SMITH APPOINTS OWEN 'GOVERNOR'

British Government ignores challenge

The British Government last night three days a direct challenge to the United Kingdom's declaration of independence. Its Deputy Prime Minister, Lord Home, was appointed 'Acting Governor' of the Government under the terms of the constitution proclaimed by the South African Government.

The rebellion against British rule was taken a stage further since the 'Acting Governor' is intended to take over the powers vested in the Governor, Sir Humphrey Gibbs, who is appointed by the Queen as her direct representative. Sir Humphrey has been virtually imprisoned in Government House since the illegal declaration of independence.

But he has remained at his post although the cabinet Government ordered the removal of his seven official cars and all his ceremonial and security guards, while his telephone was cut off and his British flag was ordered to leave.

'Last trappings' being stripped

Sir Humphrey, however, was last night reported to be still in Government House on the eastern side of Johannesburg. Immediately after Mr. Smith declared Rhodesian independence in his cabinet, claiming he was the only lawful authority in the country, the Minister rejected the question of dismissal and dismissal and announced that he would remain in his official position as long as he was supported by the Government.

Last night's dramatic statement by Mr. Dupont's cabinet was a direct challenge to the British Government's position. Mr. Dupont's cabinet was reported to have been in session for several hours before Mr. Smith's announcement.

EXPLOSION ROCKS CENTRE OF BULAWAYO

An explosion last night caused considerable damage in the centre of Bulawayo, Rhodesia's second largest city. First reported, but not one was injured. The cause of the blast was reportedly a gas cylinder which exploded in a room in the city.

Crisis Cabinet

Mr. Wilson discussed the Rhodesian crisis with the Prime Minister, Harold Wilson, in a meeting of the Cabinet's Defence and Overseas Committee. The Prime Minister, however, had insisted that the Rhodesian Government should not be recognized as the legitimate authority in the country. The Rhodesian Government, however, had insisted that the Rhodesian Government should not be recognized as the legitimate authority in the country.

Young banditsmen aid hungry

The Thin Red Line of the Salvation Army's Institute for the Blind, being patrolled by 'Bandits' and 'Jungs' at the National Theatre, Nairobi, last night, under the direction of Major W. Woodhouse, Director from here of the Salvation Army's Home for the Blind. The proceeds of the concert will be donated to the President from among the proceeds of the 'Young World Appeal' for this cause.

Uganda demands force

At a Press conference at Entebbe yesterday, Uganda's Prime Minister, Mr. Obote, demanded that Britain should use force in Rhodesia.

At a statement in Entebbe, the Uganda Minister said that he had been told that Britain was not prepared to use force in Rhodesia.

U.S. ANNOUNCES WORST LOSSES IN VIETNAM

THE United States yesterday announced its worst losses of the Vietnam war amid other signs that the conflict is rapidly becoming more severe. In a series of big pitched battles - a change from the old hide-and-seek guerrilla fighting - 86 Americans were killed last week, more than in any week so far.

Indonesian air patrols stepped up

INDONESIA has ordered its air force to step up air patrols over West Java, the former Dutch colony bordering Australian New Guinea. The move was announced in Djakarta yesterday.

An air force spokesman refused to say why or when the order was made. He did, however, say that the move was against alleged sabotage operations by Australian planes.

The order relating to West Java air patrols came as the President's cabinet in the Netherlands announced that it would send a mission to West Java to investigate the alleged sabotage operations.

NEW STEPS TO PROTECT NEGROES

PRESIDENT JOHNSON will introduce legislation to the New Year 'to prevent injustice to Negroes at the hands of all-white juries'. He had long advocated in Washington the need for such legislation. The bill would require that in both State and Federal courts, a jury must be composed of both Negro and white jurors.

The President clearly has a great respect for the rights of Negroes and is determined to take steps to protect them.

Tied vote for China - but no U.N. seat

THE vote on a resolution calling for the admission of China to the United Nations resulted in a tie at the end of the General Assembly's debate last night. The voting was 47 for the motion and 47 against, with 28 abstentions.

As the assembly had previously decided that a two-thirds majority was needed, the resolution was defeated. It was the closest that China has ever come to being invited to take a seat in the U.N.

Taiwan has continued to insist that it is the only legitimate government of China. It has also insisted that it is the only government of China.

ASIANS NAME 16 CRICKETERS

Rasik will lead team against Europeans

THE Asians are taking the forthcoming annual cricket match against the Europeans very seriously and have already named 16 players from their side to play in the first Test. The team, which is to take place in six weeks' time, is the most popular on Kenya's cricket calendar.

Three big names from the list are missing. Guruswami, who captained the side last year, will not be playing. Girdle is taking up most of his time at present, and has played only two matches this season. In the two last ones of the most prolific, opener, the ace, Othman, another omission are the S.A.S.C. all-rounder, Nicholas Akh, who is in training here, and "Toby" Smith, who is in London.

Little cricket has played since the last Test. The Kenya Cricket Club has been playing a few matches in an attempt to revive the game. The club has been playing a few matches in an attempt to revive the game. The club has been playing a few matches in an attempt to revive the game.

properly trained engineers vital to Kenya

Kenya's engineers could do a great deal to assist Kenya in making their professional skills available and by making use to the government of the Minister for Works, Communications and Power, Mr. Mwanjumba, said at the annual dinner of the Institution of Engineers (Kenya Division) in Nairobi last night.

They were also doing excellent work in setting up an engineering institution which would be truly East African and in which the Government could have confidence.

Mwanjumba said there had been considerable advances in the past two years in all engineering fields. His Ministry had negotiated loans for other road programmes worth millions of pounds and for the purchase of many hundreds of miles of bitumen roads and for other road programmes worth millions of pounds and for the purchase of many hundreds of miles of bitumen roads and for other road programmes worth millions of pounds and for the purchase of many hundreds of miles of bitumen roads.

PROOF OF GOOD INTENTIONS

Mr. Mwanjumba said that the institution had to be affiliated to foreign institutions and that was an absolute fact. The fact that members had elected an African election officer was a good sign, but it was not enough to give the institution the confidence of the Government.

A more convincing proof of good intentions was the institution's policy of recruiting students from all parts of Kenya and returning to Kenya to practice their profession in their own country and this enabled the Government to have confidence in the institution.

U.S. BOXERS COME TO Matched contest against Kenya for Jamhuri

A UNITED STATES boxing team will definitely meet a team from East Africa next month. The team is due to arrive on December 7 and will stay in Nairobi for a few days before the start of the itinerary, which has not been finalized, will be a match-contest against the Kenya team at the country's headquarters on December 12. The tournament will probably be held at Nairobi at the City Hall.

The team will travel to Nairobi and may take on a team from the Nairobi Boxing Club and there is a possibility that a "Mouton" title fight will be staged in the town. Seven boxers will be the party and they will be accompanied by a manager, coach and a trainer. It has not yet been decided whether Archie Moore will manage the side but there seems to be a possibility that a "Mouton" title fight will be staged in the town.

Last night it was revealed by the president of the Amateur Boxing Association of Kenya, Mr. Mwanjama, that the team from East Africa had been asked to spend four hours each day in training from 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. on the days when they were in Nairobi.

The manager said that a telegram asking the A.B.A. to send the team was received by the association. He said that a letter giving details of the arrangement had been sent to the manager and it was expected would be met by Nairobi.

Last night Mr. Mwanjama sent a telegram to Zambia accepting the invitation.

Discrimination will no longer be tolerated

DISCRIMINATION based on colour, race, creed or religion would not be tolerated in Kenya, the Minister for Commerce and Industry, Dr. Koinange, said in Nairobi yesterday.

Dr. Koinange said that it is important to emphasize that the Government is not a Government of colour. He was speaking at the opening of a building centre for crippled children by the President of the Central Chamber of Commerce, Mr. M. M. Madani.

MASS STRIKES IN RHODESIA

Meetings threatened if call disobeyed

Thousands of African staged strikers yesterday in the Rhodesian towns of Bulawayo and Gwelo, and many said they were threatened with African nationalist meetings if they disobeyed strike orders.

In Bulawayo, the country's main industrial center, nationalists formed pickets for their people badly damaged despite a police escort.

Yesterday's strikers were the first large-scale response by Africans to a call for a general strike since Mr. Ian Smith's Government suspended independence in Bulawayo, there was a sign of petrol rationing and the U.S. Security Council's call to all countries to cut off Rhodesia's oil supply.

Effect on Zambia stressed

Source close to the Government said it was likely no decision would be made until it was seen whether an embargo could be carried out effectively. It was pointed out that any embargo would also affect Zambia.

Most of the petroleum products used in Rhodesia and Zambia are refined at the Mosambic plant in East Africa. Rhodesia's main Mosambic border crossing is situated at the Mosambic port of Beira, and piped to Lusaka.

The British Government was blocked alternative supplies from Africa provided from two fields. African alternatives, the Mosambic pipeline.

The British Government has been a strong supporter of Rhodesia. The Foreign Secretary said the National Front Oil Company was instructed by the Government to supply oil to Rhodesia.

London stocks show no definite trend

THE Stock Market continues to remain flat with the sort of the new fortnightly account, but prices showed no definite trend. Nevertheless, selective demand made quite a slight improvement in places, though the bulk of business was stimulated by company or by dividend payment announcements.

Collected securities made to hold quietly around the level of last week. There was a further loss of ground in the afternoon and the fact that the market was generally active in the early part of the day.

CALL FOR NEW TREATMENT AS JAILS FILL UP

An increase in the number of people sent to prison in Kenya has prompted the Government with a difficult problem and a way must be found quickly to reduce the prison population, the Minister for Home Affairs, Mr. Mbatia, said at the opening of the 11th annual conference of senior prison officers in Nairobi.

Mr. Mbatia said that the conventional system of building more prisons would drastically reduce the country's financial resources and he therefore asked officers to explore new methods of treatment for offenders.

The Minister said the modern trend to suggest progressive rehabilitation of offenders.

The Commissioner of Prisons, Mr. A. K. Wanjau, welcomed the idea of modern life in making modern life more and more common practice.

The most striking problem was that of young offenders, Mr. Wanjau said, who were being sent to the "old school" because of the "old school" system. He said that the Government was taking steps to improve the prison officers and to improve the conditions which will be on Thursday.

Tomorrow afternoon will visit Kenya Prison, Nairobi.

Lesson a wise two-year halt to settlement

Government is set for at least two years to enable post results to be assessed and present and future practice to be improved with recommendations of the Stamp Mission which visited Kenya for five weeks earlier this year.

The main conclusions on which the mission based its recommendations were contained in a statement issued by the British Minister to Overseas Development, Lord Castle, after discussions with Kenya Ministers in London.

ECONOMIC PROBLEMS

There is, therefore, it was noted in the Kenya statement that a disproportionate share of foreign investment should be allocated to the land transfer programme. Kenya was faced with a number of crucial economic problems and available evidence indicated that there was a population surplus in the countryside.

The standard of living of the majority of the population in towns and underemployment in the countryside. Much of African agriculture was marginal and dependent on rains, with little or no irrigation. The food supply was uncertain.

These serious problems would not be solved by the expansion of the present programme. It was necessary to provide a more radical solution to the economic problems, and this was to be done by a new programme to be known as the New Kenya Programme.

It was proposed that the Government should take steps to ensure that the land transfer programme is implemented in a manner which will enable the Government to finance its operations in a more efficient manner.

It was also suggested that the Government should take steps to ensure that the land transfer programme is implemented in a manner which will enable the Government to finance its operations in a more efficient manner.

AND PROPOSALS REJECTED Britain alone will not halt Rhodesia oil

Government has rejected the recommendation made by the Commission for a two-year "breathing space" to allow the time to analyse the work of the last settlement scheme.

The recommendation for a breathing space in settlement was revealed in a statement, issued by the British Minister of Overseas Development, Mrs. Barbara Castle, reported yesterday.

The spokesman said that the Kenya Government associates itself from the settlement scheme made by the Stamp Mission.

Political aspects underrated

"Whereas the Kenya Government appears to be underestimating the political aspects of the settlement, it regrets the fact that the Stamp Mission, in its report, did not take account of the political and social aspects of the settlement, and the extent to which such settlement programs have contributed to the stability of our country."

Mr. Smith has gone quite far in his efforts to get the school out of its present site and into a new one.

It is noticeable that Rhodesia, while claiming sovereignty over the territory, should have allowed the development to take place.

It is evident that Britain's half-hearted measures will not solve the problem in Rhodesia.

Any attempt by Britain to prevent armed Rhodesian military intervention can be regarded only on the grounds that Mr. Smith and his Ministers are trained white African serving officers and are loyal to majority rule unless Britain is faced with a full onslaught of white forces. The school will be held in its present site.

Action on shipping freight rates deferred

THE Shipping Committee of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development has agreed to wait until next month to decide whether to initiate a study of international freight rates. The decision, coming at the end of a 14-day session in Geneva, was the result of a compromise between the developed and underdeveloped countries represented on the shipping committee.

The underdeveloped countries, headed by East European Communist States, have insisted through examination of various proposals for a uniform instrument limiting the level and structure of freight rates and the structure of what goes on the books in that regard. The committee has been divided by the need to meet the needs of the world, which has ended yesterday. The committee should prepare a report which proposed study of freight charges and other shipping matters to be presented in a special session of the committee next January.

The committee's work programme also contained a study of the establishment of a world and regional machinery for the expansion of merchant shipping, and a study of long-term aspects of maritime transport.

Representatives from Rwanda and Burundi met with representatives of the African Committee of Civil Aviation after a decision by Civil Aviation Commission for Africa and Burundi to join the Nairobi flight.

Financial assistance expected to last for five days... French-speaking countries... the language barrier in continuing air traffic will also be made.

Central P.C. URGES PEOPLE TO WORK WITH NEW CHIEF

MR. HENRY Wambugi has been installed as the new chief of Agulhi Location in Nyeri District. During the installation ceremony the Central Provincial Commissioner, Mr. Paul Sait, appealed to the people to work with the new chief to help him in his duties and to accelerate progress in their Location.

Using the people to pay — and "local leaders" to help collect — the graduated personal tax due, Mr. Sait said he regretted that to date only 45 per cent of the tax from Agulhi Location has been paid. But he hoped that through concerted effort by leaders and others concerned the balance would be collected before the end of May only.

Mr. Sait warned against excessive drinking by young people.

He urged the Government to consider existing the main price as the only remedy to the current maize shortage because "we may be found in a desperate situation otherwise this country will depend on America for an indefinite period to supply yellow maize".

Minister plans to tighten up checks on maize traders

Minister for Co-operative and Marketing, Mr. Ngugi, said in Nairobi today that he would give the Government and the Maize Marketing Board more powers to deal with traders and to check on their prices. There is no provision in the present Maize Ordinance which says the Minister is the chairman of the Maize Marketing Board and to check on its prices. The Minister said he would make a law to do this. He said he would also make a law to allow the Government to take action against traders who are not registered with the Maize Marketing Board.

SENSELESS ATTACK ON CAR OCCUPANTS

I WOULD like to bring to your notice an incident in the form of a sensation and which occurred in the town of Kisumu on Saturday, Oct. 21, 1961.

It was a very serious one, involving the death of a young man, who was the only occupant of a car which was involved in a collision with a truck. The car was a small one, and the truck was a large one. The collision occurred in the town of Kisumu, which is a busy town and a very important one in the region.

The car was driven by a young man, who was a student at the Kisumu University. He was a very bright and promising student, and his death was a great loss to the university and to the community.

The truck was driven by a driver who was a very experienced one, and he was a very careful driver. He was driving the truck at a very slow speed, and he was very much surprised when the car suddenly appeared in front of him.

The collision was a very serious one, and it resulted in the death of the young man. The driver of the truck was not injured, and he was able to continue his journey. The car was completely destroyed, and the driver was killed.

This incident is a very sad one, and it is a very senseless attack on car occupants. It is a tragedy which could have been avoided if the driver of the car had been more careful. It is a tragedy which could have been avoided if the driver of the truck had been more careful.

Nairobi Revenue will be record £6,650,000

(City Council's revenue for 1955 will be more than £3,600,000 yesterday in his budget speech. Mr. T. S. K. Nindi, chairman of the Nairobi Corporation, stated that the Corporation's revenue would be £6,650,000, a 10 per cent increase on 1954.

The improvement of Kenya's credit rating was a reflection of the stable political situation under President Kenyatta. The Government and the city in coming years, and political stability would be for capital and investment in the country for a long time. It was important that the city should maintain a credit rating of a reasonable level.

EDUCATION EXPENDITURE

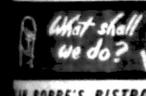

By the end of next year, the council's additional expenditure on education would be approximately £200,000 in two years. In addition, the council would have constructed 12 new schools and would have employed 120 extra teachers. Nairobi students would have improved because all school teachers would be qualified and employed on wages on par with those in the country.

TRIBUTES PAID TO RETIRING CITY COUNCIL OFFICIALS

Mayor, Ald. ... The retiring City Council officials were honored with tributes during a special session of the Council. The Mayor, Mr. T. S. K.
