PLANNING FOR PROPERTY - ROOT PROBLEM.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir-I have seen in "Standard" that you and I have both written about the same thing...

One must think that the writer who writes in the Standard is better off and more intelligent than I am that something more than writer effort is necessary to bring about such a desirable state of affairs...

When things were written, certain forms of government, are blamed but, generally, it is not those that are to blame but the laws which give effect to the theories...

THE SQUATTER PROBLEM.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir-called the Squatter Ordinance a very bad law, and a very bad law...

During the last 20 years, I think I have seen in the Standard that the most serious of their own responsibility, one has been allowed by the King and the present Ordinance is merited.

An Ordinance sufficiently fierce to please some persons will never see the Secretary of State and would be a great benefit to every Native and thereby defeat its own object.

KIKUYU MISSION.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir-In the weekly edition of the East African Standard of September 6, B. Arthur is stated to have mentioned that a large number of people associated with the name of the Rev. Thomas Watson, the founder of the Kikuyu Mission...

THE FIRST MRS. FRASER A BIG SUCCESS.

was particularly successful in pointing the difference between the Jones of the first and second acts, and the second Jones of the first act. His delivery was deliberate, and his speaking was all in keeping with the character. A very fine performance. Mr. Fraser was fully up to the lightness of touch which is delightfully his. One never tires of his first place in his heart, Jones, or his temper. He was light, humorous, and his Philip opened an excellent lead to the delightful, but serious James.

As to the outbreak of the character of the first and second Jones, Charles Hargrave, who took the difficult part of James, must be admitted. His performance contained much that was good and much that was true. He had few interesting instances to give for Hargrave's presentation of the character in that disagreeable and in the momentous light, supporting Mrs. McEwan very well in the two big scenes.

As to the outbreak of the character of the first and second Jones, Charles Hargrave, who took the difficult part of James, must be admitted. His performance contained much that was good and much that was true. He had few interesting instances to give for Hargrave's presentation of the character in that disagreeable and in the momentous light, supporting Mrs. McEwan very well in the two big scenes.

THE CONVENTION AND THE GIBB REPORT.

Committee in 1922. Indeed, Sir Charles Price was a strong supporter of this opinion that after proceeding over the Council for some years, and after a long and arduous session and came to the conclusion that the Convention was not a necessary institution, and that it would be well to discontinue it. The present constitution of the Convention, consisting as it does of an even number of official and non-official members, and an equal number from Kenya and Uganda, considered the Convention would object to any disturbance of that balance by the appointment to the Council of a member from the East African Colonies. An appointment which has recently been suggested.

Between the two Councils of the Board is desired, it could be maintained by the Convention, viz: the appointment of a member to the Railway Council from the East African Colonies, and a member from Kenya and Uganda, considered the Convention would object to any disturbance of that balance by the appointment to the Council of a member from the East African Colonies. An appointment which has recently been suggested.

E.A. PRODUCE IN LONDON.

The accuracy of Mr. Gibb's comparison between the relative value to the territories concerned and to the Railways of these two commodities is correct. Certain it is that the importance of exports and the recent increase in the maize export rate has attracted a serious interest in the maize industry and has been a material factor in putting a great deal of maize into the hands of the Railways, and a consequent shrinkage in the quantity of traffic remaining to the Railways. It is admitted that the greater part of the country's maize, maize, maize and for export, is not, and cannot be, transported by the railway, and hence has been produced to obviate that contention. If at the same time the fact is realized that in the year 1920 the maize export represented no less than 12 per cent of the country's total exportable wealth, the economic importance of the maize industry is immediately apparent. Moreover, the true value of the maize industry cannot be assessed without some regard for its effect upon the economy of the territories, in which Mr. Gibb appears to have overlooked.

It is a feature of the general attitude of Mr. Gibb to railway transport in connection with Kenya which perhaps he found in paragraph 35 of his report. There it is recommended that the process of building up a great and valuable branch of the agricultural industry, which is admitted to be the country's soil and climate, and which is a source of revenue to the Government, should be encouraged by the Railways. It is suggested that the Railways should be encouraged to build up a great and valuable branch of the agricultural industry, which is admitted to be the country's soil and climate, and which is a source of revenue to the Government, should be encouraged by the Railways.

A new word to describe the "child or semi-childish adult who craves attention from a few feeble strokes and yet goes gaga into unknown depths on a full "British Medical Journal."

"Always every week during the holiday season we read of tragedy in which the beneficiary of a will loses his life in attempting to save a non-existent sum of money in a hurry on a treacherous normal." (Journal)

"Just as in the streets the 'jay-walker' is a peril to himself and others, so too, is the 'jay-bather' in the sea."

The "Journal" advocates a general increase for the improvement of facilities for teaching children to swim.

Country Produce Rates.

In reading Mr. Gibb's Report one cannot escape from the impression that he is a convinced free trader and has all the objections that he has advanced in favour of a tariff in this category, he places Country Produce Rates.

The question of raising policy in regard to local industries is a very important one. It is a question which has been discussed in the past, and it is a question which will be discussed in the future. It is a question which is of great importance to the country, and it is a question which is of great importance to the Government.

The Convention and the Gibb Report.

STRONG OPPOSITION TO RECOMMENDATIONS.

"Detrimental to Best Interests of the Colony."

FINDINGS NOT SUBSTANTIATED BY FACTS.

The Convention of Associations has submitted to the Conference of East African Governors a lengthy memorandum on the Gibb Report, at the conclusion of which it is stated that as the report is diametrically opposed to the principles under which the territories are administered, it should be disregarded.

Particular exception is taken to the recommendations regarding the abolition of the Railway Advisory Council and the report of the High Commissioner of Transport and the recommendation that the railway should be placed under the control of the Board.

On a number of grounds the Convention is opposed to a Board in London, principally because East Africa remains responsible for the transport losses.

The Convention is strongly opposed to the suggested abolition of country produce rates which since 1921 have been considered a permanent institution and are part of the Colony's fiscal system.

Other criticisms of the report include a statement that the general attitude by Mr. Roger Gibb to the railway transport provisions of Kenya, as epitomized in one section of his report, is the stifling of industry.

The Rates Question.

The Convention of Associations emphatically underlines the fact that the proposed abolition of the Railway Advisory Council, and the recommendation that the railway should be placed under the control of the Board in London, is a recommendation which is diametrically opposed to the principles under which the territories are administered.

The following are extracts from the memorandum:

"At the session of the Convention of Associations held on the 28th March, 1920, and the 12th November, 1920, the Convention of Associations passed a resolution that the following were extracts from the memorandum:

"The Convention of Associations is strongly opposed to the proposed abolition of the Railway Advisory Council, and the recommendation that the railway should be placed under the control of the Board in London, as it is a recommendation which is diametrically opposed to the principles under which the territories are administered."

As we can all see for ourselves it is a very fine building and I feel quite sure that it is the largest and most ambitious building yet erected by any Native Administration in Tanganyika Territory. I congratulate the Chief upon it and sincerely trust that it will be as safe as a rock and will be of still greater efficiency in the past of this district. Very efficient Native Administration. London, Sept. 12.
An Air Ministry notice, which advises certain precautions in bad weather, states that only ten British aeroplanes have been struck by lightning since 1922. Pilots are advised to avoid large cloud masses from which rain, hail or snow is falling, especially when meteorological reports give indications of a storm. It is always to be avoided as a danger zone.

Australia Wants More British Films.

American cutting and talking picture interests in Australia are becoming so perturbed about the lack of response to the kind of picture they have been sending that Mr. Cecil Mason, Australian director and general manager of one of the big American companies, is making a special trip to New York to tell American just what Australian audiences will hold plenty that Australia is heartily tired of seeing and hearing unadorned gangster, hoodlum, kidnapping and murder melodrama. Six of eight pictures released in Sydney in a recent week, deal with the underworld "dope" picture.

TANGANYIKA CRITICS OF THE GIBB REPORT.

The Railway, the line was essential for the development of the area and for the carriage of goods to the estate, between Hukw and Tangw.

The Council also desires to point out that Mr. Gibb was unable to travel over the Tangw Line and failed to obtain first-hand information therefrom.

One of the reasons put forward for the closing of the Hukw-Kabe section is that the area served is "barren country."

It is in this section of the line the area examined. It will be seen that the goods traffic which will be lost amounted to 24,000 tons in later years in which must be added coaching traffic amounting to 411,000 tons in 1930-31 and 27,500 to 65,000 in 1932-33.

It is also clear that the loss of traffic to the value of 28,000 tons and the expense of 100,000 would be completely lost. The cost of operating the section is estimated to be between 60,000 and 75,000.

It is not sufficient to count the number of miles, as in a given area in order to ascertain what traffic may be produced in that area, the activities and intelligence of the people must be taken into consideration.

The Wapere. It is not sufficient to count the number of miles, as in a given area in order to ascertain what traffic may be produced in that area, the activities and intelligence of the people must be taken into consideration.

Trade. The total annual goods revenue collected by the Kenya Uganda Railway from Mombasa and the Arusha Branch averaged approximately £2,000,000. The amount was earned from inter-territorial traffic from Kenya, Mombasa and India to other parts of Kenya.

Methods of Payment. It is now necessary to consider the various methods of payment by the Kenya and Uganda Railways for traffic carried to Mombasa.

It is now necessary to consider the various methods of payment by the Kenya and Uganda Railways for traffic carried to Mombasa. It is considered that as the Tanganyika Railway developed the Arusha and Mombasa areas, they should be able to receive more compensation than at present for the loss of a portion of their traffic.

The Railway Administration's proposals with reference to the operation of the Tanganyika Railway are not in accordance with the interests of the public.

Mr. Gibb estimated the revenue of the Railway Administration at £1,000,000. The actual revenue in 1932 was £1,000,000. The estimated revenue for 1933 is £1,000,000.

The Voi-Kabe Line was constructed by the British Military Authorities during the Great War and was purchased by the Kenya Government in 1924 for a sum of £60,000.

Attempt To Assassinate Austrian Chancellor.

DR. DOLLFUSS WOUNDED IN THE ARM AND CHEST.

Shots Fired By German.
LIFE SAVED AS RESULT OF PROMPT ACTION BY A MINISTER.

An attempt was made on Tuesday afternoon to assassinate Dr. Dollfuss, the Austrian Chancellor who, as a result of his stand against German Nazi influence, is one of the best known statesmen in Europe.

Taken To Nursing Home.

Dr. Dollfuss, who was wounded in the left arm and chest, probably owes his life to the heroic action of a member of his Cabinet, who threw himself on the assailant and prevented further shots being fired.

The outrage was the work of a young German of 22 years of age who was arrested.

It appears now that Dr. Dollfuss was not seriously wounded but is confined to a nursing home.

The assassin was a young man named Rudolf Heberich, 22, who was arrested on the spot.

Jews in Germany.

Dr. Dollfuss was shot and wounded in the left arm and chest. He was taken to a nursing home.

A GUARD FOR EINSTEIN.

Sequel To Murder Warning.

Spook Plot?

But British Police Take No Chances.

Professor Einstein.

Foot and hand-printed photo and a platoon of detectives formed a cordon round the Albert Hotel to-day where Professor Einstein was to speak on "Civilization and science" to 2,000 students.

Earlier in the day Scotland Yard received what is reported as a spook warning that there was a plot aimed to murder Einstein.

The famous scientist made his way on to the lecture hall, which was already crowded.

The object of the meeting was to appeal on behalf of refugees, academic and professional work.

In the course of the speaker's address the Nazi treatment of the Jews had Professor Einstein himself did not refer to the subject directly.

Tanganyika Critics of the Gibb Report.

INSUFFICIENT EXAMINATION OF IMPORTANT PROBLEMS.

Railway Council's View.

STRONGLY OPPOSED TO CLOSING OF INTER-TERRITORIAL LINE.

One of the main topics for discussion by the Conference of East African Governors now taking place at Dar es Salaam is the report by Mr. Roger Gibb on the East African Railways.

The Council sincerely trusts that a satisfactory arrangement may be reached with the Kenya and Uganda Railways and that any idea of closing down portions of the Tanganyika line or handing it over to another administration may be definitely and finally rejected.

A Financial Adjustment?

The Tanganyika Railway Advisory Council has prepared a lengthy memorandum setting out the views and conclusions reached on certain questions raised by Mr. Roger Gibb's Report.

In regard to the future of the Tanganyika Railway, Mr. Gibb suggests that if a satisfactory arrangement can be made with the Kenya and Uganda Railways, the line should be closed.

On this point the Council desires to reaffirm the view expressed in the memorandum that the portion of the line between Mombasa and Kaka should be abandoned, in any circumstances, as soon as the financial effect of the closure can be ascertained.

On tomatoes, the 20th September, at the Stadium, the Police shield match between 'Tomatoes' and 'Pumpkins' ended in a draw, one goal each. The match in the Maxwell Cup between Jaloo and M. R. A. also ended in a draw, each side scoring twice.

In the same interview Major Cavendish expressed a special desire to see the Government to do its utmost to secure the future of many sports. He said he had agreed to present the sub-committee and the arrangements which would prevent expenditure on vague objects, as a great step forward.

THE WORK OF THE KENYA ASSOCIATION.

The Chairman stated that his Association had approached a special committee to see up a definite programme and to advise Government as to details of expenditure of money available. He said he had agreed to present the sub-committee and the arrangements which would prevent expenditure on vague objects, as a great step forward.

THE NYERI POLO TOURNAMENT.

Atkins Cup Final

In the first shucker play was the final of the Atkins Cup polo tournament. The Nyeri polo team, which Temple took nearly half the length of the field to win, defeated the East Nyeri polo team, which was captained by Nyeri's late, famous and fast player, who was a member of the polo team which won the Atkins Cup.

The last of the cake you baked on Wednesday—can you serve it properly as a guest on Sunday? It is usually dried out, stale, it all depends on the texture. Cake with a fine and even grain inside in moisture—keep fresh for days. But once-textured cake full of 'air holes' can't hold its moisture very long. And when the moisture goes—flavour goes with it!

ENGAGEMENT.

MR. DJIK-CATLIN'S engagement is announced by the Department of Overseas Trade and the East African Office. London terminated the useful arrangement which had existed for some years. Fortunately by that time Kenya had awakened to a sense of the importance of organized publicity and the Kenya Association had been formed. It is now in a position to take over and develop the tasks previously discharged. The Kenya Association is a Nairobi body. It is interested in selling large quantities of many districts in the Colony as a whole which was recognized by the Government of the Colony as the proper channel for settlement and publicity questions and enquiries. It is therefore a most essential planning for property in any way connected with the Colony should fall behind the Kenya Association and give the maximum return and authority to the Government to a great extent that is being done. The Kenya Association is a body which is not only the central body and what is required in the Colony is that the Kenya Association represents the Government. The interview published this morning was the Chairman of the Kenya Association (1962) forms an important addition to the material for the consideration of the wide range of questions of planning for property. The Kenya Association is a body which is not only the central body and what is required in the Colony is that the Kenya Association represents the Government.

Tailored Suits
Tailor-made suits are well to the fore, especially when the new flared skirt materials in one or two shades of the darker colors are discussed last week...

The jackets still show a certain shoulder breadth—but there is no exaggeration here as there was earlier in the year. Waistlines are readily fitted, or at any time rounded and there are a good many double-breasted fastenings...

Day Dresses and Coiffure
Simpler cut day dresses are made of materials similar to those used for the suits. Here again the "double line" is favoured somewhat, but the waist is gently defined by the broad belt or the link chain.

and the skirt length is well above the ankle. The white muslin, piege linen or the white cotton is seen to fine advantage on a simple-cut frock of the description. Often two detachable "tops" are supplied with a single model. One for wear indoors, this comprising a cape-like collar and deep cuffs, that would be broken brushed under the jacket. And the other consisting of a small Peter Pan collar and narrow turn-back cuffs that look extremely smart with the rest.

The New Hats
Often hats are made of the same material as the suits or frocks they accompany. But there are some delightful little models in soft felt, and there is a kind of woody dandy. All are simple, more or less unadorned and fashioned on easily adjustable lines so that they can be pulled to the shape round beginning to the individual wearer. There is, incidentally, a definite forward movement with all the new hats. The smart ones no longer hang on to the back or side of the head as though kept there by sheer will power. They settle more or less firmly and are pulled slightly down towards the eyes.

Evening Modes
Evening dresses are not to be so fully as they were a short time ago. There is more "pooling about" on the skirts, and more "fitting"

KENNEL NOTES

Margaret Collyer

Miss Collyer, G.O.M., to whom all correspondence in connection with "Kennel Notes" should be addressed, does not hold herself responsible for accuracy of statements made by those who are, in the main, based on information supplied by her correspondents.

In looking through some more of my latest books on dogs, I find the information about Cairn Terriers which may be of value to breeders of these little dogs. One writer says that it would be difficult to say whether the Cairn Terrier is the oldest of all Scottish breeds. It is certainly much older than what is now called the "Scottish Terrier," originally known as the Aberdeen Terrier, West Highland White Terrier, and a white Cairn, something like what the late Colonel Malcolms told me about his dog, and he was one of the first men to introduce the White West Highland to the notice of the English. Kennel Club Moreover the first West Highland that appeared on the show lists were quite a lot larger and heavier dogs than the dogs I know in Shye, and although I have seen of them I never set eyes on a single one as far as colour was concerned was a good colour.

The Scottish Terrier is mainly transmission. In the time of Henry VIII the breed was almost entirely of the Cairn type, and may be the ancestor of the modern breed. In 1867, Col. Malcolms introduced the blooded terriers, certain of which he allowed to be crossed with Cairn Terriers. It may be seen from the writing that the breed was known by that title by the country people. It also suggests that the variety was an additional breed one, and it is consequently of interest to find in the report of the Duke of the Glean's Kennel dispersal sale in 1880 that three terriers were included in the lot sold to discover a certain published work, or so far, describing them in a manner that leaves little doubt that they were of the Cairn breed.

They were long bodied terriers and highly legged, and were similar to the Terrier, and were in the report stated, "was to be compared with the Shye Terriers then known in England. Anticipated of the high price, which they had been sold, the writer of the article attempted to find some explanation, and adds "the claim that they were originally from the Island of Shye" accompanied by very little, and he had seen many Shye Terriers but none such as this breed."

He came the writing, "Our Shye-Terrier," evidently by no means intended that the name "Shye" should be used. These dogs were sold at Tullymore, London, and made £5,500, £10, £21, £18, £10, £14, £16. The newspaper buyers were Lord Vernon and Mr. Buxton. Very big price for small amount in doubt. In the coming of the level of public notice, attention; it was not realized that the breed had a name which was fully entitled. It was therefore retained the historical Shye, as it was believed that it was the actual "Shye Terrier" and that the long history society which, history had, the name of "Shye" was so one from the original Island stock.

At one time they were extremely popular, and to own a good dog needed a fairly large purse.

GRACIE FIELDS. Entertains Patients in Hospital. [FRANKLIN C. CORRESPONDENT.] London, Sept. 20. (By Mail.) Mrs. Gracie Fields visited the patients in the Rankin Ward of the new Witton Hospital, Gillingham Street, Liverpool, last week, and chatted and joked with them. She consented to sing a song, and gave them "Salute". Mrs. Fields had the patients, singing in the chorus after telling them to forget their time in hospital. She sang "Salute" with the patients, and Queen Ward, where she sang "Pina Colada" when requested to sing "something funny". BRITISH ISRAEL NOTES. ECONOMICS OF GOD'S KINGDOM II.

In the new era, when righteousness will rule, application with their people's money will attend people. By this method financial magnates have assumed enormous wealth, not for their own efforts at constructive production, and by using the savings of others. This is what the unimpaired call "capitalism" and, in order to keep this fungus on the tree of industry and commerce, they would destroy the tree itself. The system of unbridled industry, through loans, creates artificiality, controlled credit, and people, keeps the masses in poverty and in subjection to the few who are controlled. This shows how far we have departed from the laws of God designed for the economic welfare of all classes. Mass-production should be limited only by the capacity of man's consumption, yet instead of eating, or what we drink, or our coffee, and using our cotton, a parcel and irreplaceable-commodity community is building them up rather than distribute to other nations below the line of production. Three aspects of his strike in the production. The financial aspect, under the heading of "The Gold Standard". The industrial aspect, as revealed by unemployment. The political aspect, everywhere visible in the upheavals throughout the five continents. These effects are caused by the spiritual process of evil in a fast-paced attempt to overthrow the divine civilization. This is being done by the few who are controlled to an extent only as is necessary to provide Christian civilization of its full-Valuation Message.

THE CULTIVATION OF THE PAW PAW.

Improvement by Selection and Care of Seed.

RESULT OF RESEARCH.

The Kenya Department of Agriculture has published the following notes on an article in "Egerton" by Dr. J. D. J. Haynes of the Nigerian Sub-tropical Horticultural Research Station, South Africa, where investigations work on paw-paw seedlings has been carried out for the last two years. With the objects of developing a suitable type of paw-paw for the tropics, the present types for the seed material.

When a grower wishes to improve his crop, his first step is to select a definite stock, to various points, and when these are selected for seed they must be grown up as closely as possible. The main points to be considered are: (a) keeping quality by shape, (b) colour when ripe, (c) taste, (d) texture of flesh, (e) disease resistance, (f) yield and vigour, and (g) length of fruit stalk, because the longer the stalk the less the danger of misapprehension as to ripeness.

As it is well known, paw-paw are open-pollinated owing to the flowers being dioecious, and this results in selection may be supposed to be a matter of time, but this should be borne in mind as it becomes more uniform after each selection.

Relation of Vigour to Size and other Characteristics.

There is a common belief among growers that the more trees a variety usually more vigorous than the others, and therefore, it is better to obtain a high percentage of fruit-bearing trees per acre, than to select the most vigorous seedlings for transplanting. In the Kenyan experiments, where hundreds of trees of both sexes were selected for vigour, as revealed by measurements of stem diameter, height, etc., there was not the slightest indication that one of the sexes was more vigorous than the other. This makes one as vigorous as the female, and growers are guided in their selection by choosing the most vigorous seedlings, and then the sexes are doing away with their bias.

It might have also revealed that in plants of the same age the more vigorous one has a tendency to flower earlier, and therefore, to bear fruit earlier and over a longer period. Vigorous trees also have a tendency to produce fruit lower on the stem, which is a desirable characteristic. Thus, by selecting the more vigorous seedlings in the seedling bed, the grower will tend to improve his crop, for these characteristics as well. It is desirable to select the most vigorous plants, as there is an indication that they

THE NYERI POLO TOURNAMENT.

A Most Successful Week.

NAIROBI: B WIN THE GOLE CUP.

[STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT]

Play continued on the 29th. The weather set in unusually cool conditions. The first match was Nyeri vs. the Kenia XI. Nyeri won 1-0. Temple scored the only goal.

At the start of the match Nyeri took the ball straight to Temple who was playing a good game. Temple was not all their shots went wide. In the second chukker Nyeri continued to attack Temple making a good run, but again Nyeri's shots missed the goal until John took the ball up himself and scored the first goal. After this Nyeri seemed to steady down and R. Peel made a good opening for G. Temple, who went away down the field and set the first goal. A. Lewis was playing a good defensive game for Nyeri.

Nyeri started off the first chukker with a bit of lethargy, but Nyeri, attacking well, just missed scoring. R. Peel for Nyeri, defended well, making a very fine hit. After some scrappy play by the Nyeri goal, R. Peel made a fine shot, which was stopped, but only to be put through the goal by G. Temple. Nyeri continued to press, and R. Peel made a fine run and scored at the end of the first goal.

Nyeri goals scored by: Temple 1, R. Johnson 1, Temple 1, equal to 2. Nyeri started with 21. Nyeri, with smaller points than Nyeri, and most of the players with less experience of the game, put up a gallant fight under the leadership of Major A. Lucas.

In the Nanyuki Hunt vs. Gwath Hunt game, play started with a rush and defending well, for Gwath Hunt, but C. B. Bastard took the ball up and scored for Nanyuki. A. J. Nanyuki were now pressing hard, but T. Swift's defence was good, and the ball was taken back to mid field, where Gwath were given a 60 yard hit for a foul, and G. Band, hitting well, passed to F. Allopp who scored. In the second chukker J. Band scored a brilliant goal from a difficult angle. In the last chukker Nanyuki continued to press but T. Swift was defending with great vigour and it was some time before Nanyuki managed to score a goal through W. Bastard, who shortly afterwards scored again for his side. Mr. Swift at last was very sound and it was a pleasure to see him once again on the polo field.

Scores - Nanyuki "A" 31, Gwath Hunt, 2. Goal scorers - Nanyuki, C. C. Bastard, W. Bastard, 2, total 31. Gwath Hunt - F. Allopp, 1, total 2. Teams were as follows - Nanyuki "A" - T. C. C. Lewin, C. C. Bastard, W. K. Bastard, J. Appleby. Gwath Hunt - Major G. Giddings, F. C. Allopp, J. Band, R. Swift.

National Game Parks.

KENYA AND THE COMING CONFERENCE. To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir—As I have been interested in game for many years and am fairly familiar with the game districts in Kenya, I have taken it upon myself to express some views on game preservation in the Colony in view of the important Conference which will be held in London in October.

It is important that some indication of local opinion on the question should appear in the East African Standard as early as possible. From past experience of conferences it seems rather unlikely to see that Kenya will ever be a National Game Park unless there is a much stronger local public opinion in favour. For a Game Park for a Game Park, the only way to get the game in the Colony is the present so-called Southern Game Reserve which is well looked after as a reserve for over 30 years.

There should be no difficulty in fixing up an agreement with the Masai whose reserves extend over the whole of the Southern Game Reserve. Three or four years ago a Kenya Conference was held in Kenya and the Southern Game Reserve was set aside for the Masai. It is likely the game is there and is under Nairobi. In the Kenya public would have the backing of this International Conference. But the Conference must be informed of public feeling in this matter at once.

The circumstances are rather similar to what happened in South Africa in fact it might be said the position was the same with a few enthusiasts got together and got a piece of public support. Then they got the money and then they got the money for the largest game reserve in the world, the Kruger National Park.

I am of opinion that the Northern Game Reserve which is about 10,000 square miles is rather too small for proper administration. It is a member of the game park and does not contain the number and the interesting moment value of species is comparable with the Southern. The summit formed by the last game conference thought it was a member of the game park and does not contain the number and the interesting moment value of species is comparable with the Southern. ## SIR JOHN SANDEMAN ALLEN'S ADVICE TO COMMERCE.

Avoid Politics.

STRONG WHITE SETTLEMENT A NECESSARY AIM.

Sir John Sandeman Allen spoke of some of the main impressions made by his visit to Kenya in the course of a farewell speech made by him as guest of honour at a dinner given by the Executive of the Associated Chambers and the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce on Thursday evening.

He expressed the view that there is a big future for Kenya and urged the strengthening of white settlement in order to continue development of the Colony on lines in consonance with the great heritage of the British nation.

The view was expressed that the Joint East African Board readjusted to the needs of the moment could render the greatest service to the territories and would be an indispensable link.

Sir John strongly advised the Chambers of Commerce to eschew politics by so doing they would increase their influence. The President of the Associated Chambers (Capt. C. B. Anderson) who presided, voiced the gratification of the Colony at the visit of Sir John Sandeman Allen.

A Valuable Tour.

Sir John Sandeman Allen M.P., Chairman of the Joint East African Board, brought his visit to Kenya to a close yesterday afternoon when he left for the East Coast on the previous evening at the New Buses. Sir John had spent the past 10 days in Kenya in the course of a tour which was the first of its kind since the formation of the Joint East African Board. His visit was the result of general application. The experience of other and older territories was a valuable asset to the solution of those that were the most difficult to solve. Sir John's visit was a most successful one in many respects, so that it had been a most profitable one for the East African territories.

Need for Caution.

There was, however, need for caution on his part—that is, the fact that those who lived a long distance away and desired to help and cooperate with them in the solution of their problems. Sir John might appreciate a little more some of the difficulties and intricacies of the East African territories. The speaker mentioned that he had the hope and the assurance that the East African territories would be equally successful in handling their problems. Sir John had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people.

Interesting Study.

Addressing the toast, Sir John said that he had spent a great deal of time in Kenya and had developed some of his spare time and energy in the study of the East African territories. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people.

A Problem Solved.

Commenting on the fact that the East African territories had been a problem for many years, Sir John said that he had found a solution to the problem. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people.

The Future.

Sir John went on to comment upon the needs of Kenya and the future of the East African territories. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people. He had a high regard for the East African territories and their people.

rate, it was his fervent wish that such was the case. Considering the past the Joint East African Board was formed 10 years ago in Kenya and had found them in many ways. Therefore all the machinery must be adjusted to meet the conditions which could be in touch with what was going on. That was what they had to do—see that the machinery was not set fossilized in any one particular set of circumstances. Kenya was finding its way in many ways. Therefore all the machinery must be adjusted to meet the conditions which could be in touch with what was going on.

LETTERS OF EXEMPTION.

Bill Which Proposes Simple Procedure.

A Bill to provide for the exemption of certain persons from the operation of certain laws... was introduced in this week's Kenya Official Gazette... having been approved by the Governor for introduction into the Legislative Council.

A schedule to the Bill specifies those persons who are to be exempted... and they are any ordained clergyman of the Church of England... any registered medical practitioner or dentist... any qualified engineer or draughtsman... any native who is recommended by the District Commissioner...

The laws, rules or regulations from which any of these are exempted may only be those which are not in force in the United Kingdom... or in any other Dominion... or in any other British possession...

Before the letter of exemption is issued, a native has to take the oath of allegiance to His Majesty King and Successors.

The form to be obtained for providing that application which may be made to a District Commissioner... instead of the Chief Native Commissioner... and the letters issued by a District Commissioner... who will also have the power of annulling the letter for any reason which appears to him to be sufficient.
