More details are given in the way in which the Royal Air Force reported the recent operations in the Western Desert by a correspondent who visited the Imperial forces. He says that one of the most striking features of the offensive was that we gained superiority in the air as the contest and never lost it.

The correspondent asked a Senior Air Officer how it was achieved and the officer replied: "By shooting the enemy down. We never let them get off the ground."

From Dawn to Dusk
The correspondent asked that dawn in desert Britain, bombers escorted by fighters, railed every German aeroplane that was in the air. They were shot down. The British machine guns were firing. They never saw a dive bomber succeed in crossing the enemy without being shot at.

In the battle on Wednesday he watched a large force of dive bombers attack the British positions. The British machine guns were firing. They never saw a dive bomber succeed in crossing the enemy without being shot at.

THE NAIROBI MURDER

Army Officer's Bloodstains on Car Floorboards

"Nanyuki Bullets Not Fired From Same Weapon As Car Bullets"

A DARK ROOM EXPERIMENT

THE opinion that four bullets found at Nairobi and the two found at the Kenya Hotel were fired from the same weapon was expressed by an Army ballistics specialist called for the witness yesterday during the trial of the late Major General Sir Denis Gurney, charged with the murder of Dr. Victor G. Kibaki.

The proceedings began yesterday with a statement by the Attorney General that the necessity for a demonstration was caused by a disagreement with Dr. Vint's evidence that it was not the same rifle which fired the bullet which was found in the car.

Dr. Vint had the knees nearer to the firing door than the high which was the angle of the body priming downward. It would be difficult to get the shot level towards the rear door, or, if it were, it would be at an angle.

The Attorney General: You saw Vint do this experiment?—You saw him fire it?—It did not appear to you that it was a rifle?

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

The Attorney General: It was your other hand with the rifle which you placed it in, that is, the left hand?—Is that correct?

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

The Attorney General: It was your right hand which you placed it in, that is, the right hand?—Is that correct?

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

The Attorney General: You saw the rifle fired?—Is that correct?

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

The Attorney General: You saw the rifle fired?—Is that correct?

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

What I am really getting at is this you will agree that in a certain number of years if it was a rifle which fired the bullet when you got your eye up to it, it would take me some time to get the rifle to the point where it would be in a position to fire?—Is that correct?

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

Dr. Vint: Yes, sir.

and lead to the disadvantage of the taxpayer.

Sub-clause (10) is rather lengthy, but can be explained quite simply. It expands the premises on which the directors and majority in respect of the company may be treated as directors in certain cases those premises or returns. Where this has been done a deduction may be allowed on account of the loss in value at a date to be fixed after the war.

Work Week Plant

"If for instance, £3,000 of plant is purchased for the purpose of carrying out a special war contract and that plant will be used for some of the work is completed, a deduction will be allowed immediately of the £3,000 which has been spent. If the plant is to be brought back as allowed. If, however, the plant is retained until after the war, it will then be valued on a date which will be fixed.

"That date has been left to Government-Council because we do not know when the war will end and will be the most favourable date for this purpose. I think it will be necessary to find a time when prices are fairly stable so that there will not be great difficulties in fixing values and anyone who wishes to dispose of his surplus property can do so and can claim the actual loss which he has suffered.

Sub-clause (11) provides for the profit on a long-term contract to be spread over the time during which it was carried out. In some trades the practice varies. Some traders do not bring in the profit until a contract is completed, whereas others estimate the amount expected each time they make up their accounts. This sub-clause will enable everyone to be treated on exactly the same basis.

Director-Partners

Sub-clause (12) deals with a company in which the directors have controlling interest. That is to say, any company in which the directors control the majority of the voting power at the annual general meeting and so, in fact, are themselves what one might like to call in companies of this kind the directors are nothing more than partners, although they trade under the title

PROPRIETY OF A QUESTION

Point Of Order Raised In Legislature

A written question was about to be answered in Kenya Legislative Council on Wednesday when a point of order was raised by Mr. G. H. Coker, who was not present. His Excellency ordered his ruling to be read in the House.

The question which had appeared on the order paper in the name of the Member for Nairobi by the Information Officer, mentioned by name in the question, had asked whether, as the speaker dealt with a controversial issue, he was expressing Government or private views and, if he was not permitted as an official to express political views in public, what disciplinary action Government proposed to take.

When Mr. Coker rose to ask the question, Major Cavendish-Bentley ruled the point of order that the question did not conform to Standing Rules dealing with questions of the Council. The rules cited by the hon. Member state: "A question shall not include any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible."

Mr. Coker, then, asked the question in the name of the Information Officer, without naming the individual.

Mr. E. H. Wright, Will Government and take the opportunity of making it plain to the hon. Member for the Chief that such questions of a personal character are not the province of the Information Officer, without naming the individual.

Found Property Unclaimed

The following property was found in possession of four persons and, although details have been circulated in Kenya Police-Gazette, the owner or owners have not been traced.

One hand woven Harris Tweed coat one "Hickox" brown jacket.

The above-mentioned articles were stolen on or before March 6, 1941. In addition there was found one H.M.V. portable motor-cycle with complement to hold six records, and eleven records. Also a vest, one walk out anti-vipers with red stripes.

Major Cavendish-Bentley remarked that that must not be taken lightly whatever to the question now before the Council.

With the consent of Mr. Coker, the question was not put, and His Excellency announced that he ordered his ruling on the point of order.

The Government's ruling on the question, by Mr. Coker, was that after consideration of the question, he was of the opinion that, as drafted, it did not

200 Russian Casualties In Air Raids

THE Axis Powers, Germany and Italy, by declaring war on Soviet Russia, were responsible yesterday for a continental if not entirely unexpected development in the international situation.

As the result of air raids, over 200 Russian people were said to have been killed or wounded. It is also reported that nine Soviet planes had been shot down on the Aeroflot line.

Dr. Molotov called upon Russians to stand firm against the German invasion, which he asserted, had begun without any reason being given for it.

Some radio emanated this afternoon, that Italy would not declare war on Russia. It was also reported that Italian forces had been sent out from the Italian army in Poland.

HITLER'S PROCLAMATION
Dr. Goebbels read the proclamation of Hitler in the course of which he stated that at that very moment a vast and terrible catastrophe was being carried out which would shake the world and end with the death of the German people.

THE proclamation began with the statement that after grave consideration, he was now in a position to make a special appeal to the German people.

He gave a short survey of what he called a British policy of "appeasement," which brought about the Munich agreement, and the attack on Poland, and the attack on Czechoslovakia.

After having got part of Poland, he stated that the German people had been deceived by the British and French, and that they had been deceived by the British and French.

FALL OF JIMMA

More Progress In Abyssinia

"As a result of activities of Italian forces led by British officers" stated yesterday's East Africa Force Headquarters communique, "the town of Jimma has fallen. On June 21, our troops had crossed the town. Italian forces advancing from the south and north surrounded the town and laid siege to the Italian force in that area.

"The Italian General, Hissac, offered the town to us to be left to us at that time there was no military advantage in our continuing to occupy Jimma, and for this reason the offer of capitulation was refused on Monday, June 21, as a result of a reinforcement of our force and of the further advance of our troops in the Lushai area. The situation has changed and on Monday, June 21, our troops formally occupied Jimma. The Italian force which had been in the town had been expelled on July 11th by the attacking British force."

"Operations are proceeding on the above front in accordance with the Italian force, which are directed on the Italian front on all sides."

Three Italian divisions are reported to be in the area.

Italian forces are reported to be in the area of the river and considerable quantities of supplies are reported to have been captured by our forces and destroyed.

According to reports, the enemy in the Jimma area was reported to be destroying petrol supplies and motor vehicles.

Major A. P. F. and Major A. F. plan to continue their operations in the Somali and Tigray areas and to capture the town of Dire Dawa. It is also stated that the Italian forces in the area are being retrained by our forces.

is working out such an average there is a very important consideration to be made. It is that any results which were achieved during those years can be taken as a basis for the three years. For example, if a business had a profit of £2,000 in 1938, a profit of £2,500 in 1939, and a profit of £3,000 in 1940, the average profit for the three years would be £2,500. RUGBY: GOOD WIN FOR S.A.A.F. Promising Form By Visiting XV

The usual two Services Rugby matches were staged by the United Services Sports Organisation last Saturday afternoon on the Railway Ground. As a curtain raiser...

This match was disappointing and mainly a display of ineptness, miscalculation and lack of training. There was little doubt of the superiority of the Supply and Transport team over poor opposition...

After the half-time interval the Supply and Transport team were well in front of the Services XV. The Supply and Transport team were well in front of the Services XV.

EXCELLENT TOURNAMENT AT GILGIL

One Round Sensation In Hectic Mill

A large and representative crowd attended the first evening and night tournament held under the aegis of the A.S.S. at Gilgil on Thursday, June 16.

The A.S.S. well-deserved their good win after numerous recent defeats and it was unfortunate that their hard-working Captain and Coach, Lesley Carroll, was not playing to share the success.

The defensive play of the visitors mainly rested on their captain, Lesley Carroll, and he acquitted himself well, his touch being better than that of the Services XV.

GROWING WEIGHT OF BRITAIN'S AIR OFFENSIVE
Day And Night Attacks On Large Scale

NAZIS LOSE OVER FOUR TO ONE IN PLANES

June 25
The progress of yesterday's Royal Air Force offensive over Germany was a part of the continual and increasing bombardment of the Reich from the operations round the group of the R.A.F. Command which the Prime Minister was receiving as a special position.

Another report says: "Our pilots report that enemy aircraft were reduced to a few stragglers and when attacked, made off."

It is reported that the enemy planes were destroyed in the ratio of one to four. The RAF was illustrated by the fact that of our bombers, only one was shot down and only two of the escorting fighters failed to return.

On the other hand, 200 German fighters were shot down, 100 of them being destroyed by our fighters. The RAF was illustrated by the fact that of our bombers, only one was shot down and only two of the escorting fighters failed to return.

Four In One Loss Ratio
The Air Ministry stated earlier that in the eight days up yesterday, the Fighter Command made 100 raids in daylight over Western Germany. Our losses for the same period were one bomber and two fighters.

PROGRESS IN SYRIA

Damascus and the Allied troops in the Syria zone are about 100 miles from Beirut. Fighting is reported to be progressing in the mountains of the Lebanon.

All three fighting efforts are operating in the effort to end the Syrian campaign.

In the biggest success yet made over the Syrian front, the Australian Air Force planes have been heavily engaged in the Beirut area. The planes were shot down in eight places on the ground.

Today's Elections

Compared with the municipal events taking place in the world at this time, municipal elections in a town in the heart of East Africa may seem of very small importance. In fact local government affairs closely the lives and welfare of a great many people and he who is intelligent to take a close and active interest in the affairs of their town and to ensure that as far as possible the direction of municipal matters is in the hands of the best people available. We have had occasion to comment on the past on the seeming indifference of a great many townspeople in Nairobi to this very important question of local government, reflected in the small amount of interest taken in municipal elections and in the proceedings of the Town Council. It is not enough that public interest should only be manifested when there is something presciently wrong such as the threat of an epidemic or a hint of scandal in connection with some member of the Council; it is all Types of London, by fully qualified Opticians.

LAND IN MUNICIPAL AREA

UNDER THE STANDARD

Question of Principle In Making Grants

A question of principle was raised by Councilor D. Newark at Yambou's meeting of the Nairobi Municipal Council in connection with the minutes of the Town Planning Commission.

The minute noted that the Commissioner of Lands had recommended the division of five acres of land in the vicinity of Watson's Park for the erection of a modern factory for the manufacture of building materials.

Councilor Newark said that the matter seemed innocuous enough, but a grave question of principle was involved in this grant of land. Government, he said, which had in the town to the value of well over £1,000,000, which had in the past been made without any reference to the Council, a country which in the past had always been ruled by the Municipality. The man mentioned had come from the East African continent.

BURTT SWYNNERTON MEMORIAL

Statement Of Progress

Now is a statement of progress made by the Swynnerton Memorial Committee in putting into effect the several resolutions which the subscriptions were for. The committee charged with the management of this fund for that, meeting a final report to the finance, an interim statement of their activities in a circular and the secretary writes:

In accordance with the wishes of donors and Burtt were transferred from Shikha and returned on the ship at Old Shinyanga in August last year. The retirement ceremony was conducted by the Bishop of Central Tanganyika and by the Rev. Maynard of Kolobawe. The Central Tanganyika and by the Rev. Maynard of Kolobawe. The ceremony on either side of a large granite cross, to which a commemorative tablet has now been erected. A service being held by relatives has also been planned on each coast. A service being maintained in the conservancy ground.

Prior to commencing Swynnerton and Burtt have been allowed and are to be administered by the Crown Agents, London. The money has been invested by the Crown Agents. The Swynnerton fund will include one of £250 each for European, African and Indian students of the African and Indian schools in the three East African territories, for one of the best students of the year. The fund will be used for the purchase of books, and for the purchase of other educational material. A Prize Committee of three will be appointed to award the money to the best student of the year.

Additional Remarks

As an additional memorial to Burtt, many of his original books, notes, and correspondence of various types in Tanganyika, Rhodesia and Nyasaland have been prepared for publication. It is expected that they will amount to about a hundred pages of printed matter. The Swynnerton fund will be used for the purchase of books, and for the purchase of other educational material. A Prize Committee of three will be appointed to award the money to the best student of the year.

Contribution to B.D.
Burtt, Supplement 121
Balance in hand 845
Total proceeds of cheques and cash received 845

It should be explained that after unallocated subscriptions had been equally divided, the total amount was subscribed in the proportion of seven parts for Swynnerton to five parts for Burtt. This proportion has given the allocation of the fund to the four Swynnerton prizes of annual value £215 on one hand, and to the Burtt prize of £215 on the other hand. The Journal of Ecology on the other hand, the actual value of the prize may actually be somewhat larger than the endowment of about £215. When the balance of about £215 is finally disposed of, it will be as far as possible distributed in the same proportion, whether as a fund or for other purposes. It is hoped to use part of it to erect some sort of memorial on the site of the conservancy.

COUNCIL DEBATES EDUCATION

difficult to estimate the work of teaching-training. It might however be possible to make further provision for teacher-training in the near future. Arab schools had suffered the most and the secondary school at Shikha-Trove had also been affected by the war. The Government could speak and teach in Arabic, but he had obtained a grant from the Director of Education at Eldoret that the military school at Shikha-Trove should be again available. He had tried in vain to get Government to do so. The Government could speak and teach in Arabic, but he had obtained a grant from the Director of Education at Eldoret that the military school at Shikha-Trove should be again available. He had tried in vain to get Government to do so.

Discussions with Military

He then stated that there had been discussions with the military concerning the return of the school buildings at Shikha-Trove. The school buildings at Shikha-Trove had been used as a club room until December, 1942, when they were handed over to the South African W.T.S. other equipment was made available and well equipped domestic science room built.

Indian Education

On the subject of Indian education, a large number of schools had been opened from time to time by the military and the Government. The Government had granted a grant of £2,000 to the Government to start the new school at Shikha-Trove. He was glad with great dimensions of the matter of Indian education in Indian schools. Qualified teachers had joined the school, and it was difficult to find staff for Government and the Indian schools, but he had been decided for local recruitment was not always satisfactory and he would be happy to talk to the Government in regard to this matter.

Replying to the debate, Major Chamberlain, on education, said that the Director of Education should remove many misunderstandings. As to the first point, he was whether Government had any plan to secure adequate staff for schools to secure adequate staff for schools. He would be happy to talk to the Government in regard to this matter.

Anomalies In Imports Control Alleged

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT] Anomalies in the working of imports control in East Africa, which operated against Tanganyika traders, were alleged at last week's meeting of the East African Chamber of Commerce when the new Executive Control Board was discussed. The Chairman, Mr. C. Phillips, said that he had been appointed to the Board and to inspect the members of the trading community would notify him of any difficulties.

The Deputy Chairman, Mr. Riley promptly did so. He said that he had been ordered to order for a variety of goods including tea, turpentine, and Manchester piece goods which had been given an import licence immediately. Mentioning this to the Controller of Imports, he had been told that import licences could be obtained only for essential goods. Yet applications for licences had recently been made and applications would be held to be valid.

The Government had announced the recent Government communiqué had spoken of drastic cuts.

Statement Wanted

Mr. Riley urged that a definite pronouncement should be made at the earliest possible moment. He pointed out that the Government had been asked to supply a statement equally over the whole of East Africa when the Territory had been getting licences freely.

Mr. Chapman said that he had been told that after the war had been declared in Kenya in the same way as it had in Tanganyika, and he was confident that the Government would be able to deal with the matter.

[STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT]
In the East African Standard recently in an editorial "Services," there was a slight mention of the organization of women power in Uganda. In Kenya the position is entirely different. The revenue collected from State Duty on agricultural produce is comparatively trifling. It is not only because of the rate being much lower than in Great Britain, but also because of the fact that Kenya is practically a new country and that the agricultural produce is not yet in large quantities. It is a pity that the Government is not to control the market and the price of the goods.

I am sorry one of the two thousand and State Duty does not worry them any more and increases. What does worry me is not the fact that the agricultural produce in Kenya has dropped in the past twenty years despite all the development and progress in Kenya. It is a pity that the Government is not to control the market and the price of the goods.

AXIS POWERS AT WAR WITH RUSSIA

BOLSHEVISM SCARE RESURRECTED

U. S. WILL GIVE SOVIET ALL POSSIBLE AID

The Axis Powers, Germany and Italy, by declaring war on Soviet Russia, were reopening last Sunday for a conditional if not entirely unsuspected development in the international situation.

In London, the House of Commons on June 12, in a broadcast from Moscow, the British Government has announced that it is prepared to support the Russian people in their struggle against the German invader, which was asserted, but given for it.

A German attack on Russia was announced in a broadcast from Moscow on June 22. Except for a reported statement in Moscow by M. Molotov, the German Government declared that it attacked the northern frontiers at many points, there was little news of the actual fighting.

In the result of air raids over 200 Russian people were said to have been killed and 100,000 wounded. It was also reported that nine Soviet planes had been shot down on the Russian front.

M. Molotov called upon Russia to stand firm against the German invasion, which he asserted, had begun without any reason being given for it.

The radio announced this afternoon that Italy had declared war on Great Britain and that hostilities would begin at 5.30 p.m.

In London the Soviet Ambassador, M. Molotov called at the Foreign Office, and was given a long talk with Mr. Anthony Eden.

Dr. Goebbels read the proclamation of Hitler in the course of which he said that it was the most violent march which had ever taken place in the history of the world, and that it was the most violent march which had ever taken place in the history of the world.

The proclamation began with the statement that after three years of hesitation and many months of the Russian people had been in a position to speak freely.

In a speech survey of what is described as Britain's policy in the war, and Hitler's final desire for the Russian people, a revolution, Hitler had made Molotov's speech, which had no interest whatever in the Baltic was in violation of the Polish war in violation of the Polish war in violation of the Polish war.

Hitler complained that the operation of the Russo-German treaty of commerce had been terminated, and that a million German nationals had been taken for the Russian front.

Hitler proclaimed that Russia demanded a withdrawal after the end of the Polish campaign, and that the Russian Government had refused to do so.
