NEW HOSPITAL READY NEXT APRIL

Nairobi plea for more support

The Nairobi Hospital Board has today announced that the new hospital, which is to be built on the site of the old hospital, will be ready for occupation by the end of next April. The board has also announced that it is seeking further support from the public to help meet the cost of the building.

The new hospital will be a modern building with 100 beds, a laboratory, X-ray department, and other modern facilities. It will be built on the site of the old hospital, which was destroyed by fire in 1945. The new building will be a two-story structure with a central corridor and rooms on either side. It will be built of brick and concrete and will have a modern design.

The board has also announced that it is seeking further support from the public to help meet the cost of the building. It has already received a grant of £10,000 from the Government and is now seeking further grants from the public. Stocks fall after a good start

The London Stock Market opened with a good start, but soon fell to a level of 1926. The market was generally flat, with only a few stocks showing any movement. The main reason for the fall was the news that the Government had decided to raise the interest rate on the 3½% loan to 4½%. This was expected to have a deflationary effect on the economy.

South African output rises

South African output has risen sharply in the last few months, according to the monthly trade figures published by the Government. The increase was particularly marked in the case of wool, which rose by 10 per cent. This was due to a combination of factors, including a rise in the price of wool and a decline in the price of other commodities.

Enormous success

The opportunity of the day is to invest in the stock market. The market is now at a level of 1926, and there is a great deal of speculation about a rise in the price of stocks. This is due to the fact that the Government has decided to raise the interest rate on the 3½% loan to 4½%. This is expected to have a deflationary effect on the economy.

M.L.C.s DEBATE MOTION OF NO CONFIDENCE

Member challenges Officials' judgment

R. POTTER'S REBUTTAL

Mr. R. Potter, Member for the Eastern Districts, today challenged the Government's handling of the Emergency, and the manner in which the operations against Mau Mau were not being conducted with the necessary military, administrative, and police resources.

During a debate lasting nearly three hours yesterday morning, Mr. M. Blandell, Leader of the European Members, moved an amendment, the substance of which was to urge the Colonial Secretary, Mr. H. G. Balfour, to show greater regard for the opinion of the Kenya Government. The majority of his colleagues, however, did not feel inclined to support a motion of no confidence in the Government.

Opposing both the motion and the amendment on behalf of the Government, the Colonial Secretary, Mr. H. G. Balfour, in the course of his speech, said that he had no intention of resigning from his office should the motion be carried.

"The House has made me feel all right," he said, "but I do not intend to resign."

Mr. Potter then moved a motion of no confidence in the Government, and the amendment to it. He said that the Government had failed to deal with the Emergency in a manner which would have secured the peace and stability of Kenya.

Doomed area saved by five-year plan

MBULU GETS NEW LIFE

The completion of a five-year plan—the only one of its kind in Tanganyika—has brought new life to the Mbulu District, where in 1924 the desert was advancing. People were being evicted in the face of the fact that soil overworking elsewhere was turning the land into a baked area.

Because the land was so badly exhausted—soil on which would have been considered impossible even a few years ago—cattle raising, which is the district's main industry, was almost impossible against the odds.

The successful desert-planting in Mbulu has shown the way and since that time more of the territory's overworking elsewhere has been taken care of. The Mbulu District, where in 1924, almost at the time of the Lake Victoria, have taken this essential first step towards a permanent policy.

In Mbulu the five-year plan has laid the basis for the future. It was the annual harvest of 100,000 tons of cotton—worth £1,000,000—a notable fact of the scheme—has not been lost but is an important element.

In the middle of typical East African desert country, Mbulu is a "green" area, at the foot of the Olduvai Escarpment, and the soil is rich and fertile. The annual rainfall of 40 inches is sufficient to grow a wide variety of crops, including cotton, which is the main crop.

The possibility of using this water for irrigation has been considered for many years in the past but has not been taken up.

But this year Tanganyika's agricultural and pastoral lands have been completely irrigated by a scheme which was completed in 1928. The Mbulu District, where in 1924, almost at the time of the Lake Victoria, have taken this essential first step towards a permanent policy.

AFRICA IS AT 'PARTING OF THE WAYS'

Professor Harlow's lecture at Makerere College

PROFESSOR VINCENT HARLOW, Best Professor of British Colonial History at Oxford, said in a lecture at Makerere University College: "I am more convinced than ever that the whole of Africa, and more particularly the East and Central Africa, is at the parting of the ways."

He said: "The Commission on Africa, which was set up by the British Government in 1927, has now reported its findings. It has recommended that the African States should be given the right to choose their own form of government, and that the British Government should be prepared to accept the results of their choice."

He said: "The Commission has also recommended that the British Government should be prepared to accept the results of their choice. It has also recommended that the British Government should be prepared to accept the results of their choice."

The trouble began eight years ago

There has always been a rivalry between the two countries, and the present Trieste eruption is part of this recurring problem.

I remember Trieste and the restaurant where an orchestra played its thirteenth anniversary, like the other conductor to Trieste's Third Mass.

Trieste has always been a city of contrasts, and the present Trieste eruption is part of this recurring problem.

Who Should Hold The Purse Strings?

BY DORIS M. KIRBY

JUST how often you should have a "check-up" on your financial affairs is a question that has been asked by many women in the past few months.

No conception

A MAJORITY of women have no conception of what a budget is, and many of them are in a financial straits.

Fashion Stories From London

Your Shoes...

If you have ever dreamt that you were walking along the street in odd shoes you dream has become a fact.

Choosing materials in color and material are very important in the shoes which include a harmonious look.

Your Hair

The shorter clip for women has, of course, presented a challenge to the hairdresser.

Let us be realistic, but be unashamedly for the new wave. It is not your hair that you are worried about, it is the hair that you are worried about.

Don Cockell is not even mentioned

A match-winning philosophy

HARRY WEETMAN, the heavyweight golfer and the long-time host of the "Shaming Sam" show in the Rugby Club magazine, tells us in his book The Way to the Green that he established his firm grip on the golf course by concentrating on his own game. Important Changes in ROVER CARS AND LAND-ROVERS FOR 1954

Great as has been the success and popularity of the Rover Seventy-Five, there have been some motorists who, while appreciating the advantages of Rover quality in design, construction and finish, would like more flexibility of choice in the matter of engine size. Some sought even more power, while others asked for the maximum of running economy consistent with those refinements which are characteristic of the Rover range.

To enlarge the appeal of the Rover car, two additional engines have been produced to satisfy these needs. The new 2½-litre "Ninety" will unquestionably raise the standards of Rover performance to a new high level, while the 4-cylinder 2-litre "Sixty" will yield still further economies in running costs.

The chassis and body are in each case substantially the same, while the Rover policy of continuous refinement of detail is abundantly maintained. Synchronism on second, third and top gear will be found on all three models, controlled by a new central gear shift which combines the advantages of direct control with the freedom of movement required with the three-passenger front seat.

LANDS PACKED FOR SHOW OPENING

Mr. Troup and Kenya's future

The main stands in the arena were packed when Mr. Troup, author of the report on agricultural development in Kenya, opened the Royal Agricultural Society's Show at Mitchell Park, Nairobi, yesterday afternoon.

Declaring that Kenya was one of the favoured places in Africa, Mr. Troup said what he imagined everybody would like to see in ten or 15 years' time was the development of a high standard of agriculture and a large export of agricultural products. He said that the main aim of the Government was to bring about a general improvement in the standard of living of the people, and that the Government was determined to do this by developing the country as a whole.

but caterers met big demand

EARLY arrivals at Mitchell Park yesterday were far too busy trying to keep dry to show off fashionable wear. Raincoats and macintoshes were a necessary accompaniment to the early start. For the ten stamping families who were with them, the rain was a nuisance, but for the caterers it was a boon. The demand for food and drink was so great that the caterers were kept busy from morning till night.

Mass Production brings about Price Reduction MOST POPULAR SMALL CAR

Today in Great Britain the little Ford Minors have become most popular.

After last year's bumper purchase has been reduced from 60% to 25%. In consequence the price of Minors has considerably risen and the demand for them became so great that the factory has been forced to introduce Mass Production Methods. This of course has further decreased the price and they are now available in Ramphal at £220.

The Minor Delivery price is £195 in London.

You are invited to see a display and demonstration of Ford Minors at Stand No. 66 at the Royal Agricultural Show, Mitchell Park today.

Britain's workers would not welcome U.S. methods

ONE of the tenets of the British industrialists is that American factories produce goods more quickly than they can be made in the United States. They are content to leave their competitors in a report to British industry.

"There is no concrete on which to base a comparison of output per worker," says the British industrialists' association. "The fact is that the American worker produces more goods in a shorter time because of the superior tools and machinery which he uses."

Sunshine likely to replace rain

A BELT of high pressure from the Maritime and Pacific coasts across the Indian Ocean to the east of Africa in the north and south of the equator has developed. This has brought a steady increase in the pressure over the South Indian Ocean. It has shown a tendency to move westwards by the end of the period.

A series of disturbances from the Indian Ocean has crossed the equator and rain in the Cape and in eastern Kenya has been falling steadily since the middle of the week. It is expected that there will be no change from the present showery conditions.

Regional forecasts for the week ending October 19, 1952. East of 20°E. Heavy rain in the Cape and in eastern Kenya. In the Indian Ocean, rain in the Cape and in eastern Kenya. In the Indian Ocean, rain in the Cape and in eastern Kenya.

1 "Good Cleanliness is next to godliness" — the most old and true Christian motto ever being uttered in the world.

2 It's only drinking — I put a few drops in a glass of cold water and the whole of my habit was broken in an hour.

3 This I think is a true story. I kept drinking as usual. I kept drinking as usual. I kept drinking as usual.

ANDREWS for me

Sparkling, effervescent Andrews before the coffee spoon. Then it cleans the mouth and helps to clean the tongue, then rinses the stomach and cleans up the liver. Finally, Andrews gives clean, clear, sparkling water to the system. Drink a sparkling glass of bubbly Andrews every day.

AN ARTIST AND THE EMERGENCY

THIS page is torn from the scrapbook of 23-year-old Colin William Merrill, son of Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. W. B. Merrill of Derby, in which the Colin is a commercial artist with an advertising agency but right now he is serving with the Kenya Regiment in their fight against Mau Mau terrorists. When opportunity has occurred he has sketched events and scenes he has experienced and the ones you see here are just a few of these remarkable sketches. The idea came to him when he discovered that National Servicemen took their interest in Rhodesia, had used a scrapbook of their experiences there. And he decided that he would do likewise for "T Force" in which he was posted at the beginning of this year.

Colin was born in India and came to Kenya early in 1939 to join his parents. His father is manager of Doves' Nest, Wattle Estate at Tioro, of the Great African, Tanning and Extract Company.

Starting his education in India, Colin went to college in England and studied for the law but gave it up. Always interested in sketching and drawing, he decided to make it his profession. He joined the Kenya Regiment when he first came to Kenya and then mobilized for the full time when the Emergency started.

He has served in River, Fort Hill, and the Aberdare, and his scrapbook tells a vivid story of the gallantry of the men who are fighting to bring back peace to Kenya Colony.

Above the artist sketches the Mau Mau down a track in the Aberdare during an ambush on which he and his companions set 12 hours with food-carrying men captured. Left, from the drawing when a group of "T" Force men are seen in the hills of the Aberdare, right, the Mau Mau are seen in the hills of the Aberdare, right, the Mau Mau are seen in the hills of the Aberdare.

when you really need that extra grip

That's the Firestone DUAL PURPOSE—the tyre that has a reserve of traction to see you safely over muddy, sticky going. On good roads the conventional centre tread only is operative, but immediately you encounter muddy conditions the deep non-clogging shoulder bars automatically come into action, give you that extra deep bite—and see you quickly, safely through.

The Firestone DUAL PURPOSE tyres keep you moving, save you those expensive, costly hours that are wasted when tyres clog up, spin and wear wastefully.

With Firestone DUAL PURPOSE tyres your car or truck is safer—far easier to control—and you get more tyre mileage because are such a really good tyre!
