing. Few prices changed on London market

MINING SHARES QUIET

London, July 23 (AP)—The London Stock Exchange yesterday was very quiet and prices were generally steady. There were a few changes in the mining shares, but most of them were very small. The market was dominated by the news that the U.S. government had announced that it would not purchase any more copper from the U.S. mines. This news caused a slight decline in the price of U.S. copper shares, but it had little effect on the London market. The exchange closed with a slight gain.

Strong hopes of recovery in U.S. soon

M.R.C.H. PHILLIPS, leader of the United States delegation to the Economic Conference in London, yesterday said that he believed the U.S. economy would be stopped by a recovery. He said that the U.S. economy was in a state of "stagnation" and that a recovery was needed to get it back on its feet. He said that the U.S. government was taking steps to bring about a recovery, and that he believed a recovery would be achieved in the near future. He said that the U.S. economy was "stronger than it looks" and that he was optimistic about the future.

BILLS RESULT

As a result of the recent vote of 120,000 to 20,000 for the 48-day bill, made by the U.S. Congress, the U.S. Treasury Department yesterday announced that it would purchase 100,000 tons of U.S. government bonds. This purchase would be made over a period of 48 days. The Treasury said that this purchase would help to stabilize the U.S. economy and that it was a necessary step to bring about a recovery. The Treasury said that it was confident that the U.S. economy would be back on its feet in the near future.

UNEXPECTED INCREASE

ON May 6 you published tables, on which from official sources, purporting to show how we would all benefit from the new income tax structure.

According to these tables a man on £2,500 a year with two children, under the new system, would find his tax reduced from £272 to £184. Even on income with £2,000 a year would, according to this table, be £118 better off.

I have had children none of whom was at school last year, as it might have been. My tax would have been even greater than the amount given in your table.

In 1951, owing to my 1952 income, the income tax liability charged on my total income of £2,123, arrived at the value shown in my home. In 1952 they arrived at a figure of £2,144, also including my home, a difference of £21 only. Of the 1952 income they assessed the income to be £2,138, and of my income £187, and the tax to be £1,951, a reduction of £201, or a saving of £1,750 last year. In 1953 last year, despite the value shown in my home, my tax amounted to £1,957 of my employer that I would have £30 to £70 less to pay, I have been charged £176, plus £117 10s. hospital tax.

THESE two pictures illustrate the present-day tragedy of Cyprus. A struggle for the island, which runs through the middle of Nicosia, proud capital of the island, dividing Greek from Turk and Greek from Greek, in a city where of riots and murder. To the British security forces it is a way of keeping the peace, but to some of the people it is the barrier between him and the cooling breeze of a kerside seller.

To the barefoot child (right), it is the barrier between him and the children he used to play with on the other side of the street.

Live in beauty

Choosing is an art, and your skin is the foundation to it. The modern woman is willing to do anything to care for her skin in the natural way—a smooth massage with the gentle cream before the shower, 2 or 3 times a day. She washes with cool water, and never uses soap. She never frowns and never, never, never wrinkles, wrinkles, wrinkles. She is a beauty that is built on a necessary, lasting you live in beauty.

WOMAN FOR STAGE PERFORMERS

By SUSAN VAUGHAN

Two actresses, with combined ages of more than 150, have done in Ohio, Scotland, to be in apparently married life and Kicking. They are Dame Edith Thompson, aged 70, and Edwina Woodhouse, aged 85. They have both spent more than half a century in the theatre.

Fifty-four years and one of thousands of curtain calls have passed since Dame Edith walked on the stage for the first time on the New Theatre in London in the Merry Widow in 1894.

Edith played a princess and her character was so good that she was offered a contract for the first time in Scotland. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London.

ILL-FORTUNE

A French singer, Edith Piaf, who has been in the United States for some time, is in London on the stage in Scotland. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London.

NEVER TIRED

She was the fourth woman to be honored in the United States for her performance in the theatre and it is an honor of the highest order. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London.

LONG-JUMPER

The surprise selection in the Empire Games team in long-jumper was Miss Woodhouse. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London.

DOUBLE WINNERS

Both Miss Piaf and her husband, Raymond Piaf, the French, have won the Olympic Games. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London.

PARISIAN DECORATE IN VIOLET MAUVE

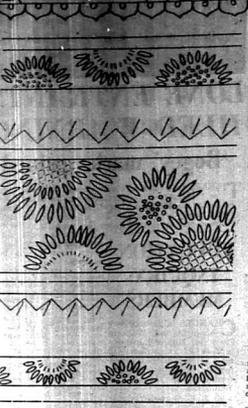

ALTHOUGH they are difficult to handle because of the infinite complexity of shades, violet and cyanine have come into great favour in Paris for the 1936 Olympic Games. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London. She was then offered a contract for the first time in London.

MODERN STITCH REPLACES GOLD BORDERS OF P

By ZARINE EROU

In days gone by many of us wore narrow borders, to make the narrow borders broader the border the richer the trappings of borders was a good substitute for the husband or father. However, times have changed and today the rich gold borders have been replaced by colorful cotton and silk borders.

RICH LOOK

A smart good idea is to make an outfit on an overdress. Of course, you will need the very best of the border.

PARISIANS DECORATE IN VIOLET MAUVE

A formal garden, has walls of very pale pinkish-mauve covered with blue-grey lilies. The curtains are of a light mauve with blue-grey lilies on the walls. But the hostess set made of velvet in a warm blue.

Customs concession EXTRA 12 DAYS' GRACE

FREAS of East Africa's small importers that new customs administrative procedure would involve them in heavy storage charges at the ports have been dispelled by a public notice.

Under the new customs regulations, importers were required to deposit and sign a letter of guarantee with the Customs authorities. Only four days' free storage is granted for imported goods if they are not imported within that time and if they are not sufficient time to study the forms and obtain a certificate of importation from overseas.

They predicted that they would have to meet additional storage charges and they were able to charge such "unconformable" forms for the satisfaction of the authorities.

After hearing the views of members of the Association of Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Eastern Africa at an emergency meeting last week, the Commission has now announced that it will grant an extra 12 days' grace will be given to importers to comply with the new regulations.

The public notice states that the Customs Department will accept letters of guarantee supported by a deposit of 20% of the value of the goods. However, importers of the value of less than Rs. 1000 will be provided within 12 days of the date of entry.

In a letter to the secretary of the Association of Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Eastern Africa, the Commission points out that it is aware of the fact that the new regulations will be a source of concern to the importer and not by his customs agent.

NEW VACCINE PRODUCED BY W. GERMANY

Protection for cattle VACCINE which makes it easier and cheaper for farmers to inoculate their cattle against foot-and-mouth disease has been produced in concentration form by two West German firms.

German chemical firm, which has had to inoculate its animals against the disease since it was introduced in 1927, an official in Germany in 1937, the official said.

The official said that while the vaccine has been certified by the Government, it has not been approved by the Government. He said that the vaccine is not yet available in the market.

TOURISTS SHAKEN BY SCOTS

Tony Lock saves day - with bat

Last-wicket batsmen just hold out

TONY LOCK came to the rescue of the touring party in the first Test against Glamorgan at Swansea.

After a day's rain, the rain stopped in the evening and a hard-hitting day for Lock followed. He was the only batsman to score 50 runs, and he was the only one to score 100 runs. He was the only one to score 100 runs.

The New Zealand cricketers only just managed to get over what would have been a tremendous day for Scotland in the one-day match at St. Mir. At the end of the day, the tourists were 195 for nine.

Lock scored 100 runs in the first Test against Glamorgan at Swansea. He was the only batsman to score 50 runs, and he was the only one to score 100 runs.

Peter May to lead M.C.C. in Australia

Peter May, the Surrey and England batsman, will lead the M.C.C. tour to Australia in 1955. He will be accompanied by a strong team of cricketers.

Bart struck the most important blow by removing the last wicket, which had been built up by the tourists. He was the only batsman to score 50 runs, and he was the only one to score 100 runs.
