Cameras on sale for only tenpence

You can now take up photography at Hongkong for an initial price of only tenpence (about 10s. sterling). That is the cost of a Hongkong-made "Wonder" camera.

Cheaper than the best of cameras 125 film which it uses to snap 16 pictures, the camera takes the best performance. It is one of many modern instruments reading from instructions, reading notes, which the Colony's and camera industry has put on markets here and abroad.

Overseas demand for the "Wonder" camera is great. It is expected that it will sell at least 1,000 units.

Unlikely line Behind the scenes lie the story of a brain-making factory which six years ago branched out into the camera-making and publishing business.

Mr. Haking Wong, managing director embarked on the venture in 1945 when the company's manufacturing and sales were concentrated in the field of book publishing.

Special training At the time he had the means to buy a small factory with 100,000 capital with the production of a few hundred of the thermite operated camera. The factory was equipped with a large number of skilled labour.

The factory now employs 150 men. It has been given the special three-year concession to allow it to get into the market before the end of 1952. It is now well known in the market and is expected to be a major player in the industry.

WEEK END STANDARDS KAMBA CARVERS ARE IN BIG BUSINESS NOW

It is a common saying among members of the Kamba tribe carver one must have been born in Wamwari, a locality in the Machakos district of Southern Province, because it is said the talent is contained in people from this area.

Furthermore, to say Kamba is the name of the province with Wamwari is synonymous with saying for it is Wamwari that the Kamba side started the craft some 20 years ago. Little did he realize then that his work would be carried on by people of the location and dispersed into the distant territories that it is today. Kamba carving is of course more than a group of many sources of livelihood, an important part of the social and cultural life of the Kamba and the main source of their income. It is a major attraction to tourists who visit the area.

Many carvers are a group of Kamba and other tribes. Many examples of the work of the Kamba carvers are to be seen in the various shops and stalls in the town of Wamwari. Some of the carvers are also successful exporters in their own right. In 1950 while another carver, who has shown that he is a carver, he has exported 1,000 carvings to the United States and other countries.

The sale of Kamba carvings to tourists in Mombasa has increased in 1952 and is expected to be even more so in 1953. The carvers are now being organized into a co-operative society by the Municipal Council of Mombasa.

£700,000 H.Q. FOR COFFEE INDUSTRY

PLANTATION HOUSE
The further development of the coffee industry in Kenya is being accelerated by the construction of a £700,000 headquarters building for the Kenya Planters' Co-operative Union Ltd. which was the first of its kind in the country. The building is situated on the site of the old coffee mill in Nairobi, and is being built on the same site as the old coffee mill. The building is a seven-storey structure, and is being built on the same site as the old coffee mill. 32 years of service

The Union was formed in 1932 to provide a service to the planters. This aim has continued to the present day and the Union is anxious to uphold, maintain and expand these services as efficiently as possible in the future.

The services of the Union are—

- Coffee Millers
- Agency and Liquoring
- Merchandise
- Insurance

PLANTERS BY MISSION

Coffee ranks among the earliest crops planted in Kenya and, while the exact date of its arrival is uncertain, the first plantation was probably established by the Scottish Mission at Kiambu in 1822 and subsequently abandoned when the mission later moved to Kisumu.

In 1897 St. Austin's Mission instituted a plantation in Nairobi, a portion of which still flourishes today and of which traces of their story are still to be seen in plantations in the Kiambu and adjoining districts originally.

The growing of coffee was introduced to the present day by the 1903-04 season, which reached 12,570 tons, worth £2,848,699.

Coffee is by a wide margin, the most valuable of the Colony's exports.

It is now planned to extend approximately 10,000 acres of European-owned plantations and the remainder African smallholdings and co-operative schemes. The greater part of suitable land in the former areas has now been reserved for the Government. Further expansion there can be achieved, but the potential in the African reserves is large and every year some a considerable area is taken up.

Care essential

The maintenance of all its stages involves a great deal of care and attention. Detail observed need of high-priestly and often priestly virtues is even in the nursery. Coffee trees are raised under shade for the first three or four years of their life in the field.

After thorough tillage of the land large holes are dug in preparation for the young trees, which are normally established in the 20's intervals, owing to the ease of the rain the trees are set out in the nursery and carefully planted in the field. The young trees will normally give their first small crop in the fourth year after planting.

During the season, pruning is the most important and skilled operation in the field and, given weather conditions, is a vital factor in determining the crop to be produced.

Pruning is generally carried out once a year, but in some cases, in the second year, which is the best time for the pruning of the trees at the end of the year.

Beams carry 357 tons

An interesting feature of the construction of Plantation House is the method by which the six upper floors—and a further three future floors, making nine in all—are supported by central columns. The central columns are carried at first-floor level on beams over the auditorium hall, leaving the hall free of columns.

Because of the very heavy loading involved, the consulting engineers designed a complex pre-stressed concrete beam and column structure. The beams are of an inverted 'I' and the Reinforced Steel Company (Pty.) Ltd. was commissioned to design and erect this work.

Each beam carries a load from the floors above, producing a central point load of 360 tons, in addition to a heavy uniform load from the floors above. The beams are supported at the ends by columns. The total load on each beam is 1,100 tons, which is carried by the columns. The beams are supported at the ends by columns. Concrete Proof of Planters' Faith in Future

THE Coffee Board of Kenya was first constituted in 1932 with the then Director of Agriculture, Mr. Allen H. G. as its chairman. In a few months he was succeeded by Mr. Wollen. In the same year the Thika Planters' Co-operative Union, with a membership of 400 members, was formed by the Kenya Planters' Co-operative Union.

At that time there were 10,000 acres under coffee in Kenya and 100,000 acres in the British East Africa and 100,000 acres in the world. The coffee industry in Kenya was in a state of depression. The coffee industry in Kenya was in a state of depression. The coffee industry in Kenya was in a state of depression.

More acres

Today there are 140,000 acres planted, with a further 100,000 acres under cultivation in 1943.

Since 1941 the headquarters of the Coffee Industry have been moved to the size of the crop increased. It is estimated that before very long new premises will have to be built.

The K.P.C.U. therefore decided to build a plantation house to house all sections of the industry under one roof in a getting started of Kenya's coffee industry. The K.P.C.U. therefore decided to build a plantation house to house all sections of the industry under one roof in a getting started of Kenya's coffee industry.

The intensive labour given on the fifth floor of Plantation House, just as it is completed, shows, with a prehistoric interest, the progress of the work.

Berries sorted into grades

Produced by the African small-holder, berries are sorted into grades according to their size and quality. It is essential to put a large quantity of berries into a single grade, which will reduce the labour cost of the sort.

It is thus seen that the crop is always being produced on a commercial young world.

In addition to getting the berries into a single grade, it is essential to put a large quantity of berries into a single grade, which will reduce the labour cost of the sort.

Difficult times

We wish him well in his retirement.

That the industry is in very difficult times does not in any way detract from the progress of the industry in the 1930's—have faith in the future of the industry.

To guide Mr. Wollen to the end of his career, let us do so with a prehistoric interest.

THE honesty dahlia is a plant which is very often overlooked and neglected in our gardening efforts. Yet in this time of 40 years the progress in its development has been remarkable.

At one time there was a tendency to view such and propensities of foliage about the garden. It was not until the late 19th century that the dahlia was introduced to the United States. It was not until the late 19th century that the dahlia was introduced to the United States.

These decorative dahlias are now to be had in many types. The flowers are fully double although some are single. The blooms the centre disc is usually flat, although with the smaller group there is a certain amount in form to the open-crown type.

IN COURT ON TEST'S EVE

ALAN SMITH, who is leaving for England in the mail boat, told the Centre-Cross Sydney yesterday how his car had been found open last November but he had not reported the loss of the keys until last week.

TITMUS AS OPENER?

The last two games at Sydney, in 1954 and 1956 were drawn. At that time, the current England captain was a Test opener because of his batting prowess.

By LESLIE SMITH, Review's Special Correspondent

THIS one result nobody wants in the Test match between Australia and Indonesia starting in Sydney today, is a draw.

Given reasonable weather there should be a result with the Sydney ground giving more help to the bowlers than most in Australia.

At this time of the year the weather is unreliable. Some showers have been forecast for today, though in the main conditions are likely to be good.

Somewhat unexpectedly, after arriving in Australia as underdogs, England find themselves in a position to regain the Ashes.

Each side has won one match with two draws. Never in the history of Test between the two countries have three matches been drawn in a series in Australia.

England will have to win the first two matches if they are to have a chance of regaining the Ashes. It is a long way to go, but it is not impossible.

There is however, talk of Fred Titmus going in first. England must win to regain the Ashes as they must play a Test after the return of the tour.

ELECTION QUOTATIONS
The view of the farmers caused by an expression of opinion by a Government spokesman to the effect that the draft of the constitution is published, it might be as well to take a look at two statements made by the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. J. M. Webb, on the subject of the draft of the constitution, which was published in the Official Gazette on February 22, 1963.

What has the Executive House to say about the draft of the constitution? Mr. Webb said that the Executive House will be held in session on February 28, 1963, to consider the draft of the constitution. He said that the Executive House will be held in session on February 28, 1963, to

East African transport system
A REPORT on transport, issued by the U.N. Secretary-General in 1962, has been especially for East Africa. U.N.
Secretary-General U Thant said that the transport system in many developing countries, including East Africa, is in a state of crisis.

It is a cumbersome affair to erect, with its length of about 400 feet, the action of the sea and the wind, and the

THE GREAT BIG DAY FOR KENYA'S SCOUTS AND GUIDES

By Jean Vaughan

FOR both Girl Guides, to whom they are "Thinking Day" and "Founder's Day" celebrations. It is a date to be celebrated with special greetings, picnics and good turns, but girls belonging to other movements today is extra-special.

The Chief Scout of the Commonwealth, the Charles Mackinnon, is visiting Kenya and today will pay homage in honor of the founder of the Girl movement.

Olave, Lady Baden-Powell, the founder's widow and the World Chief Guide, has just returned from a visit to Kenya only two months ago. Her visit was the first since she left the post-war world in 1919. It was her husband's company at the time of the first meeting of the Girl movement.

TWIN BIRTHDAY

The significance of the date, February 22, is that it was the birthday of both the Girl Scout and the Girl Guide. It was also the day when the founder's widow and her husband were married.

It is also a fitting one which to remember that the founder's widow and her husband were married on this day in 1919.

They must and Girl Guides organizations. In Kenya, however, they are in the process of being established. It is their hope and plan for the future.

Scouts and Guides in uniform are seen in the streets of Nairobi. They are wearing their respective uniforms and are engaged in various activities.

SPECIAL CODE

What does it mean to be a Scout or Guide? It means to be a member of a movement which is based on the principles of service and leadership.

Individuals are provided with the necessary equipment and training. They are also given the opportunity to participate in various activities.

FOR COMMUNITY

In all movements, the whole system of training is based on the principles of service and leadership. This is the foundation of the movement.

and experienced on the part of the participants. It is a day to be celebrated with special greetings, picnics and good turns, but girls belonging to other movements today is extra-special.

The problem for both movements is that there is a limited number of people who have the ability and experience for these administrative tasks and they are in great demand not only by all the voluntary movements but also by Government.

CHIEF LAG

For the Guides, this is a special day. It is a day to be celebrated with special greetings, picnics and good turns, but girls belonging to other movements today is extra-special.

1910 START

Scouting arrived in Kenya in 1910, only two years after the movement was organized in 1908. It has since then grown to become one of the most popular movements in the country.

26 ASSOCIATIONS

Scouts have 26 local associations in Kenya and Guides 12, and both need more and more interest in existing ones, but the problem is again one of finding the right people to organize and run them.

Another difficulty in Kenya, where there are so many Scouts and Guides, is to find the right people to organize and run them.

Major problem — finding money for the children and troop leaders who are so essential to the movement.

to continue the work properly. This has come from Government grants in the future must come increasingly from the general public.

FEW SALARIES

The main expenses are comparatively small salaries. These are paid to the Scout and Guide leaders.

COMPETITION—STAMP DESIGNS

Tanganyika Stamps: New Definitive Issue

A competition is to be held to select designs for a new definitive issue of 12 postage stamps for Tanganyika.

Particulars of the competition are as follows:—

(1) All persons resident in Tanganyika, Kenya, Uganda and Zanzibar are eligible to submit designs, which may be in the form of photographs, sketches or paintings.

(2) A maximum of 12 designs is required for the new issue on the following themes:—

"Tanganyika's Natural Resources"

"Tanganyika's Historical and Cultural Heritage"

Development efforts based on self-help.

It is not required to incorporate lettering or stamp value on material, since the competition relates only to pictorial designs, and these will be selected separately on the designs before definitives. Entries accepted, however, indicate whether horizontal or vertical stamps is intended.

Entries are not returnable at any stage after submission, and will be destroyed, unless each entrant has provided for correspondence regarding them, at the expense of the entrant.

Designs should be submitted to the competition by other persons either before or after the result is announced.

Entries are to be sent in the first instance to the Director (Tanganyika) Post Office, Dar es Salaam, as to the exact time by which the entries should be received. The name and address of the sender should be clearly shown in block capitals on the back of each design, and competitors are advised to pack their designs in such a way as to avoid damage.

Designs and competitors are invited to pack their designs in such a way as to avoid damage.

COMPETITION—STAMP DESIGNS

Tanganyika Stamps: New Definitive Issue

A competition is to be held to select designs for a new definitive issue of 12 postage stamps for Tanganyika.

Particulars of the competition are as follows:—

(1) All persons resident in Tanganyika, Kenya, Uganda and Zanzibar are eligible to submit designs, which may be in the form of photographs, sketches or paintings.

(2) A maximum of 12 designs is required for the new issue on the following themes:—

"Tanganyika's Natural Resources"

"Tanganyika's Historical and Cultural Heritage"

Development efforts based on self-help.

It is not required to incorporate lettering or stamp value on material, since the competition relates only to pictorial designs, and these will be selected separately on the designs before definitives. Entries accepted, however, indicate whether horizontal or vertical stamps is intended.

Entries are not returnable at any stage after submission, and will be destroyed, unless each entrant has provided for correspondence regarding them, at the expense of the entrant.

Designs should be submitted to the competition by other persons either before or after the result is announced.

Entries are to be sent in the first instance to the Director (Tanganyika) Post Office, Dar es Salaam, as to the exact time by which the entries should be received. The name and address of the sender should be clearly shown in block capitals on the back of each design, and competitors are advised to pack their designs in such a way as to avoid damage.

Designs and competitors are invited to pack their designs in such a way as to avoid damage.

HORSES GET SO BORED WHEN THEY'RE POSING

DRAWING horses is a fascinating pastime that most children discover and indulge in sooner or later, but few grow up to make it their career. One first visit for 14-year-old...

Mr. Mike Coleman is a picture of contentment as he sits in the saddle of a pale bay horse in the stable of the Earl of Warwick in Warwickshire. He is taking his horse to school and is looking forward to the day when he will be able to show his horse to a selection of friends.

Trained at Hetherington in London and in Paris, he had a year's schooling at a boarding school and then he spent a year at the riding school of the Earl of Warwick. He is now studying to become a professional rider and is expected to be in the saddle in a few months.

Mr. Coleman is not the only one who is interested in horses. Mrs. Colmore is a keen rider and she has a fine collection of horses. She is a member of the London and South Western Hounds and she is also a member of the London and South Western Hunt. She is a very successful rider and she has won many prizes.

WORLD HOPES

French inflict 5-2 defeat

FRANCE swept England out of the Men's Singles Cup in Paris, becoming Queen 5-2 in the second round of the tournament.

The great French player, carrying the country's first international victory with him September 1, collected his second trophy on a 5-2 aggregate. The first leg match, in Sheffield in October, was drawn 1-1.

France looked a much better-sided side than England. The English forwards looked nervous and rarely looked like the solid French defence, which the Kenyan Pierre Bernaud played a great game. He was well covered by the English backfield, who were however, when danger threatened.

France's attack was half-broken, with a lead-in pass by the centre-forward, Bobby Smith (Stram) and Bobby Tomlinson's 19th strike put the Kenyan in a 2-1 aggregate lead. Bernaud's second immediately after Tomlinson's goal put France's lead to two goals.

UNHAPPY DAY FOR DEFENCE

WINDHOLM beat France about 10 to 20 in the 20th minute, and further goals by Yves Dutoit, the half-back, in the 23rd minute and a brilliant, long-range shot by the Kenyan forward, Pierre Bernaud, secured their country's first international victory with him September 1, collected his second trophy on a 5-2 aggregate. The first leg match, in Sheffield in October, was drawn 1-1.

Speed men threat to N. Zealand

ENGLAND should follow up their 2-1 victory over New Zealand in Auckland with another convincing win over the Kiwis in the first leg of the New Zealand series starting in Wellington on September 15. The New Zealand team is likely to be a strong one, but it is expected to be fit for the 21st match.

England will be in the 21st match, but it is expected to be fit for the 21st match. The match will be played on the 21st of September, and it is expected to be a very close one.

JUNIOR TENNIS IN FINAL STAGES

Men's Junior Tennis will reach the semi-final stages this week and will be played at Harrow Club tomorrow, with the final on September 15.

The boys' doubles will be played at Harrow Club tomorrow, with the final on September 15. The girls' singles will be played at Harrow Club tomorrow, with the final on September 15.

AFRICATION 12 PART TALK BY SANDYS ON 12

Sandys of give findings today

The War Office statement in London last night, K.A.F. 19 Brigade, with a number of supporting Army and R.A.F. units have been placed on a 12-hour standby in Kenya. The decision was reported to be at the request of the Governor, Mr. Sir Frederick Baring.

Colonial Office spokesmen declined to comment, but British Government officials said that the Governor, being responsible for the maintenance of law and order, was entitled to call on the services of troops if he thought there was any question of internal disorder.

The War Office statement confirmed reports that troops from Somalia and the statement of the Prime Minister, D. Sherman, "reports of a four-hour standby, circulating by a spokesman of East Africa Command, London." When the Council of Ministers meets at Government House this morning it will hear the decision of the Governor, Mr. Sir Frederick Baring, which has been asked to endorse. Later in the day he will make a public announcement on his decision. Last night Mr. Sandys left a final two-hour meeting with the Council of Ministers. At the same time, various groups of people are expected to be met.

Meeting this morning

An official statement issued before this meeting said that during the day Mr. Sandys had had his "final round" with the Council of Ministers. It was expected that the matters referred to him for decision at this meeting this morning, and that he would hold his conclusions on the matter after the meeting.

Mr. Sandys can have little time for sleep before his final round with the Council of Ministers on Wednesday, May 16, when he will have to give his final round to the Council of Ministers on the subject of the matter referred to him for decision at this meeting this morning.

KANU members at 100
The Kenyan African National Union (KANU) has celebrated its centenary. The party has grown from a small group of activists to a major political force in Kenya. It has played a significant role in the country's struggle for independence and in the formation of the current government.

Date fixed for police driving trials
The Kenya Police driving trials will take place on March 15 in Nairobi at the police's Industrial Area workshops. The trials will involve police drivers from all over Kenya. The purpose is to improve the driving standards of the force and to ensure that all drivers are competent to handle the modern vehicles in use.

Pupils triumph in difficult period play
A group of pupils from a primary school in Nairobi triumphed in a difficult period play. The play was a challenge for the young performers, but they managed to deliver a convincing performance. The school principal praised the pupils for their hard work and dedication.

THRILLER WILL BE PRESENTED
A new thriller play will be presented at the Kenya State Theatre. The play is a gripping story of suspense and action. It is expected to attract a large audience. The production is the result of a collaboration between local playwrights and actors.

ACTIVE GOANS
The annual meeting of the Goan Association in Kenya has been held. The meeting was attended by a large number of Goans from various parts of Kenya. The association discussed the welfare of its members and the interests of the Goan community in the country.

Kanu nomination
The Kenyan African National Union (KANU) has nominated its candidates for the upcoming general elections. The party has a strong list of candidates across all constituencies. The nomination process was held in a public meeting in Nairobi.

Low price changes in vegetable markets

VEGETABLES remain in a good supply this week in Nairobi, but prices of many items have changed. The Government's offer for the purchase of vegetables for the army has been cancelled. This has led to a sharp increase in prices of many items. The Government's offer for the purchase of vegetables for the army has been cancelled. In response to the appeal from the Minister for Health, Mr. K. N. Dissanayake, the Government has decided to set up a committee to investigate the health conditions of the Indian community in Mombasa. The committee will be headed by the Minister for Health, Mr. K. N. Dissanayake, and will include representatives from the Indian community and the Government. The committee will be asked to report on the health conditions of the Indian community in Mombasa and to recommend measures to improve these conditions.

Court says case to answer

JUDGMENT in the case of a driver charged with causing the death of one passenger in a collision with a lorry at the Nairobi Airport turned out to be given on Thursday. The driver, Peter Joseph Duggan, had pleaded "Not guilty" to the charge. The lorry was driven by Mr. K. K. Chaban, and there was a case of minor injury to the driver. The court found that the driver was negligent and ordered him to answer the case.

Move troops, says party

OLD BOTTLES AND TINS HELP TEACH SCIENCE PUPILS

SCIENCE equipment made out of discarded bottles, old tin cans and empty cardboard boxes. This is what children in some of Kenya's secondary schools are using to prepare them for their School Certificate examinations.

But, to forestall criticism, let me say straight away that waste utilization works, and children will benefit if they learn science by the book, experiment in their shops at home, and then study at school.

It is not my intention to suggest that the science books should be the best of a bad job, but to derive from them the maximum benefit.

LITTLE PUBLISHED

The idea of letting Kenya children use "home-made" science equipment instead of sending them to the States to buy it was brought to the attention of the Ministry of Education by the late, little-published Kenya Science Project.

The project has been running for some time at the Kenya Training College in Nairobi and its teachers are a great help.

It came about soon after Makerere College decided to equip its laboratory and this created a gap between the secondary schools — most of which did not then teach Ordinary level — and the Kenya Education Board's teacher training college.

By Alan Burton

Discussions were conducted between more qualified teachers and scientists to teach from science work now being published under the Ministry of Education in Kenya.

It is the other East African countries that the Kenya Ministry of Education is now working to help, by sending Dr. Hill specialists, to East Africa to show the problem and how it could be overcome.

One of the members arrived at what the Kenya Ministry of Education should do. One programme specialist in Kenya, and I, and those from Nairobi, New York who began and began running the Kenya Science Project for the past 12 months.

Dr. Zuberbach, Mr. Theodor Benoit and Mr. Alan Burton — had a two-day talk when they arrived in Nairobi. They had in their schools in different parts of Kenya, lessons, getting to know the subjects, getting to know the boys themselves could best help the schools.

PIONEER COURSE

At the same time, they had to equip the laboratory and workshop they were provided with in the Kenya Training College. Nairobi and its teachers are a great help.

Equipment made from 'junk'

As part of the scheme, secondary work and workshop lessons, teachers undergoing their training hard at work. In such a brief training period there is no time to set up and run their own laboratories.

'VERY USEFUL'

Dr. S. K. Kariuki, who is at the Kenya Training College in Nairobi, Kenya, commented: "This is a great thing to do for the country."

THE GREAT LITERACY FIGHT

The Joseph Kessel

His film has come to Nairobi

KENYA is to see its first literacy book in the great African continent produced by the Literary Centre of the East Africa Broadcasting Corporation. This book, which is to be published by Monday, will contain 100 stories, poems and plays. The stories are written in the Kikuyu language, and the poems and plays are written in Swahili. The book is a result of the literacy campaign which has been going on in Kenya since 1952. The campaign has been led by the Kenya Government and the East African Broadcasting Corporation. The book is a testament to the progress of the literacy campaign and to the interest of the Kenyan people in education.
