NATIONAL REPRESENTATION

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
Sir—It is doubted if any one who has read the "E.A. Standard" will be surprised to find that the National Representative of the East African States is not a person who is known to the public. No voters appear to be interested in the election of a National Representative of the East African States. It is a pity that the National Representative of the East African States is not a person who is known to the public. Engine-Room Explosion in Empire
Lignard, Carrying 300
Immigrant Jews From Famagusta

It is believed that the return to these French ports of emigrants of the 4,000 Jews taken from the British Embassy at Haifa was the subject of talks between the British Ambassador, Sir Duff Cooper, and the French Foreign Minister, M. Edouard Daladier.

ENTIRELY A MATTER FOR THE FRENCH

It is a question that the Government is most embarrassed by. The French Government has been asked to take the responsibility for the return of the 4,000 Jews taken from the British Embassy at Haifa.

"Like A City of War"

Several of the transports have been attacked in the past, but the Empire Lifeline is the first to have been sunk. British attempts to bring immigrants to Cyprus have been stopped by British naval forces.

Roof-top Battles

Many battles fought from rooftops since the latest incident. There is a great deal of fighting in the city of Jerusalem.

ARAB STUTES ACCUSE THE ZIONISTS

A demand for the immediate stopping of Jewish immigration to Palestine was made to the United Nations Committee on Palestine yesterday.

EUROPE'S D.P. FOR STATES

The Australian Immigration Minister, Mr. Arthur Calwell, says that London asks for two weeks' notice of any change in the Commonwealth's immigration policy.

Tanganyika's 10-Year Plan To Raise Standard of Native Education

PREPARING PUPILS TO PLAY PART IN DEVELOPMENT SCHEMES

A REVISED plan for the development of African education in Tanganyika has been prepared and has been drawn up in consultation with Mr. C. W. M. Cox, Educational Adviser to the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The Ten Year Plan for the Development of African Education was published in Dar es Salaam recently and is supplementary to the Secretary of State's requirements as outlined in Appendix II of the Development Commission's report.

After stating the history of African education in the Territory the report states that the general aim of the plan is to make the most profitable use of the total sum which is likely to be available for financing African education in Tanganyika during the next ten years. It is necessary to ensure that as large a proportion of the total sum as possible is available for the financing of the plan, and to make provision for a general increase during the period to compare the secondary education which is being provided for with that which has been planned for the future.

The plan is designed to provide for a number of secondary schools for children as possible within the limits of the available funds. It is necessary to provide for a number of secondary schools for children as possible within the limits of the available funds. E. A. SISA INDUSTRY COTTON CROP

"UNIQUE" IN THE EMPIRE

Labour Diversion Effect On World Food Position

THE EAST AFRICAN sisal industry had produced more than 1,000,000 tons of hard fibre since the beginning of the war, and it now held a unique position in the Empire and the whole world as the only industry of its kind within the country, said Mr. E. F. Hitchcock, chairman of the Tanganyika Sisal Growers' Association, at a luncheon during the first Western Day at the Royal Experimental Station, Nairobi recently.

Mr. Hitchcock pointed out that sisal, cotton, rubber, and other tropical products were grown in many countries throughout the British Empire, but that Africa had only one sisal producing hard fibre on so large a scale as to be of world importance.

At a recent inter-departmental conference held at the Agricultural Office, the importance of sisal as an export commodity had been stressed, and consideration was given to the possible effects of development in East Africa upon the sisal production.

There was great shortage which was likely to last for some months, and it was pointed out that sisal was the only tropical product which was produced in Europe, and that the Government was likely to be able to supply the world's requirements.

It was pointed out that sisal was the only tropical product which was produced in Europe, and that the Government was likely to be able to supply the world's requirements.

When they were all pleased to see the results of the "Western Day" conference, Mr. Hitchcock presented an interesting paper on the sisal industry to the Association to Mr. G. W. Lewis, Secretary, and Mr. J. H. G. Lewis, in charge of the station, and Mr. Lewis pointed out that the sisal industry was unique in the world, and that it was the only industry of its kind within the country.

Mr. Hitchcock remarked that the sisal industry had been most successful in having a very unusual and extensive export trade, and that it was the only industry of its kind within the country.

Mr. Hitchcock pointed out that sisal was the only tropical product which was produced in Europe, and that the Government was likely to be able to supply the world's requirements.

Labour Position

The position of the labour force in the sisal industry is a subject which has been discussed in the past, and it is now being discussed again in the light of the present situation.

It is pointed out that the sisal industry is a labour-intensive industry, and that it is therefore of great importance to the Government.

USE PERMA LUTERAL PESSARIES

Guard against complications following insemination in COWS and MARES

One of the most common causes of sterility in cows and mares is insufficient or unsatisfactory treatment after calving or foaling. Metritis caused by bacterial infection in the lining membrane of the uterus and failure to discharge the afterbirth are complications which can be overcome by the use of "Perma" luterol pessaries. These pessaries are made in conformity with the latest knowledge of bacterial diseases and are most successful.

Linsed Has Arrived For Kenya Experiments

AS part of the general campaign against the world-wide shortage of food, vegetable oils, an appeal was recently made by the Ministry of Food in England to farmers in East Africa to grow linsed for the extraction of oil. There is reason to believe that this crop will do well in East Africa, especially at the higher altitudes.

A communication from the Ministry of Agriculture, England, has been received in Nairobi, Kenya, regarding the growing of linsed in East Africa. The Ministry has advised that linsed is a crop which is well suited to the conditions of East Africa, and that it is of great importance to the world's food supply.
