ANOTHER CRISIS AT GENEVA. THE WAR IN THE FAR EAST.

French Objections to British Plan

OPPOSES REDUCTION OF TANKS AND HEAVY GUNS. Effect on German Attitude.

TURKEY DEMANDS RIGHT TO REARM THE STRAITS.

A further crisis has arisen at Geneva in regard to disarmament, as a result of demands put forward by France and Turkey.

During the discussion by the Conference on the question of land armaments, M. Paul Boncompagni-Ludovisi, President of the Conference, stated that France would not agree to a reduction in tanks and heavy guns while their claims to security were not fulfilled.

Mr. Natchay immediately replied that in these circumstances Germany must withdraw her acceptance of the British plan.

The Turkish Foreign Minister also demanded the abolition of the Straits clauses of the Locarno Treaty, and claimed the right to arm with heavy guns the fortifications in the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles.

Turkey suggested an international commission to examine the question, and it was agreed to circulate the proposal.

A Dramatic Incident.

It is reported that Mr. Ernest Bevin (British Foreign Secretary) and Mr. John A. Edgar (American Secretary of State) met in London on May 27. It is reported that the two men discussed the possibility of a joint Anglo-American statement on the subject of disarmament.

The definition of aggression was laid down by the Security Council Committee, established by the United Nations, in its report to the General Assembly on May 24. The definition states that aggression is the use of force by one State against another State.

A FRESH CRISIS. Objections by France and Turkey.

A fresh crisis has arisen in the disarmament Conference as a result of demands put forward by France and Turkey.

British Plan Modified.

The British plan proposed important modifications to the Locarno Treaty, and suggested that the treaty should be revised to take account of the present situation.

It is believed that Mr. Natchay will go to Geneva to meet with the other members of the Conference.

Locusts.

INFORMATION SOUGHT REGARDING CHANGES.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard," Sir—I enclose a copy of a letter received from Mr. H. B. Johnson, Chief Locust Investigator in East Africa.

As far as I know this Colony is free of locusts, but in the event of an invasion this Department would be glad to receive any information on the lines indicated by Mr. Johnson relative to the presence of phasids, and any such information with specimens received will be forwarded to him.

Yours etc. W. O. BRIDGMAN, Acting Director of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture, Nairobi.

[Copy]

Imperial Institute of Entomology Locust Investigation Agricultural Laboratories, Kampala, Uganda, 2nd May, 1933.

To The Director of Agriculture, Nairobi.

For some time past in Uganda as say rate here has been signs of a change in the character of the infestation, the locust (Locusta migratoria), which constituted the main pest in Africa is superseded in January 1933. Bands of hoppers seem to have been a rare smaller than previously and more scattered and form less than usual colonies in which egg-laying has been followed by only a moderate appearance of hoppers. Though parasitism and disease might bring this about, this is not certain and not been operative in any instance.

2. It is a matter of common knowledge and fully accepted that swarms (phasids) originate through a rapid multiplication in the solitary non-swarving local (phasid) adults, and this in the course of passage from one to the other an intermediate form (solitarily swarming) phasid treatment is produced. This intermediate form characterizes both the initial and the final stages of a outbreak of phasid plague such as we have witnessed for the past three years.

3. You are doubtless aware that an international scheme for the carrying out of research on African locusts has been formulated of which U Imperial Institute of Entomology is the co-ordinating body. I have been appointed to undertake work in East Africa and am for the time being concentrating attention on certain aspects of the subject which are well represented in Uganda. This work began in January last. It has been thought advisable to focus attention for the present on certain experimental sides of the work. As I am single-handed, it is not possible for me to undertake an extensive investigation of field problems over a wide area.

4. This brings me to the purpose of this letter. One of the many important matters in connection with these investigations is the ascertaining of the causes which determine the breaking up of phasid groups and the return to phasid adults. East Africa presents the most suitable area for such inquiries since locusts are present in some form throughout the year. Reduction in size of hopper bands may be taken as a very probable preliminary stage preceding the change to phasid adults. It is extremely anxious to obtain as much information as possible regarding the nature of these changes and also the extent of their occurrence throughout East Africa.

NAIROBI ROAD.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard,"

Sir—With reference to your report of the finding in the recent arbitration in regard to Martindale-Hood and Loams Road, the following requires some explanation:

(1) It is genuine to the subject to note here that the Nairobi Corporation require a prospectus to take over liability for a road, that it should be constructed as a water-bound macadam road adequately equipped with foot-stone and drainage.

It is a water bound macadam road.

Yours etc. PHILIP LAY, Nairobi, May 20, 1933.

THE REAAA

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard,"

Sir—As I mentioned in my previous communication regarding my intention to participate in the contest at Nairobi in the month of August, I have since received information from the Secretary of the contest that the REAAA is desirous of having their activities particularly well represented at the contest. I have therefore written to the Secretary of the contest and have been invited to participate in the contest.

I have therefore written to the Secretary of the contest and have been invited to participate in the contest. Yours faithfully, (Sd.) H. B. JOHNSON, Chief Locust Investigator.

mainly the above; this would be a well justified expenditure as there is hardly any reason to doubt that the general public will be interested in the results of the contest.

It would also be most interesting to know the number of circumstances which have arisen in the last two years and the number of times each member of the committee attended the meetings.

A more central visitors' group would be an improvement and more beneficial to all interested as well as perhaps of assistance to prospective visitors.

In conclusion, Sir, I would emphasize that the above is not meant in any way as a rebuke but merely as an expression of honest criticism of the 'how' that matters will be put right be fore it is too late.

Yours, etc. J. I.

OBEDIENT TO BIRDS

Sir—Can you kindly let me know the results of the contest in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi, at 11.30 a.m.—Ed. E. A. S.

Tanganyika "Living Within Its Means."

TEN PER CENT IMPROVEMENT IN QUARTER'S EXPORTS.

Gold Reaches Second Place.

IMPORTANT EXPERIMENTS IN COFFEE LIQUORING AND CITRUS MARKETING.

Gold has taken second place in the exports from Tanganyika. For the first quarter of the present year the gold shipped was valued at £49,580 which is £20,000 better than the first quarter of 1922.

An official trade and agricultural report lays emphasis on the fact that the trade balance is favourable and that Tanganyika is living within its means.

Important steps are being taken to broaden the basis of production and to improve the quality of crops. These steps include experimental shipments of citrus fruits which have had a good reception and research into the very important problem of coffee liquoring.

New Farms for Alienation.

The trade report of Tanganyika for the first quarter of 1922 makes more cheerful reading than the corresponding figures for the same quarter of 1921. The exports of the Protectorate Territory amounted to £66,000, or nearly 11 per cent more than the £59,543 for the first quarter of 1921. This is an increase of 10.84 per cent, while the total value of the exports for the first quarter of 1922 will be rounded by a useful margin, while the exports for the first quarter of 1921 were £59,543.

An interesting fact is that gold has taken the second place in the exports for the first quarter of 1922. The gold shipped was valued at £49,580 which is £20,000 better than the gold exports of 1921.

The third item on the list is coffee, valued at £18,000 which is a decrease of 10 per cent on the £20,000 of 1921.

The export of hides improved by 24 per cent to £10,000 in the quarter of £8,983 (hides was up and rose from £8,927 in the quarter of 1921).

The only heavy decrease recorded in the £20,124. Three products—coffee, hides and cotton—showed a fall in value. The value of the exports of these three products was £18,000, or 10 per cent less than the £20,000 of 1921.

The Government of Tanganyika is improving the quality of the produce and the quality of the labour and administration and the quality of the produce of the territory.

The balance of trade is favourable and more, therefore, in due course its effect on imports but only after facilities and loans secured during long depression have been met.

The report states that the balance of trade is favourable and more, therefore, in due course its effect on imports but only after facilities and loans secured during long depression have been met.

DRUGHT AT RUMU.

Little Sign of Further Rain.

Another week of rainless weather has been passed with little sign of any rain. The total rainfall for the first quarter of 1922 is only 1.10 inches, which is only one-fifth of the normal amount.

The drought is causing much suffering among the people of the Protectorate Territory. The crops are withering and the people are suffering from lack of food.

Household Hints.

Down Stairs.
WHEN dust is split on them sponge the stairs at once with cold water. The one on the top water.

To Soften Hard Water.
Dissolve 1 lb. of washing soda and 1 lb. of borax in one gallon of boiling water. For laundry purposes use 1 cup of this mixture in every gallon of water.

To Sweeten Bitter Butter.
MELT the butter and skim it. Into the butter place a piece of toast that has not been burned. If it is very bitter the toast will have absorbed the rancid taste and smell.

Embroidery Trick.
To prevent snagging tangle when you are re-embroidering in silk, put a piece of tissue nearby, and slip the skein between the pages of different books, and hang down outside. Thus you will be able to select the right colour quickly and easily.

Cushion Covers.
SOME of the most attractive and modern schemes are those with covers of embroidered worked with wool or canvas. They are extremely easy to make. The canvas used is a well-known material that is fairly strong and the wool used is in order to obtain a good effect and both design and coloring also harmonize with the wool. The Victorian pose or large flower looks out of loop here with modern decorative. Conventional or geometrical patterns come out well on a canvas background, or if the whole may be worked fully in large ornamental squares in four or five colors. When finished, glue the canvas with thick black cloth and back with any plain furnishing material. Light washable covers for a country country are made in this way. The best effect is obtained if a quarter of the cushion and worked in the center.

Sweeping Carpets.
TO save time in sweeping dirt-covered, unpolished and the dust will fall through on to the carpet which can then easily be cleaned.

A Simple Recipe.
This is a delicious fruit cup and can be made with any kind of mineral or soda water.

To the quart of water allow the strained juice of two lemons and two oranges, and one large apple, and cut into thin rounds. Add a little cream sugar, lemon or six of glass cherries, and allow to stand for half an hour before serving.
Pour this cup into a glass jug and add a good sized slice of fruit left over from breakfast. Some people add a little red wine and a bottle of ginger beer mixed in at the last moment with the ice. It is very nice.

Shown twice in white striped with red. There is a matching coat of same line at three and six prices.

New Colours for New Frocks and Hats

Practical Hints Further Notes of H. T. & L. T. Supplies.

ANOTHER method of obtaining a suitable H.T. supply for a small dynamo of generator wound to give the required voltage and current. This generator may be driven from any suitable external source of power such as a motor, but by far the most practical and economical method of driving it is from the electric motor deriving its current either from accumulators or from mains of any voltage.

In the case where a six or 12 volt accumulator is used, part of it can be used for L.T. supply, and as the dynamo also provides suitable D.C. voltage, any lead wires are accordingly eliminated. When an electric motor is used, drive the generator, they are often mounted together in one case and are called motor-generators.

The Accumulator. Having dealt with a variety of methods of obtaining H.T. it may be as well to return to the principal source of L.T. current, namely the accumulator or storage battery. Even where power from the mains is available, an L.T. battery is often used and this battery is therefore of great importance. Accumulators are in common for all sorts of purposes and there are two types, the lead-and-antimony and the lead-and-lead. The latter for portable use than wireless has some advantages, but it is not so well suited for wireless purposes as the former. It has a lower e.m.f. of about 1.8 volts per cell and is much more difficult to charge than the lead-and-antimony type. It is suggested that in selecting the accumulator, it should be of the lead-and-antimony type, and should be of a capacity of at least 20 ampere-hours. It should be of a size which will fit into a suitable case, and should be of a weight which will not be too heavy to handle. It should be of a type which will give a steady output of current, and should be of a type which will give a long life.

When Charged. A well-charged accumulator fully charged when the specific gravity of the electrolyte is 1.285 at 60° F. The specific gravity of the electrolyte should be checked frequently, and should be kept at this level. The electrolyte should be kept at a temperature of 60° F. The electrolyte should be kept at a level which will just cover the plates. The electrolyte should be kept at a level which will just cover the plates. The electrolyte should be kept at a level which will just cover the plates.

Keays's Tuning. It is suggested that in selecting the accumulator, it should be of the lead-and-antimony type, and should be of a capacity of at least 20 ampere-hours. It should be of a size which will fit into a suitable case, and should be of a weight which will not be too heavy to handle. It should be of a type which will give a steady output of current, and should be of a type which will give a long life.

Why? The purpose of this note is to give a list of the various points which should be kept in mind when selecting an accumulator. As already explained, chemical changes take place when a cell is charged. The purpose of this note is to give a list of the various points which should be kept in mind when selecting an accumulator. charged when the density of the electrolyte has reached the standard for at least an hour, the electrolyte having already assumed the "sulphur" appearance. The specific gravity of the electrolyte per cell will rise on charge to 1.285 at 60° F. The density of the electrolyte will vary slightly with the temperature of the electrolyte, but will always be about 1.285 at 60° F. Notes of the Week. RECEPTION conditions during the week were very good. The reception of stations coming through an strong and consistently. In fact the week has been a veritable triumph for short wave broadcasting.

EMPIRE DAY - To-Night's Broadcast. A Word Picture of Britain. The Empire Day broadcast was a most successful one. The reception of stations was very good, and the programme was well received.

Leader Than Niagara. With the extension of the broadcast to the Empire Day broadcast, it is possible to present all the major characteristics of the British Empire. The programme was a most successful one, and the reception of stations was very good.

Waves Lengths. As reference to high medium or low wavelength bands may be of interest, it would mention that in talking of the short waves, we mean from just under fifty metres and upwards to 100 metres. The short waves are those between the 20 to 30 metres and the long wave.

D.S.A. I do not see particularly in the exhibition of D.S.A. for D.S.A. is in the evening. Although the reception of stations is good, it is not so good as in the morning, and it is not so good as in the evening.

Points to Remember. It is suggested that in selecting the accumulator, it should be of the lead-and-antimony type, and should be of a capacity of at least 20 ampere-hours. Answer. Your set is not sufficiently selective. Below the six or seven annual or annual a very strong signal is likely to be received, and this will not differ very much. Can you suggest anything about this?

TOWARDS WORLD PEACE

GENERAL SMUTS.

United States' Offer of Cooperation.

DISARMAMENT OUTLOOK COMPLETELY CHANGED.

Important Statement at Geneva by American Delegate.

WELCOMED BY BRITAIN BUT FRANCE NON-COMMITTAL.

The whole outlook in regard to the disarmament question has completely changed, and the atmosphere is distinctly brighter, following a statement at Geneva by the United States delegate and the recent moderation of the German attitude.

In addressing the Commissioner of the Conference on Monday, Mr. Norman Davis, the American delegate announced that the United States was prepared to co-operate in the reduction of armaments and in other measures to assure world peace.

He described the British plan as a real measure of disarmament, and the United States accepted it wholeheartedly. The United States was, he added, willing to participate in a system of supervision to ensure the carrying out of disarmament measures.

Mr. Simon, on behalf of the British Government, expressed his warm appreciation of America's contribution to the cause of disarmament. The French Premier, M. Paul Doumer, however, adopted a non-committal attitude.

Mr. Davis emphasized that the ultimate objective should be to reduce armaments to a state of a defensive police force. As the British plan represented a real measure of disarmament, it was a definite and consistent step. It was in accordance with the United States' policy, and the United States would support it.

Tokyo, May 22.

Japanese troops are two miles from Peking (Peking) and expect to enter the city this afternoon, according to Japanese Press reports from the front, but pending official confirmation the War Office continues to reiterate the belief that this occupation will be avoided.

A War Office spokesman declares that in any case Japan has no intention of occupying either Peking or Tientsin; but that a small detachment might enter Peking and keep contact with the Japanese garrison, but will withdraw as soon as Japan is convinced of China's sincerity.

EMPIRE DAY.

ADMIRAL Jellicoe's Message.

Admiral of the Fleet Earl Jellicoe, as President of the Empire Day Movement has circulated the following Empire Day message:

In sending my hearty greetings and best wishes as President of the Empire Day Movement to every part of His Majesty's Dominions, I wish to express my admiration of the unselfish spirit which dominated the whole Empire during the very difficult year through which we have passed—a year in which industrial depression has caused much suffering and sorrow to all classes. It is a happy thought that the great Conference at Ottawa last year drew still closer the ties which bind the Empire together in a bond of mutual co-operation for the benefit of all.

The true Empire spirit which inspired the representatives at Ottawa from all the Dominions sounded a very welcome note of hope for the future industrial prosperity of the Empire. Should we not then unite in a firm determination, when celebrating Empire Day, to support Empire unity both in spirit and in deed?

Remember the watchwords of our Movement—DUTY, RESPONSIBILITY, SYMPATHY AND SELF-SACRIFICE FOR THE EMPIRE.
—JELICOE. A.F.—

Burden of Interest Charges.

HEAVY FALL IN REVENUE DUE TO RESTRICTED IMPORTS.

The 1932 report on the Harbours, although recording a considerable decrease in revenue, due mainly to the fall in import traffic, also reveals improved efficiency figures.

The cost per ton of handling general cargo in 1932 was Shs. 4.713 as compared with Shs. 5.07 in 1931.

The previous steady annual improvement in the operating ratio of the ordinary working expenditures to the gross earnings of the Port has been maintained, the figure being 44.35 per cent. for 1932 against 45 per cent for 1931.

The fact that there was a loss of 474,807 on the year's working is due entirely to the fact that the loan charges of £207,000 were considerably greater than the favourable balance of earnings over expenditure.

Export Tonnage Record.

The store of the administration 16,277, 19,008, 18,500, 19,000 of the harbours of Kenya is related in detail in the annual report.

The gross earnings of the harbours services last year were £130,000 more than in 1931 (£1,303,007) and £170,500 more than in 1930 (£1,132,507).

It is interesting to note that the ordinary working expenditure has decreased from 50.75 per cent of the gross earnings in 1930 to 44.35 per cent in 1932.

Interest Charges.

However, as in the case of the interest charges of the Port, a similar decrease has been recorded, the interest charges on the loan account for 1932 being £207,000 as compared with £274,807 in 1931.

The increase in the interest charges is due to the fact that the balance account for 1932 was £130,000 higher than in 1931.

It must not be forgotten, of course, that they are provided by law, and are consequently not the result of any voluntary preference on the part of the creditor. The Empire Shopping.

The Empire Shopping Week which begins today opens at a time when there is every indication that in addition to the sentimentality of men and tradition, to respond to the injunction to "Buy British and Buy Empire." Britain's trade policy followed a more and important occasion when the Ottawa Conference had closed and the Malabar Empire, advanced from the shackles of Free Trade, was in a position to give preference to its own people and to force down world tariff barriers through trade agreements with foreign nations only too anxious to secure some share in British stability. In East Africa we are do- ing a series of international Treaties that give preference to Empire goods but our inability to do so has not excluded those young businessmen from the raw trade (manpower on which the Empire is building a larger and better structure. East African products are preferred in British and Empire countries and in the Western Colonies pointed out in a speech which he was Governor of Uganda, the way open to East Africans to show their appreciation of that Commonwealth is to adopt a "voluntary" reciprocity as individuals. Great Britain, in its attempt to stimulate the sale of its foreign products in the development and exploitation of another year, has introduced a policy of exclusive nationalism. The Empire is the year when Empire Day brings to mind the tremendous fact of the Commonwealth and of the duties and responsibilities in the present world. It is therefore a time and opportunity for a practical demonstration of the common sense of the Empire. The Empire is East Africa's best friend. In 1932 the United Kingdom took over 43 per cent of the exports of Kenya and Uganda. In 1931 it took over 28 per cent. In 1933 it took over 58 per cent of the produce of the exports of the two Territories in 1932. The value of goods exported to Britain last year was £1,771,559 against £1,568,000 in 1931. These figures show that in preference to the purchase by any other customer at Kenya and Uganda, in the same year the Empire proportion of supplies of Kenya and Uganda requirements was just over £3,000,000 whereas the two Territories alone in foreign markets £1,790,000, although foreign customers only bought Kenya and Uganda products to the value of £720,000. The Empire Shopping Week has, therefore, a very sound basis for its appeal. It is largely a question of supporting people who are themselves helping the commonwealth. In Tanganyika, the British Empire supplied 22 per cent of the import trade of which 30 per cent came from the United Kingdom. The Empire share of purchases of local produce increased from 497,584, in 1931 to 479,484 in 1932, while the foreign share declined.

Native in Trouble.
In the Resident Magistrate's Court, Nairobi, on Saturday, a native reported a case of charges against totaling five counts against him. In the first charge he was fined £100, but on appeal his registration certificate was held in abeyance, and he was fined £50. In the second charge he was fined £50, but on appeal his registration certificate was held in abeyance, and he was fined £50. In the third charge he was fined £50, but on appeal his registration certificate was held in abeyance, and he was fined £50. In the fourth charge he was fined £50, but on appeal his registration certificate was held in abeyance, and he was fined £50. In the fifth charge he was fined £50, but on appeal his registration certificate was held in abeyance, and he was fined £50.

"Eva" in Trafalgar Square.
"Eva," as the police call the system, has been officially inaugurated in Trafalgar Square, London, by the Mayor of Westminster. The system is a most and most complicated installation yet carried out by the Admiralty. It is a system of wireless telegraphy which is discriminating and flexibly progressive, dealing with changes in volume and frequency of messages to minutes and from one road to another. This new system of traffic control has already proved up to the mark in its most and appropriate in its use, being very satisfactory. It is the fourth installation within the Western boundaries.

A Useful Brochure.
The "Prevention of Malaria" and "Malaria" is the title of a brochure which has been issued by the South African Medical Association Society, and its reference is made to Kenya Colony. It is a conveniently written little work, which lays bare the main principles of the prevention of the disease in its habits, but in a very simple and easy to understand manner. It is a most useful brochure and is well worth the attention of all who do not know the disease, and who do not know, and even those who do know.

NEW GOLD MINING AREA
How to Reach the Guri River.

Mr. Galton-Pearce writes as follows:—
The new mining area which is being thrown open for prospecting on June 1 lies due west of Lolgorien and south of Kiili. It is bounded on the north by the Mogoti River and on the west by Loloi Victoria and on the south by the Tanganyika. Besides, the approximate area being 400 square miles.

As doubtless many people will be thinking of prospecting here in the near future the following information may be of interest.
Prospecting rights can only be obtained from the Mining Office at Kiili on Wednesday, it is absolutely essential to travel via Kiili and not via Lolgorien.

Permits to enter this area can only be obtained from the P.C. at Kilimoes or the D.M. Kiili. Further a sum of £25 must be deposited either in cash or by means of a bank cheque.
The road distance from Longview to the new district is as follows:—Longview, 22 miles; Nairobi-Kiili, 70 miles; Kiili-Mogoti, 10 miles; Mogoti-Loloi-Victoria, 2 miles.
As Kiili there is a garage where petrol, oil, tyres, etc., can be obtained. There is also quite a good Indian store where all kinds of provisions are procurable. At Mogoti River and at Sumra, there are two small Indian dukaes, but only limited and unuseful goods can be obtained from here. So long as the Mogoti River is not in flood, horses and cars can cross by the ford. There is also a postman which can carry either one car or lorry at a time.

Money Returned.
An air passenger at Loloi resulted in a £10 being raised for the local hospital, but these institutions have decided to return the money to the signatories because they insisted on holding the display on a Sunday.

Sporting Bravities.

Late Start.
It is high time the Association of the officials of the various clubs met together and came to a definite decision with regard to the question of late starts in the soccer season.

The game between Railway and Civil Service on Wednesday evening finished in some darkness. It was irresponsible for the spectators to watch the ball throughout the last seven or eight minutes.

A definite hour should be set down for the kick-off, and if it turns in short, then the game should be proceeded with.

What would have happened if Stave had succeeded in putting a couple of goals in the last four minutes, by means of long range shots. The light was such that every keeper might have been accused if he failed to hold a high one from well out.

Had such a thing occurred it could have been unfair to Rail, who observed their victory, if only way within the bounds of possibility.

Nairobi Railway Club are sending a soccer team to meet the Nairobi Club tomorrow. The team will be: Wallbridge, Darling and Willie; Twomey, Gordon and Chappman; Simpson, Cropper, Bierley, Grant and Tucker. The trip is being made by car.

Old Cambridge R.F.C.
Old Cambridge Rugby team should do well this season. A young side, they have plenty of grit in them.

Experience is what they most lack at the present time, but that can only be gained in time.
Steyn has the makings of a good three-quarter. He has a sound back, but is lacking a little in speed.
Other promising backs are McDonald, Burns, Hall, and Reed. Overy. The latter has speed, and is a very safe.

The Pressing Forward.
Of the forward, Hoots and J. French are both very promising, but they insisted on holding the display on a Sunday.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST SWITCHBOARD.

Prince Sees How It Is Worked.

LINKING UP THE WORLD.

[STANDARD CORRESPONDENT.]
London, May 9.
(By Air Mail)

The Prince of Wales stood in front of the world's greatest switchboard in the new home of the telephone services in Grosvenor-Street, London E.C. 4, this morning, by means of long range shots. The light was such that every keeper might have been accused if he failed to hold a high one from well out.

It was the formal opening of Farming House by the Lord Mayor, who moved a switch which in a second turned the network of international telephone services from its old home over to the new one building which towers above the City's rooftops. The wonders of eleven stories of telephone wires shown to the Prince, and for an hour or so he was under way and out of rooms where the telephone light entered on these work just as though the Prince were not there.

The telephone caught his eye, and for a few minutes he inspected the marvel at work.

An International Note.
Then we went into the long wide room where London is linked every hour of the day and night with the rest of the world, and girls at switchboards and spoke the languages of all the nations. Marion Hunt was at a switchboard when the Prince went over to her. "It is the Spanish Royal and the Post-Office." The Prince looked at the girl with the surprise. "But you're not Spanish are you?" he asked. "No," she replied, "but I speak Spanish."

The girl at the switchboard took her cue from the Prince's remark and "Good afternoon. How are you?" The Prince smiled and answered "I am very well—and you?" he asked the same tongue. "Excellent," Marion Hunt turned her shining face to the switchboard, linked another ether in London to Madrid and the Prince passed on.

And only twenty one years ago London was getting linked up in an international link with Paris. Now City man can call up 20,000,000 out of 14,000,000 telephone subscribers in the world.

DOG FASHIONS.

Popularity of Dachshunds and Irish Setters.

[STANDARD CORRESPONDENT.]
London, May 9.
(By Air Mail)

Over 220 owners have entered Dachshunds—smooth, wire, long-hair and miniature varieties at the Ladies' Kennel Association Show, which opens at Olympia on Wednesday. Irish setters are another breed that has suddenly become fashionable favour. There are 17 entries. Women are also showing increased interest in whippets, it being being 43 whippets on show as compared with one in 1921.
A specially trained dog who acts as guide to a blind man will be seen at the show. The dog was trained at a school started last year at Wallasey, Cheshire, by the National Institute of the Blind. "Daphne," as she is called, will be with her sightless master, Mr. J. H. Burt of Southampton.

HITLER'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE GENERAL ELECTION IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Germany Renews Demand For Equality. PREPARED TO DISARM IF OTHER NATIONS DO SO. No Desire To Fight.

IF INEQUALITY IMPOSED WOULD WITHDRAW FROM LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

The political tension in Europe has increased temporarily by the terms of Herr Hitler's Berlin speech and the next stage in the disarmament discussions will be at Geneva next week.

Herr Hitler who declared that another European war would lead to the collapse of the existing social system, said Germany was prepared to disarm itself if her neighbours did the same.

He, however, they did not disarm. Germany must insist on equality.

The Chancellor also declared that if any attempts were made to impose upon Germany any treaty which perpetuated her inequality she would withdraw from all international conferences and also from the League of Nations.

World reactions to Herr Hitler's speech are favourable except perhaps in France where it is considered that the speech has not altered the disarmament position.

Meanwhile there are indications that the American President is about to define how far he considers the United States should go in her relations with European affairs.

U.S.A. Attitude To Europe.

President Roosevelt is preparing to define how far he will be willing to restrict the United States in helping to secure international disarmament.

It is believed that Mr. Norman Davis will make an announcement in this connection at Geneva on Friday, but the statement that the President is committed to the President's policy of disarmament and opposition in the United States to any disarmament is likely to be very strong.

64 including Government law officers... Several native males were arrested in connection with the offence.

Reviews... The Judicial Department is at present reviewing the question of Government. The total amount of fines, fines etc. in 1932 was Shs. 283,997.

In the subordinate magistrates' Courts of the country there were 25,228 cases, civil and criminal... The total number of cases dealt with in 1931 was 25,274.

Subordinate Courts... In the subordinate courts of the Colony the number of civil cases dealt with in 1931 was 15,224 compared with 14,273 in 1930.

There were 1,165 convictions under the Employment of Native Ordinance... The total number of convictions under this ordinance in 1931 was 1,165.

It is interesting to note, however, that out of the total convictions in these subordinate courts of 46,053 there were 27,000 offences under the "Highways, revenue and social offences" regulations.

Nevertheless, there is a steady increase in the volume of offences which is being done in the subordinate courts... In the first four years the total convictions were:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Convictions. 1929: 59,973; 1930: 68,251; 1931: 63,911; 1932: 65,325.

The figures for 1929 and 1930 include the Supreme Court... A further table published in the report supplies the punishments imposed in the first six years relating to whippings.

The report concludes with still another table giving the statistics for the first six years relating to whippings... It shows a steady decline in the number of whippings imposed in the subordinate courts.

In 1927 out of 25,112 convictions imposed in 448 cases, being 1.10 per cent... In 1928 the figure was 420 convictions, 21,382; whippings 420; in 1929, 25,772; whippings 451; per cent 1.70; 1930, whippings 22,600; whippings 452; 1.38; 1931, convictions 41,845; whippings 448; 1.07.

Increase in Volume of Lawbreakers.

LOWER COURT CHARGES RISE BY HALF IN FOUR YEARS.

Decline in Whipping Sentences.

LOWER FINES AND MORE FREQUENT RECOURSE TO DETENTION CAMPS.

The annual report on the work of the Courts in Kenya just issued shows an astonishing increase in the number of murder charges.

Annually for the reputation of the country there is an increase in the figures from 49 in 1931 to 108 in 1932 but included in the latter figure are the 60 Wakamba whose death sentences were reduced after public clamour to short terms of imprisonment.

An interesting feature of the report—which reduces every sort of crime to cold statistics—is the revelation that the number of whipping sentences is steadily decreasing in the subordinate courts of the country. For instance, in 1928 whipping was inflicted in over two per cent. of the cases. It has fallen steadily until, in 1932, there was less than one per cent. Punishment by flogging is also decreasing.

The report discloses the fact that an astonishingly high percentage of the work of the courts is due to infringement of the maximum sentences and regulations to which is given the curious official description of "High way, revenue and social economy."

There is, however, a steady increase in the volume of crime. The number of offences of every kind in 1929 in the subordinate courts was 26,467. In 1932 it was 46,001.

Juvenile Offenders.

The Government Printer, Nairobi, has issued a slim volume of 20 pages which sets out the statistics of all children who have been committed to the custody of the judicial system of Kenya in 1932. Crime in relation to children is a steadily increasing phenomenon and is a serious problem in its proper aspect. In the past few years, from 1928 to 1932, 1,000 children are charged with offences against property, 1,000 with offences against the person, 1,000 with offences against public order, and 1,000 with offences against the State.

Capital Sentences.

During the year one European and 10 Africans were sentenced to death. The following table shows the number of capital sentences passed during the year:

| Year | Number of Capital Sentences |
|------|-----------------------------|
| 1928 | 150 |
| 1929 | 151 |
| 1930 | 152 |
| 1931 | 153 |
| 1932 | 154 |

An analysis of the figures shows that the large increase is almost entirely due to the increase in the number of murder charges. There is also, however, a steady increase in the number of offences against property, 100 per cent. in 1932 as compared with 100 per cent. in 1928.

In these two latter categories, however, the increase is really small. The convictions for rape in 1932 were 10 as against 12 in 1931 and 11 in 1930. There were 10 in the year before. Other offences against the person were 10 in 1932, 11 in 1931, and 12 in 1930.

There are the smaller figures: the number was 96 in 1932, 100 in 1931, and 100 in 1930.

The number of offences against the person was 100 in 1932, 100 in 1931, and 100 in 1930.

THE MAIZE POOL SCHEME.

Final Report Not Yet Prepared.

AWAITING VIEW OF CONSUMERS.

Which will also be sent to Government.

It is explained to the "East African Standard" that although the preliminary draft report prepared by the Maize Enquiry Committee of the Board of Agriculture contains the proposals which substantially will be the same as the recommendations finally made to the Government, the document which has been drawn up is not yet the final Report. That explains why nothing was issued for publication.

What has been done so far is to set out the details of the Pool scheme which, in the opinion of the Committee, is the best way to preserve the industry and in the meantime that statement has been sent to all bodies representative of the consumers for their views. These bodies include the Coffee, Rubber and Fruit Growers Association; the Chamber of Commerce, European and Indian; the Provincial Commissioners and other officers responsible for the Maize Enquiry; and every organization known to the Committee representing the consumers and the maize growers. At the moment the Committee is awaiting the views of the various bodies and individuals. It is emphasized that until they are received, the Committee will make no final recommendations will be made.

The amount of seed to be distributed will be decided by the Government's committee on the subject. It is hoped that all the representations of the consumers and the maize growers will be taken into account in the final report which is expected to be issued in the near future.
