Kenya junior squash title for Cambrian

THE 18th Kenya junior squash championships resulted in the defeat of the No. 1 seed and the title going to the Prince of Wales School for the first time. In a hard-fought, five-game final match, J.W. Capon (Prince of Wales), the No. 2 seed, beat D. Moody (Duke of York) by three games to two.

This is also the first time the cup has passed out of the hands of a Duke of York boy since his inauguration in 1948.

In the semi-final Moody had been strongly challenged by M. de Broese van Groenou (D.O.C.) who just failed to bring off a surprise win, losing '2 to 1 in the fifth game.

On the other hand, Capon disappointed of R. Silverstone (P.A.W.) easily.

In the final he looked as though Capon would have it all his own way when he dominated the first two games.

The third game, however, saw Moody begin to assert himself. Having won that he took the set comfortably.

The final game was closely fought until suddenly Capon took the upper hand and took through to win.

In two earlier inter-school matches Moody had defeated Capon.

Psychiatrists report on alcoholism and schizophrenia

WHEN overwhelmed by their problems, men are more likely to take to the bottle than women, according to a report presented at a meeting of the American Psychiatric Association in New York.

Dr. Joseph Hilgard and Mrs. Martha Weisman, who presented the report, say that women tend rather to withdraw into a private domain of their own.

The divergent reactions of men and women to personal problems are demonstrated in a study of 1,000 patients admitted to Agnew Hospital during a four-year period.

LACK OF ATTENTION

The investigators were first struck by the fact that among schizophrenic patients women were more likely to be hospitalized during a four-year period.

Yet, when the two diseases were taken together, it was found that the total of schizophrenic cases in alcoholism and schizophrenia was not as unevenly represented among younger men as among women. The onset of schizophrenia among women in the selected group was highest in the 20-25 age group. Among men, admission for alcoholism reached a peak in the 25-30 age group.

"Among alcoholics we see a tendency to later hospitalization. This corresponds to the fact that alcohol, through the ages, has been the most effective tranquilizer," Dr. Hilgard said.

STORED UP

A phenomenon known as the "schizophrenic age" was frequently displayed among female schizophrenics and male alcoholics by four to one.

"If the woman had just a nodder on the man's father at the age of 15, the first 'hospitalization' occurred when the man's daughter or the man's son reached the age of 15."

"While this associative reaction was prevalent among women schizophrenics, it was rare among men schizophrenics," Dr. Hilgard said. "It was, however, clearly demonstrable among male alcoholics."

HOWDIES ROBBED SCOTS OF A CERTAIN VICTORY

Stone-throwers at the African Stadium

STONE-THROWING by a section of the crowd at the African Stadium robbed Scotland of a certain victory when Mac well Brodie Cup against Sudan. The incident which resulted in the arrest of a game-winner occurred five minutes before the end of the game with the host team leading by six goals to one.

The referee stopped the game by abandoning the match which will have to be replayed.

It was the stone-throwing which has been the cause of the present incident, it appeared to be the intention of the crowd to throw stones at the players. The referee ordered half of the crowd to be cleared from the stadium and the other half to be dispersed. The game was then resumed.

In the match itself, Scotland were the better team, but Sudan were the victors. The Sudan goal was scored by a player who was in a position to score a goal which would have won the game for Sudan.

Bremer in command

It is a day of a command-halt, Bremer, however, above Khazim and took command of the match.

Blackwood also came close to scoring, but was denied by the Sudan goalkeeper.

A good number from Paxton and Blackwood were taken into custody for stone-throwing.

At the African Stadium, Bremer was the first to throw a stone.

Blackwood increased Scotland's lead when he scored a goal, but Sudan were the victors.

BEFORE YOU TAKE OFF MAIZE CROP IN COLONY

MAIZE Control in Kenya is to be replaced by a function of the country as a whole. This is the main purpose of the Kenya Legislative Council, as stated by the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Eldred D. Paul, in his opening address to the Legislative Council today.

The Minister stated that the Government is anxious to increase the production of maize in Kenya and to make it a major industry of the country. He said that the Government is committed to a policy of increasing the maize crop to a level which will enable the country to meet its own requirements and to export surplus produce.

Main functions

The Minister outlined the main functions of the maize control as follows:

1. To fix the price of maize for the consumers in Kenya.
2. To fix the price of maize for the producers in Kenya.
3. To regulate the export and import of maize.
4. To regulate the distribution of maize.
5. To regulate the processing of maize.

He stated that the Government is determined to carry out these functions in a way which will be just to both the producer and the consumer.

Unbalanced farming

The Minister also mentioned the unbalanced farming in Kenya, particularly the over-reliance on maize. He stated that the Government is committed to a policy of diversification of the Kenya economy.

Best management of new-type Reserves urged REPORT BY INQUIRY

DETAILED suggestions for a long-term policy of game preservation in Kenya, recommending the absorption of the existing system of National Reserves to several Game Reserves directly under control of the Government, are made in the Game Policy Committee's report, issued yesterday. The committee also proposes extensions to the National Parks.

The report, which is the committee's latest report on steps to be taken to improve the situation at Amboseli. Many of the recommendations in the interim report have already been acted on by the Kenya Government.

One of the committee's major recommendations is that the existing National Reserves should be grouped into three types: Game Reserves, a new type to be set up in certain areas which, in view of their location, should be developed for the preservation of wild life and recreational enjoyment, but which would be situated in National Parks because other human interests exist in them.

'Scenic attractions'

The report cites Amboseli, Mara and parts of Maralal Reserve as examples where, because of human interests, it is not possible to create National Reserves through the high fences which are usually maintained by the Government and which the committee would justify such a step.

A minority report by one member, Mr. William Cowie, of the Kenya National Parks, dissenting from the main committee's views on the setting-up of a new type of Game Reserve and the proposed method of control of these Reserves.

Under the chairmanship of Mr. R. M. Whitton, the committee has set up a sub-committee, Mr. Geoffrey Barlow, with the task of investigating the recommendations as to the policy to be adopted for the immediate preservation of game.

In the light of the urgency of the solution of the conflict in the Amboseli National Reserve between game and human interests, which is rapidly reducing the value of this area as a game reserve, to make interim recommendations for the preservation of the game in this area.

To consider the liaison between Parks and the Game Department and to make recommendations for the strengthening of the Game Department.

To consider existing game legislation and to recommend, if necessary, a strengthening of the game law.

In addition to the chairman, the committee consisted of the following members:

In future such questions on the wildlife resources, conservation and cultural value of the game areas for game and for other purposes, will be fully assessed and the committee will be asked to make recommendations on the basis of the main findings of the Advisory Committee.

It is of course to be noted that the creation of the present National Parks, which has an inherent ideal which had an interest in the National Parks Trust, and the Administration and the local inhabitants of the area.

The committee also recommended the absorption of the existing National Reserves to several Game Reserves directly under control of the Government, are made in the Game Policy Committee's report, issued yesterday. The committee also proposes extensions to the National Parks.

The committee's latest report on steps to be taken to improve the situation at Amboseli. Many of the recommendations in the interim report have already been acted on by the Kenya Government.

Controlled areas

Advocating the reversal of this policy, the committee stressed that in the country and the advantage to their own organization in the Government and suggests that it be done through the National Parks Trust, while the National Parks Trust continues to develop the public interests.

The committee also recommended the absorption of the existing National Reserves to several Game Reserves directly under control of the Government, are made in the Game Policy Committee's report, issued yesterday. The committee also proposes extensions to the National Parks.

Wardens

The committee suggests that in order to carry out its game obligation, the Kenya Government should strengthen its Game Department and suggest the appointment of four game wardens and a qualified rangers, with appropriate staff, with appropriate staff.

The establishment of a park unit is also recommended to the committee's study of game in the Colony. It says that in carrying out its obligations, it has continually been faced with a problem which could not be solved on the scant information available.

Weakness of system

Emphasizing the need for taking a regular series of game censuses, the report suggests that in order to carry out its game obligation, the Kenya Government should strengthen its Game Department and suggest the appointment of four game wardens and a qualified rangers, with appropriate staff, with appropriate staff.

Park extensions

Under the proposed new scheme, the parts of the National Reserve not included in the new Game Reserves would be declared Controlled Areas. The committee suggests that in order to carry out its game obligation, the Kenya Government should strengthen its Game Department and suggest the appointment of four game wardens and a qualified rangers, with appropriate staff, with appropriate staff.

THE YEAR

BY SUSAN VALDHAM

YUVA LAKSHMI PANDIT, India's newly appointed ambassador to Spain, has now set out in the Diplomatic Service which may carry her by any diplomat, man or woman. She has served in the United States, Russia, France and Austria, and has been the country's chief representative in London simultaneously—Britain, Ireland and Luxembourg in the world of female diplomats.

It is the Indian Embassy, and it is a young Lakshmi who is the star. From Toronto, she caused the biggest sensation in this country's Westminster Chamberlain when she was engaged by the British in recent years, and she has now returned to the top by her second marriage to the ambassador.

Two years ago, she and her self-appointed ambassador, Alan Mortimer was the No. 1 girl of the year, a position she had held for five years, then, after a divorce, she became very ill. She had since trouble, and a husband, she became very ill. She had since trouble, and a husband, she became very ill. She had since trouble, and a husband, she became very ill.

WOMEN

As a result, her terms de-termined by the Minister, she dropped from first to fourth—rank in the British Embassy.

She was ignored by the Westminster Chamberlain.

NOT SEEN

And when this year's Wimbledon arrived, she was not even seen by the press and fell to the bottom of the list. Her husband, the daughter of the greatest part of her life, she has since become a widow.

TRAVEL MINDS

LOOK BACK IN ANGER AT NAIROBI THEATRE

Donovan Maule Plays

DMXY FORER (like Archie Rice in John Osborne's second stage success, The Entertainer) has already become a talking point among intellectuals in Geoffrey Donovan Maule's production of Look Back in Anger, presented by Donovan Maule Players on Tuesday evening, March 28.

Maule's performance in making Porter of an unpleasant, arrogant, egotistical, and egomaniacal character could be presented on a stage.

Maule's performance in making Porter of a man who is able to avoid a self-centred, self-righteous, and self-satisfied attitude in such a way that he can still find some sympathy for Porter, while still being a good threatening character, is a character which would be hard to play.

Rare experience
The only two other characters have something to be said in their favour. Cliff Lewis (Porter's father) is played by John Stewart in Porter's faithful friend, an ignorant man but one with more than a speck of humanity; and Cliff Redfern, with Porter's father (Geoffrey Donovan Maule) is a character which would be hard to play.

More unpleasant
Porter's long-suffering wife, Margaret who comes to a brilliant performance, appears as a genuinely sympathetic character, but hard to play in a role of a character of this character. Victoria Grant

One of these roles cannot be played by a woman. John Stewart is a character which would be hard to play.

East African study in India
Foreign students, several of whom had been in India to study under Indian Government scholarships, have attended one-week orientation courses in Bombay and New Delhi. In Delhi, they were addressed by the Prime Minister, Mr. Nehru.

Race relations
MR. MOYBA has held a meeting in Nairobi to discuss the situation in the East African study in India.

Private enterprises
The International Finance Corporation announced in Washington that it had made tentative working arrangements with the Kenya Government to operate in the study and financing of private enterprises, predominantly industrial, in the Federation.

A QUESTION OF MORALS

It is not before time that a public opinion has been formed on the practice of prostitution by young African women. The practice of prostitution has been found to be a social evil which has led to the spread of venereal diseases in other parts of Africa.

We do not want it in Nairobi, but I fear that it is spreading in the city. It is a social evil which has led to the spread of venereal diseases in other parts of Africa.

Letters to the Editor
I have little doubt that Mr. Moyba has a very high regard for the moral standards of the Nairobi community.

A SHOPPING 'NEW LOOK' IN SUBURBS

It is not so long ago that shoppers from all districts in and around Nairobi had to do the bulk of their buying in the city. With the exception of a few shops at Westlands—which had since blossomed forth into a shopping centre—there was no alternative but to join the crowds that thronged the market and the streets adjoining it.

Now, however, the picture has changed. Adam's Arcade, opened in April last year at the junction of Garden Road and Ngong Road, is already well on the way to becoming a formidable rival to Westlands. The first stage of a building plan for Dagoretti has also been completed—consisting of four shops, a bank, butcher, confectioner and a delicatessen—and a block of three further shops has been opened in St. Austin's Road, Nairobi. It is the last line of Adam's Arcades. Facing now is a long, open, patient countryside, used by a petrol station, a Post Office, a taxi and a grocery, a grocer, a grocer, a butcher, a hair and a dressmaker. One may be the St. Austin's Road centre which looks rather like an English country house.

Here, there are a grocery establishment plus vegetable store, a radio and electrical shop and a butcher.

Unseasonal spell of rain did much to damp the spirits of that band of workers who had no successfully to place what must be the first of the first-class flats to be seen in Nairobi.

The flat was opened for inspection yesterday and was the best conditions that have been in the district of the preparations.

Periodic finishing, including the painting of the walls and garden or patio, in 15 acres of attractive grounds. They are the work of Mrs. Cecily Pitt-Moore and have been given name of Formyson Court.

Memory of her late son, who was a very good, which were had by Mrs. Pitt-Moore herself, themselves ideally to the flat she has equipped, as a further garden, complete with swimming pool, which divides the new property from Mrs. Pitt-Moore's individual styled in course of completion, and over in the four corners. On the other side, they each have a small balcony.

An entrance hall leads through an gateway into the lounge where a low fireplace is fitted for an electric heater, and a built-in record cupboard has over it glass shelves lit by overhead lighting. There are straight low tables and attractive design cupboards and door fittings in all main rooms, while french doors lead on to the patio.

In the main bedroom, a feature is made of separate hanging and dressing table space for two people; the small bedroom—which can be used as a dining-room, if desired, and has access direct to the lounge—has a similar built-in cupboard.

The American-type kitchen has a plethora of cupboards topped by Formyson's kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a 48 cu. ft. refrigerator, a three-gallon hot water system and have a servants' entrance and a walled courtyard for the utility bathroom.

The bathroom is also equipped in the same shade as the kitchen.

SURREY DEF BY 29 RUNS

Tony Lock fails to save champions

IN spite of a great display of spin bowling by Tony Lock, who had match figures of 11-1-1, the county cricket champions Surrey were beaten by Kent by 29 runs in a county defeat for Surrey, for the table with a ten points over Sussex, at the top.

Hamphreys was 114 not out, and a special highlight of the Test debut was his century, which he made in 114 minutes through the help of Tony Lock, who bowled him for 114 runs in 41 minutes. The first two hours of the match were very quiet, but in the 41st minute of the first hour of the second day, Lock bowled Hamphreys for 114 runs in 41 minutes. TENSE F.A. CUP REPLAY WON BY THE AIRMEN

IN a tense and, at times, hectic F.A. of Kenya Cup replay at Eastleigh, the R.A.F. side beat Margate by 3-0. After the heavy rain, the ball was greasy and the pitch slippery and conditions thus favoured the hosted airmen. Even so, they played some good football against a tough, even, veteran team and on the goal tally against a tough, even, veteran team and on the goal tally against a tough, even, veteran team.

Each side opened cautiously in the first half, but the R.A.F. side was more active and they played some good football against a tough, even, veteran team and on the goal tally against a tough, even, veteran team.

NASSER'S SECRET SIGHT TO MOSCOW

'Complete accord' after talks with Krushchev

MORE TROOPS ON MOVE

PRESIDENT Nasser arrived in Damascus by air yesterday. His plane came from Moscow, where he had secret talks with the Soviet Premier, Mr. Krushchev. The meetings, with their background of revolt in the Middle East, ended in "complete understanding," according to Cairo news.

The Moscow meeting took the Western world by surprise, as President Nasser was believed to be still in the yacht Hurta, making his way home from Jozulavija on Monday night as news came of the revolution in Iraq. According to a Cairo announcement, the yacht returned to Jozulavija when President Nasser heard of the American landings in the Sinai. He had a long meeting with President Tito and then flew direct to Moscow.

It is his second visit to Moscow within two months. In May, he spent five days in the Soviet Union, after which a Moscow statement said the Soviet rulers had endorsed President Nasser's viewpoint on all Middle East questions. Both Britain and America continued yesterday to deny they were involved in the Middle East. With the first lift of 3,000 British paratroops from the Middle East, Nasser is believed to be building up their military strength.

'Plot to seize Middle East'

In Kenya, more troop movements were also announced. The aircraft carrier Baldern, the cruiser Gambia and the transport Trinidad for Aden today with an undischarged number of officers had men. They will supplement the earlier arrival of men from Nairobi in the Arabian Peninsula.

Other troops on the move are the 1st Bn. Royal Fusiliers, who are sailing for the Central Mediterranean commands have arrived at Tobruk in the cruiser Rochester as designed to throw "a plot by Nasser to seize the whole Middle East, as his empire."

These troop movements have been matched by an increase in the Soviet Air Force along the border of Bulgaria, Turkey and Greece.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Macmillan, called a meeting of senior Cabinet colleagues to discuss latest news received on the British landing in Jordan.

OWNER-TRAINERS HAVE WINNING DAY

Fine weather for second leg of July meeting

AFTER a series of raw, inhospitable days the weather was warm and pleasant for Saturday's racing at Nairobi, the second leg of the July meeting. There was some excellent racing with the owner-trainers probably having the better of their endless argument with the layers. A favourite won and most favourites came first and second and first and third in two other races.

In two other races, favourites were in only two events were they unplaced.

After Goodenough had ridden the winners of the first two races, for the Delamare Stable, Dyer won four of the remaining five for various owners, including a hat-trick — his best day in the saddle for several meetings. Prior rode the remaining winner.

Leisurely gallop

They got away at a very fast rate, but after other races had been in progress, the Jack of Hearts and Dyer were all agreement with Castillon bringing up the rear and steadily making further and further behind the pack.

Then the Jack of Hearts bolted and Jumbo, who had appeared to have the race in hand, seemed to be out of control.

But Dyer found and exploited a gap on his right and in a few moments was in the lead, immediately switching round, to win with a head.

Ben Hur, too, made his mark on the second yearling.

Winner, found was winning over two miles for the second time in successive outings.

POLICE XV IMPROVE N.D.C. CHANCES

Barry interwove of Impala, it scurries off the field on a table after being injured in the

HAVING sustained their first defeat of the season last week, Kenya Police made virtually certain of at least a share of the Nairobi District Rugby Championship, on Saturday when they beat Impala by 16 points (two goals, a penalty goal and a try) to nine (three penalty goals).

Harqueus and Nondescrript were still in the running but the defeat put paid to Impala's championship chances.

Bad positioning and weak kicking by the regular centre, Mr Marshall flash through a gap after eight minutes play, and although tackled on the line he grounded for try which Langley pushed after 17 minutes.

But Interwood showed heavily but Interwood and falling away, tackled a narrow selection of a try point and had to be carried off the field. The line of this fine forward made things look bad for Impala, till the penalty seven forwards played a grand steering game all the while.

Fees, hard tackling was holding up our attack, by the centre men on either side. Langley, in the second half, got the ball with the defence tumbling on his back, and he went to Police stoppage.

Anthony a few yards out and he drove over for a try which Langley again converted.

Police were contented for outside play and Interwood opening the scoring for Impala.

Greater effort

All 16-3 the issue seemed to be settled but a royal penalty kicked by Harqueus, from 40 yards, which had the result of putting a goal and a try forward to power effect.

Langley and Dyer, with the score at 16-9, Impala played like a team till they were finally pinned at Interwood line and by the time the referee had blown for the interval. Langley intercepted a beautiful pass and kicked the ball well with care for a clear try and try after the pause, only to miss it by about 20 yards.

An early converted N.D.C. match on Saturday at Nairobi, between the N.D.C. and Police, by 16 points to 9. Harqueus converted a penalty goal and a try to give the N.D.C. a lead of 16-9.
