Troops called out against Paris Communists

NEAR-VIOLENCE IN STORMY SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

In the region of 1,500 armed troops and 1,000 armed police were called out to keep a crowd of several thousand Communist demonstrators from breaking through the police cordon in the Bois de Boulogne in Paris.

The police arrested about 200 people after several clashes with the demonstrators. "Remandier to prison" and "democrats broke through the police line drawn up in the Avenue Wagram."

They scattered leaflets throughout the Bois de Boulogne district calling on people to follow the instigators of the Soviet Union, France.

The demonstration occurred only a few hours after a stormy session of the National Assembly which M. Jacques Duclos, the Communist Parliamentary leader, was told by Premier Paul Ramadier to consider proof of one of his allegations or "shoot up" would on the vote of confidence he has asked for from the National Assembly today, although some political quarters were already discussing the possibility of further change in the French Government.

Blunt warning

M. Ramadier gave a blunt warning that if the Communists did not withdraw their troops from the Bois de Boulogne in Paris, he would resign in France.

He vigorously condemned the two Communist Ministers in the Cabinet, the Assembly had been recalled to a special session to hear a speech in which he explained France's dependence on the socialist Government.

The Communist benches roared in protest in the House of Commons when the French Premier said that if the Communists did not withdraw their troops from the Bois de Boulogne in Paris, he would resign in France.

FILM AND PLOT DID EXIST

A Los Angeles theatrical trade union alleged yesterday that the United States Government had been deceived by a Communist plot to capture our union in Hollywood as part of a Communist plan to control the motion picture industry as a whole.

U.S. eats less

The voluntary food giving movement in the United States is eating less than the average of 10 million calories a day, according to a report released yesterday by the U.S. War Relocation Authority.

They soon get jobs

The Ontario Press Minister, Mr. George Drew, speaking in the Provincial Parliament yesterday said that the Government was working to get the unemployed workers re-hired as soon as possible.

THE REST OF THE NEWS IN BRIEF

23 COUNTRIES CUT TARIFFS

Britain made 22 pacts at Geneva

TWENTY-THREE countries made 123 agreements for the mutual reduction of customs tariffs in the Geneva trade talks, the draft of the international trade agreement between Britain and 23 is expected to be published on November 18.

Yesterday the British House of Commons was told by the President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Harold Wilson, of the 22 agreements.

Only one country which has not signed a pact is the United States.

The President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Harold Wilson, said that the 22 agreements were the result of a series of negotiations which began in London in August.

He said that the agreements were the result of a series of negotiations which began in London in August.

Contract for whisky was 'sacred'

It is the only one of its kind in the world, and it is a contract which is as sacred as the Bible.

The Government has announced that it will not renegotiate a contract for the purchase of whisky from Scotland.

The contract, which was signed in 1945, is the only one of its kind in the world, and it is a contract which is as sacred as the Bible.

Case of Belgium

Sweden said yesterday that it is in a position to offer Belgium a loan of 100 million Swedish crowns.

Devaluation?

Discussions in London between the British and American Governments are continuing over the possibility of a devaluation of the British pound.

The British Government is considering the possibility of a devaluation of the British pound.

Truman urged to ban all discrimination

The enactment of a Federal anti-brothering law, the elimination of all forms of discrimination, and the end of the poll tax is a voting prerequisite for the passage of the Civil Rights Bill.

Immediate action

The 170 million dollar loan to the United States for the purchase of wheat is a prerequisite for the passage of the Civil Rights Bill.

'SOCIALISTS PLAY A LOW-DOWN PARTY GAME'

I AM sure that this Parliament has exceeded its usefulness.

The Ministers and their supporters may cling to office until the last days of their life-span but the respect and the trust of the people are gone and the rest of their lives will be a long and painful one.

The accusations

The accusations against the Government are that it is a low-down party game.

AN ARMY FORCE IN ACTION AGAINST KASHMIR INVADERS

Five attacks on rebel convoy
 A statement issued by the Indian Ministry of External Affairs was warning that Srinagar, capital of the State of Jammu and Kashmir, was now definitely threatened and that there was a possibility of the invaders reaching the city and massacring a large number of its inhabitants. The statement said that the rebels had reached within 10 miles of the city and that Indian Army troops who, although they had the advantage of being better equipped, were reported to have been attacking the rebels in the East, but to have control over villages of Patnan with 3,000 inhabitants 20 miles from Srinagar.

The rebels were believed to be trying to hold a line along the Jhelum River and to have been off a series of assaults by the Indian Army. The rebels were reported to have been attacking the Indian Army in the East, but to have control over villages of Patnan with 3,000 inhabitants 20 miles from Srinagar.

The rebels were reported to have been held at Baramulla by a column of the Indian Army. The rebels were reported to have been attacking the Indian Army in the East, but to have control over villages of Patnan with 3,000 inhabitants 20 miles from Srinagar.

HOUSE EXPELS A LABOUR MEMBER

But Tory objects, 'No crime'

A RARE case was opened in the House of Commons when Mr. Garry Allingham, Labour M.P. for Greenock, was expelled and replaced from the House after his disclosure of the activities of the Workers' Defence League. Mr. Allingham had been found guilty of disclosing to newspapers information about private party meetings of the House.

Unofficial suggestions in a number of Members' speeches that Mr. Allingham's disclosure of the House's activities was a crime were proved against Mr. Allingham, who was expelled by 117 to 74 votes.

Mr. Allingham had been covered from the powers in the House by the majority of the Government. Speaker called upon the Chamber and explained the reasons for the expulsion of Mr. Allingham.

Mr. Allingham was a Member of the House of Commons for Greenock since 1927. He was expelled from the House on November 10, 1939.

Interesting racing at Nakuru meeting

BRIILLIANT weather, a bumper crowd and some keen and important racing combined to make the Nakuru Nakuru meeting a most successful one.

Since the opening evening there have been three days of racing. Alexander started the trainers with three races and the first day was a total of 12 races. The second day was a total of 12 races, and the third day was a total of 12 races.

The meeting began with the six-hundred (weight) in the Division Handicap race which attracted a big crowd.
