PERSONALLY SPEAKING...

A Voice from Kenya

"Many of your readers" says a correspondent "who know Mr and Mrs. F. L. Marshall, for many years residents in Mombasa, and who have heard their daughter Barbara sing with a fine voice, are disappointed that she does not appear in the Elizabethan Song Contest. Her father, who is the best and who has the Gold Medal for his singing, has written to the Editor asking for the Gold Medal for Dramatic expression, and the Elizabethan Song Contest for her."

Barbara received these of her father in Kenya and returned to London. Curious for many years that she should have been so successful in her singing, she was very glad to be invited to sing at the home of her father in Kenya. CURING OPHTHALMIA

There are several forms of Ophthalmia in Africa of which two are common. Infectious Ophthalmia, caused by a bacillus, and Venereal Ophthalmia, caused by the presence of venereal disease in the eyes. Both forms of Ophthalmia can be cured with Cooper's Ophthalmia Cure.

As soon as an animal's eyes start watering, they should be treated with Cooper's Ophthalmia Cure, and repeat daily if necessary. Only a very small quantity of the remedy is necessary, just sufficient to wet the eyeball thoroughly. It may be dropped into the eye, squirted in with a small syringe, or applied with a feather.

Ophthalmia Cure is temporarily iridescent, good results can be obtained by using an eye-syringe, made up as follows: Mix 1 lb. of crude vasoline and stir a teaspoonful of Kerol into it. See that the Kerol is evenly distributed throughout the ointment before allowing it to set.

G.E.C. in war — as in peace
at the service of the Empire

Electricity is everywhere destined to leap ahead as soon as the war ends. For the reason, however, that must be held in mind, the factory, or the aircraft, or the aeroplane are fully engaged on war production. Working in close cooperation with Government experts, the G.E.C. research and development departments have made developments of the most scientific importance. When war priority ceases, however, the technical advances made by the Company in all applications of electricity, including the use of the world for the carrying out of complete electrification schemes of any magnitude.

THE AFRICAN VIEW ON LABOUR

(By E. G. Cooper, Hon. Press Secretary, Christian Council of Kenya)

THIS article is a summary of the views expressed by the members of the Christian Council of Kenya. Their suggestions were made with a view to the improvement of the position of the African worker as a whole, and it is hoped that they will be taken into consideration by the Government.

Most agreed that the labour situation in Kenya is not in a satisfactory state, and that it is necessary to put things right. They stated that the present position is not in the interests of the African worker, and that it is necessary to put things right.

This is the result of a series of three articles prepared and published by the Christian Council of Kenya. The first article was published in the "Standard" on June 15th, and the second on June 22nd. The third article, which is the subject of this article, was published on June 29th.

The members of the Christian Council of Kenya are of the opinion that the present position of the African worker is not in the interests of the African worker, and that it is necessary to put things right.

OUR EFFORT

Simply, the farmer's problem is to make four, or as many more as possible, blades of grass grow where the grass grew before—and then to do it again. But farming is not a struggle. The difficulties are not in the soil, weather and economic conditions are not very faulty now.

For over 90 years Massey-Harris research has been directed to (1) finding the answers to increased agricultural production, (2) applying their findings to the improvement of farming methods, (3) developing a wide variety of Massey-Harris farm implements to do the job, and (4) the training of an organisation capable of giving essential services with tractors, harvesters and implements bearing the Company's name—MASSEY-HARRIS.

The end of the road is not yet reached. Although wartime difficulties have slowed up implement production and transport, (2) applying their findings to the improvement of farming methods can be improved. For the duration, during which period the supply of Massey-Harris tractors, implements and harvesters is limited, we maintain for owners of Massey-Harris implements a service organisation of specially-trained men to care for repair work.

LISTEN IN TO "LUCKY DIP"

"Lucky Dip" is the title of our Radio Programme to be broadcast from Lourenco Marques, 7.15 coming on the air every Thursday evening at 7.15, South African Time (i.e. 8.15 G.M.T.). All important announcements will always be given in English as well.

This really brings into life a new Cooper service. Questions of general interest (including musical questions) will be answered, as if you have a question to ask, please send it by air mail to the Voice-Chief, P.O. Box 2003, Johannesburg, South Africa.
