SELF-RULE PROMISED TO NIGERIA IN 1960

Largest colony will join Commonwealth
 SUCCESS OF TALKS

Nigeria has promised independence on October 1, 1960, to the West African Federation, the largest colony. The decision was announced in a communique issued after the conclusion of the month-long Nigeria Commonwealth conference.

The communique, signed by the Federal Secretary, Sir Kenneth Robinson, stated that the Government had agreed to a number of proposals for the transfer of power to Nigeria on October 1, 1960. The proposals include the transfer of all powers of government to the Nigerian Government, the transfer of the Nigerian Civil Service to the Nigerian Government, and the transfer of the Nigerian Police to the Nigerian Government.

The communique also stated that the Government had agreed to a number of proposals for the transfer of power to Nigeria on October 1, 1960. The proposals include the transfer of all powers of government to the Nigerian Government, the transfer of the Nigerian Civil Service to the Nigerian Government, and the transfer of the Nigerian Police to the Nigerian Government.

COOLNESS OVER STATE VISIT

Comment by Dr. Heuss

THE West German President Dr. Heuss said in an interview broadcast in Bonn that German journalists who were surprised at the "reserve" shown by some British newspapers about Anglo-German friendship were being back-burned after the State visit to Britain.

At three hours from the German frontiers, Heuss said, "there are still some people who are not fully convinced about the future of our country."

He said that it is quite clear that the "policy" of the West will be seen through the eyes of every German.

Malaya's Nobel Prize example to world RACE HARMONY

Standard Staff Reporter, Malaya has much to teach other parts of the Commonwealth in regard to multi-racial experiments.

Sir Donald MacCallum said at a Nakuru Rotary Club luncheon.

Mr Donald who is chairman of the Council of State was Deputy High Commissioner in Malaya from 1943 to 1945.

The British Commonwealth was the greatest multiracial experiment in the world. Sir Donald said he added to this progress in the field of race harmony in Malaya.

TOURIST EXPERTS PRAISE EAST AFRICAN FACILITIES

Importance of publicity

DELEGATES to the general assembly of the Alliance Internationale de Tourisme left East Africa yesterday convinced that the territories hold a great appeal for the average tourist. Mr. J. Hoffmann, of Switzerland, said reduced by charter tourists, but the air fares can be made to be a keen attraction for the ordinary holiday-maker.

Mr. Hoffmann and Mr. N. N. Ahrens, of the Swedish Automobile Club, are cooperating to arrange an East African tour for some of their members. The tour will start in Nairobi on November 10 and will cover the territories for a period of four weeks. The tour will be a motor tour and will cover the territories for a period of four weeks. CHANGE IN OVERSEAS LEAVE AND PASSAGES A BREACH OF FAITH

The monthly bonus for the 1956-57 season, it was announced, would be £100 million. It was also announced that the Government had decided to increase the overseas leave allowance for the 1956-57 season from 10 to 12 weeks. This increase was announced as a result of the fact that the Government had decided to increase the overseas leave allowance for the 1956-57 season from 10 to 12 weeks. This increase was announced as a result of the fact that the Government had decided to increase the overseas leave allowance for the 1956-57 season from 10 to 12 weeks.

The increase in overseas leave allowance is a significant step towards improving the conditions of service for overseas staff. It is expected that this will result in a higher level of efficiency and productivity among overseas staff. The Government has also announced that it will continue to review the overseas leave allowance to ensure that it remains competitive with other countries.

INCREASE IN JUVENILE CRIME

FOREST ACTION

Action by Forest Magistrate

JUVENILE delinquency cases in Nairobi this year have dropped by more than 50 per cent compared with 1957, but will rise again in the next 18 months, a Nairobi magistrate, Mr. R. H. Lamb, said yesterday.

Mr. Lamb was speaking at the opening annual meeting of the Nairobi Forest Officers and Foresters Association, held at the Forest Officers' Club, East Africa, on the subject of "Forests and the Problem of Crime".

Mr. Lamb said that the incidence of juvenile crime in Nairobi had been a dangerous situation for some time past. He said that the Forest Officers and Foresters Association had been instrumental in the collection of statistics for the past few years.

OVERSEAS LEAVE A STORM IN A TEACUP

Letters to the Editor

'SAILOR BEWARE'

I BELIEVE that I am voicing the views of a large number of theatre-lovers in this country in writing condemnation of Sailor Beware by the drama critic as a play.

I can not overstate the value of the production as I have not yet seen it. But I saw the London production in 1953 and I am sure that the same will be true of the production in East Africa. More than 50 years ago, the author's personal knowledge of the life of the sailors was the only source of information for the dramatic effect in the London production. In the East African production, the writer has done his best to make the play as good as the original.

This is a play of the West-End of London in our own time in which the writer has done his best to make the play as good as the original.

Many of the characters are well drawn and the plot is well handled. The play is a good example of the writer's skill in writing for the stage.

It is a pity that the play is not better known in East Africa. It is a play that should be seen by all who are interested in the theatre.

Your paper would do equal justice to me if it admitted to spotlight the large-scale tax evasion in addition to which would do as much to placate the country's present financial plight.

At least it can never be said that civil servants fail in this category.

MY I, as one of the many who have read the Government's contribution to the home leave controversy.

First, to review the arguments that are being used. Number one is that salaries should be comparable with Government officers. It is a reasonable proposition and I think no one would have any objection to it.

Number two is that the resulting money is better spent on other things. It is a reasonable proposition and I think no one would have any objection to it.

Number three is that the resulting money is better spent on other things. It is a reasonable proposition and I think no one would have any objection to it.

PRINCE OF WALES LOSE TO KONGONIS

Club's first game of season against Nairobi schools

KENYA KONGONIS won its first match of the 1958 season over the Prince of Wales in the school ground. The victory was Kenya's first since the club was reformed in 1957. The match was played at the school ground in Nairobi on Monday evening.

The Prince of Wales team was captained by the school captain, and the Kenya team was captained by the school captain. The match was a close one, with the Prince of Wales leading at one stage.

The Kenya team played well throughout the match, and their victory was a morale booster for the club. The match was a well-attended one, and the school ground was packed with spectators.

The Prince of Wales team was a strong one, and they put up a good fight. However, the Kenya team was determined to win, and they did so in the end.

The match was a good one, and it was a pleasure to watch. The Kenya team played with spirit and determination, and their victory was well deserved.

A TRIBUTE TO THE KENYA FARMER...

The farmer is the man who, throughout time, is the backbone of a country. He is the producer and producer upon whom nations depend. Year after year, season after season, his work goes on. But times do change and the need for modern farming equipment is more than ever apparent. The modern farmer cannot afford to take chances with his equipment. It must be the best. The MASSEY-FERGUSON is renowned as the world's most popular tractor and over one million of them are in regular use on the world's farms under all conditions.

Triple-Tough Tyres by GOOD YEAR

HOW TOUGH CAN YOU GET WITH A TYRE?

A tougher test than you could imagine! Your car tyre has to take a beating lot of punishment. It's working near its limit as the chassis goes down and up. Here is a test that Goodyear 3-T Nylon Tyres are made to pass—triple tough, and the triple safety of nylon. Stuck in the snow, it's broken in ten or so feet and far away the best. Pinned for miles, it's stronger than any other tyre so tough that nylon cord can be made finer, making tyre walls thicker and thinner at the same time. Bump through they don't let you see far, being nylon the best disperser of heat. So tyre wall heating—the biggest cause of blow-outs—is pushed right into the background, out of your mind. And those thin walls, being more flexible, give better riding too. To match the strength, comfort and safety built into tyre today, you need the modern muscle of nylon—in Goodyear 3-T Nylon Tyres.

More than 32,000 crushing pounds of pressure bear down relentlessly on this Goodyear 3-T Nylon Tyre. The steel wheel buckles—yet not one single nylon cord is broken.

World shortage of nurses discussed

By JOHN TALBOT
NURSING experts from 12 countries met in Geneva this month at an International Labour Office report which says nurses are poorly paid in comparison with their status in other professions.

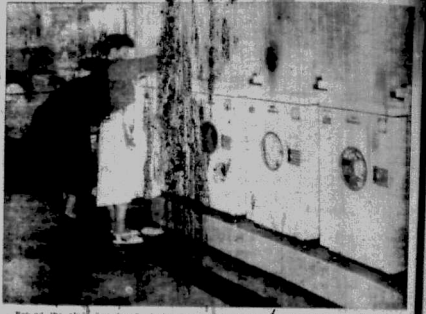

The report states that nurses are poorly paid in comparison with their status in other professions. It also mentions that there is a world shortage of nurses.

The Wonder stacking chair is the latest extension of a traditional piece of furniture. It is made of solid birch and the metal fastenings. It folds down like a table to save space.

SOCIAL STATUS

The report states that nurses are poorly paid in comparison with their status in other professions. It also mentions that there is a world shortage of nurses.

EAST AFRICAN APPROACH TO TOURISM SUPPORTED

Cutting down 'red tape'

Support for the view that tourism should be approached in a more liberal manner, as opposed to a local or tourist office, has been given by the East African Tourist Association, the Royal National Parks of Kenya, the East African Airways and Harbours.

Rivals to forget past in Zanzibar politics

ZANZIBAR has seen a new chapter in its political life. The two main rival groups, the United Party and the African Party, have agreed to a truce and to work together for the good of the island.

The agreement was reached after a series of discussions and negotiations. It is expected that this will lead to a more stable and united government.

The truce is a significant step towards the end of the political rivalry that has long plagued the island. It is hoped that this will allow for the development of a more effective and representative government.

Shops Invented

The immediate award of the George Medal has been made to an officer of the Mombasa Fire Brigade, Mr. Ernest Smith, for his courageous gallantry in rescuing an African who was trapped in a hot boiler in the boiler room of the Mombasa Hotel in this year.

Mr. Ernest Smith, 35, of the Mombasa Fire Brigade, was on duty at the Mombasa Hotel on the night of the rescue. He was alerted by the fire alarm and went to the boiler room. He found a man trapped in a hot boiler. He immediately went to the rescue and rescued the man. He was awarded the George Medal for his gallantry.

Flamingoes in millions come from Lake Natron

The abundance of flamingoes on Kenya's lakes has often puzzled both visitors and residents. The answer is that the birds have an ideal and isolated breeding ground on Lake Natron in North East Tanganyika.

That is the explanation of J. J. Williams, ornithologist of the Victoria Museum, Nairobi.

He told the East African Standard that visitors in particular were impressed by the great number of the birds on Lake Natron and other salt lakes.

Almost inaccessible

Very few people had seen the flamingoes until the "homing ground" at Lake Natron, because it was almost inaccessible by anything except the birds themselves.

The water in the lake has a high salt content and a fern grows below the surface, forming a spongy mat. The birds come to the lake to drink and to feed on the fern. The water is so hot that it is almost unbearable to humans.

Heard in peace

The birds come only once a year to the lake. They are heard in peace. They are not disturbed by anything except the birds themselves.

DEVELOPMENT CHANGES NEED APPROVAL Committee's proposals

MATERIAL variations in development projects under the approval of the Legislative Council is one of a number of important recommendations contained in the report of the Public Accounts Committee for the year 1957-58. The report is to be debated at the meeting of the Legislative Council on Wednesday.

The committee's report states that the effect of the Development Committee's proposals is to allow the Government to make changes in the terms and conditions of the contracts for the construction of public works without the need to refer them to the Legislative Council. The committee is of the opinion that this is a dangerous precedent and that the Government should be required to refer all such proposals to the Council for its approval.

The committee also points out that the Government has not yet introduced any legislation to give effect to the recommendations of the Development Committee. It is therefore recommended that the Government should introduce such legislation as soon as possible.

Hawkers' ban opponents win case

POLICY CHANGE

The Government has agreed to a policy change regarding the hawkers' ban. The ban, which was introduced in 1954, has been found to be impractical and has caused many difficulties for the hawkers. The Government has decided to lift the ban and to allow hawkers to sell their goods in the streets. This decision is a welcome one for the hawkers and will help to improve their living conditions.

GILGIL PROTEST AT RATE INCREASE

Criticism of resignation

The Gilgil residents have expressed their dissatisfaction with the increase in the rates for the water supply. They have also criticized the resignation of the water supply officer. The residents are demanding that the rates be reduced and that the water supply be improved.

Mr. Mulira's membership of Lukiko still valid

Standard's Correspondent, Kampala

Mr. M. K. Mulira, a member of the Uganda Legislative Council, has been found to be a member of the Lukiko. The Lukiko is a traditional council of elders. Mr. Mulira's membership of the Lukiko is still valid. This is a welcome development as it shows that Mr. Mulira is still active in public life and is committed to the welfare of the people.

EXCEEDED POWER

The Government has exceeded its powers in the matter of the hawkers' ban. The ban was introduced without the necessary legislative authority. This is a serious breach of the law and should be corrected. The Government should be held accountable for its actions.

DIFFICULT TO FOLLOW

The Government's policy on the hawkers' ban is difficult to follow. The ban is unclear and has caused many problems for the hawkers. The Government should clarify the policy and provide a clear framework for the hawkers to operate within.

THIS THING CALLED FREEDOM

ONCE again, Mr. Moyba, at Mombasa, is shouting for the "liberation" of Kenya and the "freedom" that he will continue to fight for. One is compelled to ask what is this "freedom" and "liberation" from what?
 If we look back a few years to the 19th when the British first came here, what did we find? A land ravaged by the Arab slave traders who had rounded and bled the villages, killed their old men, women and even children. Those not killed or enslaved were marbled off chained like animals to the Coast. If they survived the journey, they were sold as slaves in East Africa.
 Behind these facts, no nothing but domination. Apart from the Arab slave traders, there were the Maraj of Nandi who swept through the land, bounding these weary traders and slaves and pliers from what the East Africa Co. slave traders did to the country...
 Mr. Moyba says he is fighting for democracy. There are some who would like to "let the 'Lauzers'". But whatever his motive, it is not for the benefit of the people of Kenya...

EXPENDITURE EXCEEDS TOUDEST REVENUE

East African Tourist Revenue Estimate of £7,000,000

ESTIMATE
THE cost to East Africa for travelling abroad including shipping and air passages as well as expenditure on hotels and restaurants is estimated to exceed £13,000,000 during 1958. Per capita expenditure is £7,000,000, which itself is nearly £1,000,000 more than the amount spent by visitors to East Africa.

These figures, which appear in a tentative report compiled by the East African Statistical Department, are based on estimates provided by the Tourist Travel Association.

The association assumes that during the three months spent an average of 20 days. This is probably more than is spent by genuine tourists who go on safari but less than is spent by those who go on transit visits.

13,000 visitors on holiday

The 12,934 visitors who indicated on Africagraphs that they intend to spend at least one month in Africa during the holiday period of 1958 are estimated to have spent £3,043,000 on their holiday.

Approximately 20,000 visitors are estimated to have spent an average of 20 days in East Africa and spent £3,000,000 on their holiday. This is based on the fact that the population in Africa visited during the last five weeks of 1957 spent an average of 20 days in East Africa and spent £3,000,000 on their holiday.

The total number of holiday visitors is estimated to be 13,000, which is based on the fact that the population in Africa visited during the last five weeks of 1957 spent an average of 20 days in East Africa and spent £3,000,000 on their holiday.

CHINESE RESUME SHELLING OF QUEMOY ISLANDS

'Punishment' for U.S. violations

MILLES SEES LLOYD

CHINESE Communists yesterday started shelling the Nationalist-held Quemoy group of islands in the Taiwan Strait. The firing began 30 minutes after Peking had broadcast a Defence Ministry order for a "new fire" which began on October 6. The order had violated international law and the United Nations Charter, the Chinese Secretary of State said today. He said the firing was a "punishment" for U.S. violations of international law. He said the firing was a "punishment" for U.S. violations of international law.

'Mighty atoms' of boxing

It has become traditional that the St. Mary's School boxing championship should be hard-fought and splendidly organized and the 1936 promotion did not depart from that high standard. From the 'mighty atoms' to the heavyweights — who were the mainstay to adult weight standards — every bout was fought with a will.

Spartan demeanor
Most notable feature was the spartan demeanor of the winners. It was a revelation to see big, strong young fellows at first sight, but their fighting spirit was revealed in the heat of the contest. They were determined to win and they showed it in their fighting.

VOSENE
clears dandruff instantly + protects hair too!

Wash it much more than just once a shampoo. Cleansing your hair is only one of the things it does. Not only does it wash away every flake of dandruff, but it also keeps the scalp healthy, protects against all infection and itching, and will prevent the loss of hair. It also leaves the hair soft and shiny, and the hairdresser leaves your hair looking just what you want.

Van Rensburg named for vessel title

Van Rensburg is the name of the new vessel which is to be built by the Government of Natal. The vessel is to be used for the transport of goods and passengers between Durban and Pietermaritzburg.

FROM CLYDE TO JACKSONVILLE

The last full-rigged ship to carry cargo under American registry, "Ship Tustala" bore four names and flew under the flags of three nations during her life. Launched on the Clyde in 1933 with the name of "Invincible" later to become "Sierra Lucena," she was purchased "Seppie" when sailing under Norwegian colours. In 1926 she came into the ownership of James A. Farrell, Sr., and was renamed "Tustala." She flew the house flag of the old Argentinian Line, which later merged with the American South Africa Line to form Farrell Lines. "Tustala" ranged far and wide from Atlantic to Pacific well manned, making good passages with good cargoes. Many are the men who learned their seamanship in this sea-lady. "Tustala" was transferred to the U.S. Coastguard during World War II to perform her last service before being broken up at Jacksonville in 1951. A fine ship under her masters, "Tustala" was a worthy predecessor to her sister-ships in steam under the Farrell Flag. Well-known in African waters, the Farrell fleet has been of service to the peoples of East Africa for many years. It has long been our privilege to carry coffee, tea, wool and other valuable exports to the United States, returning with vital machinery and equipment. Thus providing service which we believe to be of mutual benefit to both countries.

MORE LOST JOBS; FEWER FOUND WORK

African trades union leaders criticised

The 1953-54 recession had its repercussions on the African workers, for the first time in many years, the African workers who lost their jobs were not re-employed by the same employer who had dismissed them.

The Nairobi Trades Union Congress (N.T.U.C.) has issued a report which says that the number of African workers who lost their jobs during the recession was 10,000, while only 5,000 were re-employed by the same employers.

Major problem

The major problem is the fact that the employers who dismissed their workers during the recession have not been able to re-employ them.

Alleged demonstration

Official of the Nairobi People's Convention Party admitted on September 26, in a stage demonstration at Nairobi station, that he used a placard during the demonstration. The placard was a sign that read 'Nairobi People's Convention Party'.

Peaceful scene

The demonstration was a peaceful scene. There were no disturbances or violence. The participants were all well-behaved.

Simple accommodation

The accommodation for the demonstration was simple. It consisted of a few tables and chairs set up in an open area.

Increasingly used

The placard is increasingly used by the party. It has become a symbol of the party's identity.

Kept-shy visit

The party kept a low profile during its visit to Nairobi. They did not make any public appearances.

Under 'Standard Clock'

The party is operating under the 'Standard Clock' system. This means that they must adhere to a strict schedule.

United Kenya Club

The party is a member of the United Kenya Club. This club is a group of people who are interested in the development of Kenya.

North Frontier roads closed

The party has been active in the North Frontier. They have been working to improve the roads and the living conditions of the people.

Reduction in road charges

'BURDEN EASED'

REDUCED road building specifications are to be introduced in some cases by Nairobi City Council because it felt that costs in residential areas should not become an undue burden on plot owners.

The Council proposes to reduce the cost of road building in residential areas by using a lower standard of road construction. This will help to ease the financial burden on the residents.

Two standards

Two standards of road construction will be used. The first standard will be used for roads in residential areas, and the second standard will be used for roads in commercial areas.

Test period

The Council will test the new standards for a period of six months. During this period, the Council will monitor the costs and the quality of the roads.

In the public interest

THOSE who have accused the Government of having conducted a one-sided campaign against some of the proposals of the Income Tax (Management) Bill, the Government's first election of African members to the Council of Accountants in East Africa. To say the least, it is not only the public interest that is being served by the Government in this regard, but also the public interest that is being served by the Government in this regard.

It is true that the Government has not been able to secure the support of the public in this regard, but this is not a reflection on the Government's policy, but rather a reflection on the public's lack of understanding of the Government's policy.

The Government's policy is to introduce a new tax system which will be fair and equitable to all. This is a policy which is in the public interest, and it is the Government's duty to introduce such a policy.

THE GATUNDU SHOW

GATUNDU Show, where African farmers displayed the best of their cattle sheep and pigs, attracted wide interest on Friday and Saturday. As the largest show of its kind in the area, the general atmosphere was that of a busy and interesting occasion. Later, the grand Mr. King, Agent of Kapsara District and judged the numerous herds of the show. At night some of the 75,000 Africans who attended the show were seen.

AMERICA ASKED TO DROP PREFERENCES

Reduction in exports from Britain
Example would be followed

IF America were to set an example in removing international trade obstacles, Britain would follow that lead. Sir David Eccles, at the opening of a three-day ministerial session of the Board of Trade, in Geneva. He also asked the United States to take a leading part in a review of agricultural policies.

He said: "The United Kingdom is ready to take part in such a review, on the assumption that all the contracting partners will work with us."

He added that no satisfactory arrangements could be made to secure orderly production and distribution of foodstuffs if the United States were to raise such a demand.

He said that Germany and other nations were increasing their production in the period that those of the O.E.C. member countries were decreasing.

The O.E.C. Federation of Agriculture is a survey of the world's food supply and demand in 1958. It is the first of a series of reports which will be published in regular intervals. It will be published in regular intervals.

Russian wheat for S. Africa

South Africa will buy 100,000 tons of Russian wheat in the current year, according to the current news from Moscow.

The wheat is to be used for the production of flour and other products.

RUSSIA BUYS RUBBER

Russia has bought 100,000 tons of rubber from the United States.

The purchase is part of a larger agreement between the two countries.

Remarkable progress towards return to normal

MINISTER PRAISES WORK IN CENTRAL PROVINCE

Mr. Ncube, who has been in the Central Province for about two months, said that the progress made in the province was remarkable. He said that the province had been in a state of chaos for many years, but that the Government was determined to bring it back to normal.

He said that the Government had been successful in establishing a central government in the province, and that the people were beginning to feel secure and happy.

He said that the Government had been successful in bringing about a state of peace and order in the province, and that the people were beginning to feel secure and happy.

NEW WONDER BEER

Great news for slimmers and diabetics

A TRUE BEER BUT NON-FATTENING

The beer which was developed by the famous Hottel Brewery of Hamburg has had a tremendous success in Europe. It is a light, refreshing, strong, healthy beer with the mark of the true 'Pilsener Lager'.

HARMLESS TO DIABETICS
This beer contains no sugar and is therefore safe for diabetics to drink. It is a true beer, but non-fattening.

WE'VE WON A BATTLE!
We have won a battle against the fat in beer. You can now have your beer without having to limit your intake of fat.

WIDENING OF TRADE GAP LAST MONTH

Activity on London markets lessens

Capital Reuter, (E.A.), Ltd. WITH the widening of the trade gap and the fall in Wall Street, there was little activity in London stockmarkets yesterday morning.

The London market was quiet, with a few shares changing hands. The market was generally flat, with some activity in the foreign exchange market.

U.S. loan for Jordan

The United States has granted Jordan about $12.75 million.

AUSTRALIA LOOKS TO FAR EAST

Steadiness at coffee auction

Substantial surplus

Reports during the month were to the effect that the price of coffee was steady, with a slight increase in the price of the best quality coffee.

The auction was held in Nairobi, Kenya, and attracted a large number of buyers from the Far East. The price of coffee was steady, with a slight increase in the price of the best quality coffee.

Rate cut likely

The Bank of England is expected to cut the rate of interest in the near future.
