Some cognac makers would give their right arms for our nose.

What this man's nose knows, no other man's nose knows. It belongs to Monsieur's Master of the Cellar, Monsieur Francois Chateau.

For the simple reason that we have far more vintage cognac in our cellars for him to bleed than any other cognac maker.

To rub it in, we've actually some 63 million gallons up to 30 years old, lately maturing in our cellars from the forests of Limousin.

Moreover, we have allowed Monsieur Chateau to become quite a dachau with it.

What his nose says goes, or doesn't go into a Martell bottle himself would countermand him.

So if you can't trust yourself to follow your nose, follow ours.

MOTOR SPORTS

Safari car entered for Acropolis

Edgar Hermann and Gerald Evers, who are both well known in local motor sport circles, have entered the Acropolis Rally. This international event starts in Athens on May 30 and ends on June 4.

The rally route covers unimproved roads in mountainous areas in Greece. The Acropolis Rally has been compared with the East African Safari in a dry year. Features which the Safari offers are the requirement of a sailing permit to share with the Greek crew.

As the Acropolis is a dry year, it is expected that the weather will be more favourable than the East African Safari. The rally will start on May 30 and will last for 21 days. The route will cover 1,500 miles of unimproved roads in mountainous areas in Greece.

The Acropolis Rally is a very well known event in Europe. It is held annually and attracts many of the best drivers in the world. The rally is held in Greece and is a very popular event.

10,000 London dockers in race strike

Over 10,000 London dockers went on strike and increased on Parliament Hill in London, England, today. The strike was the result of a dispute over wages and conditions of work. The dockers' union, the National Dockworkers' Union, has been in a dispute with the employers for some time. The strike has caused a serious shortage of dockers in London and other ports. The employers have offered a settlement, but the dockers have refused it. The strike is expected to last for some time.

Trading conditions more difficult

By The Observer Correspondent

Dealings on the Nairobi Stock Exchange which were at their most lively last week, seem to be developing along the lines of "carrying the sherry from the party". In other words, investors have had a change of scene. Here certain shares have passed to the exchange and are being traded under the more difficult trading conditions now being experienced.

They have, in many cases made their money "Monday" and are now looking for a more desirable share, while the companies which were in a position to buy and sell in a Portland cement, a newspaper, a sugar, a flour, a power and lighting company, are now looking for a more desirable share to buy and sell.

K.P.U. and 'false' Kanu members

Standard Staff Reporter Mombasa

Mombasa yesterday charged that the Kenya People's Union took to the streets the country's progress and attacked members of during the day and attended subversive meetings at night.

Saying that nobody would be allowed to interfere with Kenya's freedom, the President accused the K.P.U. of rousing the masses looking for such help to block the country's progress. It was vital to realise that the K.P.U. was an enemy of the country. It had proved worthless.

Attacking false Kanu members who engaged in subversive activities, he also condemned those M.P.s who caused division when they claimed to fight for unity.

Some M.P.s were bribed to create disunity among themselves and the country. This was not true leadership. They were elected to serve their people in a fair and good manner. The President also condemned executive members of the Kenya Parliament, addressing a large crowd at Mombasa Stadium, urged the people not to give for those who offered money. They should be guided by a fair opinion and not by bribery and corruption which could only lead to irreparable leaders.

Kanu members all the feast of the 1964 general election. He said that many of those who were elected to the K.P.U. and Kanu 'K' Kanu were those who had not taken part in the election and he said that he would be glad to meet with them and to hear their views. He said that he would be glad to meet with them and to hear their views. He said that he would be glad to meet with them and to hear their views.

The great word factory

The United Nations is so busy examining the problems of the world that it largely ignores its own. The time for a critical self-examination is long overdue. An article in the paper on Friday is a good example of the headlines, such as the fact that the UN Headquarters is burning the beams.

The article also pointed out that the present UN budget has reached a record level of more than 140,000,000 dollars, some so large that it goes beyond the comprehension of most people. It is so large that it is raised in proceeds from various countries, not from the nations which contribute to it.

It is alarming to hear that Parkinson's law is running mad, the professor's dictum that work expands so as to fill the time available for its completion is being fulfilled all too well and the cost of unnecessary activity continues to soar.

What can be done about this waste drain on the world's resources? Obviously, nations must be allowed to harm the constructive agencies of the UN, such as the Children's Fund and the World Health Organization, which are doing such valuable and humanitarian work, particularly in the developing countries. But the world body should without delay cast a critical eye at all its activities. That is not so difficult to do as it seems. It is to set the word for the trees; for those watching from a distance the extensive futility of some of its branches is painfully obvious.

The calling of conferences on almost every conceivable subject and the appointment of missions which do nothing but are cases in point.

Perhaps the most glaring example recently was the UN Conference on Trade and Development in Delhi, which lasted for eight weeks at the end of which it had achieved precisely nothing. It was intended to agree on at least something. No information is available on how much the talks cost, but it is a safe bet that it cost a considerable sum of money.

It is not surprising that the UN has been criticised for its waste of money. It is not surprising that the UN has been criticised for its waste of money. It is not surprising that the UN has been criticised for its waste of money.

Loyalty the key to commercial success

HARVEY STOCKMAN, a British journalist who has been visiting Japan, discusses the reasons for that country's remarkable economic development.

The slow train from Tokyo to Osaka does the 316-mile train in four hours. The fast train does it in thirty-four and ten minutes.

It is not surprising that the UN has been criticised for its waste of money. It is not surprising that the UN has been criticised for its waste of money. It is not surprising that the UN has been criticised for its waste of money.

Diplomat in novel role

The police have been getting together for criminals in Nairobi. Not only do they have the police controlled with it, it appears that the ordinary man in the street is getting more and more active in fighting crime.

There have, however, been a few occasions when the police have been surprised by an act of violence. Recently had to be sent to hospital for the recovery of his health. The police, who are delighted that the public would take an interest in their work, are now more active in fighting crime.

For and against Olympic Games decision

My editorial comment on South Africa's participation in the Olympic Games cannot be regarded as a balanced and impartial as a result and was not intended to be.

I believe the exclusion from the Games will do more to bring about a more united South Africa than any other action.

Although you assert that the South African Government will not be allowed to participate in the Games, it is not clear that the Government will not be allowed to participate in the Games.

The boycott against South Africa is a noble and commendable one. It is a noble and commendable one. It is a noble and commendable one.

West Brom in 10th F.A. Cup final

Everton will meet West Bromwich Albion when they set to win the English F.A. Cup for the second time in three seasons in the final at Wembley on May 11.

Everton reached out to a 16th in their previous semi-final defeat Leeds United in March, while West Bromwich earned their last cup prize in a 2-0 victory over second division Birmingham City at Villa Park, Birmingham.

A 16th in the F.A. Cup for the 16th time in their history is a match started by 41 goals - 21 from Leeds and 20 by Everton - which ended Leeds' hopes of becoming the club to play at Wembley twice in one season.

Leeds, English League Cup winner in Wembley three months ago, will line up in the League Cup Final Cup.

Goal by the centre-forward, Jeff Astle (11) scorer, and wing-half, Tony Brown (10), were enough to give West Bromwich their sixth F.A. Cup Final Albion made the fortune of doing anything but losing on such a high level.

West Bromwich manager, Alan Hudson, said after the match: "I was disappointed that we lost our two goals very early."

West Bromwich manager, Alan Hudson, said: "I am very pleased with the way our boys played. We made four changes but just did not have the right players for the job."

The Everton manager, Harry Redknapp, was highly delighted, especially since he was without Billy Brown and John Hunt, whom he considers the highlights of our defence."

Don Revie, the Leeds manager, said: "I was unfortunate that we were without Billy Brown and John Hunt, whom we consider the highlights of our defence."

Charterhouse with the Scottish Soccer Cup for the second time in their history with a 2-1 win over a disappointing Hearts, Glasgow, in the final at Hampden Park, Glasgow.

Hearts' manager, Don Revie, said: "I was very pleased to be in front of a crowd of only 50,000

the lowest Cup final attendance in 100 years. It is likely to be a good draw during the first 35 minutes of the game but the defensive half from close range. Defenders increased their field of vision later when the winger, Charlie Miller, crossed the penalty spot after the referee, Crick, had allowed the winger to cross after James had been injured, forcing the referee to award a free kick which was headed into the goal which opened the Hearts score.

Leeds' first ever appearance in the F.A. Cup final was in 1902 when they were defeated by Tottenham Hotspur 2-0 in the final at Wembley.

Leeds' manager, Don Revie, said: "I was very pleased to be in front of a crowd of only 50,000

Israel rejects U.N. call to stop parade

The Israeli Cabinet decided yesterday to go ahead with next Thursday's military parade in Jerusalem, despite a request by the United Nations Security Council not to do so.

The Cabinet, whose members unanimously agreed that the parade should go ahead for the weekend for a resolution opposed the independence day parade.

Political circles in Tel Aviv described the U.N. decision, which had been announced as a lack of political will on the part of the United States.

The whole Israel Press has been criticizing the resolution.

Most news commentators who on May 2 paraded as an unwise move and that Israel should not back down without realising its position and raising doubts about its irrevocable decision to remain in Jerusalem.

Protestations were heard on the parade with some demonstrators protesting by using the word "parade" as a slogan.

The Cabinet, however, formed a decision to go ahead with the parade from through Thursday, May 23, and a large number of plain clothes police will also be on duty.

The resolution of the Security Council is a political move. However, clashing resolutions have been formulated by the Security Council.

No diplomats will be attending Thursday's parade.

The Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir and Foreign Minister Golda Meir will be attending as guests of the Israeli Army.

SAIGON PREPARES FOR FRESH ATTACK

United States B-52 Stratofortress bombers are increasing strikes on Vietnam positions around Saigon as the enemy carries out a protracted war attack by guerrilla forces.

In their latest mission the eight B-52 bombers, led by an F-4 Phantom II, dropped 100 tons of incendiary bombs, 100 tons of napalm and 100 tons of high explosive bombs on the city of Hue.

The United States Air Force is expected to launch a new offensive against the North Vietnamese army and Viet Cong forces on the night and all day long because of the possibility of attack. Thousands of families are being evacuated.

South Vietnamese soldiers and police remain on the alert and all day long because of the possibility of attack. Thousands of families are being evacuated.

New Sierra Leone Premier attends first function

Sierra Leone's new Prime Minister, Sir Samuel Doe, attended his first public function as Premier of the country at the National Revolution Movement's 10th anniversary celebration in Freetown last night.

The new Premier, who was sworn in last night, addressed the gathering and declared that his government would be committed to the development of the country through the efforts of the people.

The event was held at the National Revolution Movement's headquarters in Freetown.

U.S. VICE-PRESIDENT TO SEEK NOMINATION Third Democrat in White House

The United States Vice-President, Mr. Humphrey, is to fight for his party's nomination for the White House in the long-expected announcement of the Democratic Party's candidate for the Presidency.

Mr. Humphrey appears to be the second time he has sought the presidency. He ran for the Democratic nomination in 1964 but lost to Lyndon B. Johnson.

Mr. Humphrey is expected to announce his candidacy in the next few days.

He has been a member of the Democratic Party since 1952 and has served as Vice-President since 1965.

Mr. Humphrey is a member of the Democratic Party and has served as Vice-President since 1965.

No talks on majority rule says Mr. Smith

The Rhodesian Prime Minister, Mr. Ian Smith, has refused to discuss majority rule with the African National Congress (ANC) in a statement published in London.

Mr. Smith said that the Rhodesian government would not enter into negotiations with the ANC until the ANC had accepted the principle of majority rule.

Some cognac makers would give their right arms for our nose.

What this man's nose knows, no other man's nose knows. It belongs to Marek's Master of the Cellar, Monsieur Francois Chateau.

He's had far more opportunity to sharpen his nose than any other blender.

For the simple reason that we have far more vintage cognac in our cellars for him to bleed than any other cognac maker.

To rub it in, we've actually some 60 million gallons up to 50 years old, silently maturing in oak casks from the forests of Limousin.

Moreover, we have allowed Monsieur Chateau to become quite a dictator with it.

What his nose says goes, or doesn't go into a Marek's bottle. Not even Monsieur Marek himself would countermand him.

So if you can't trust yourself to follow your nose...

Follow ours.

300 killed in attack on base

Well over 300 North Vietnamese troops were yesterday reported killed in a vast attack by United States and South Vietnamese forces on the key North Vietnamese stronghold of A Shau, just below the 17th Parallel near the Laotian border.

They aimed to destroy the important logistic base completely. Lying 12 miles west of Hanoi and 50 miles southeast of the Ghanh wet area was first attacked 90 days ago after a thorough reconnaissance.

The US First Cavalry, hopping from hill to hill in the A Shau Valley, approached from the north and quickly set up four landing points.

The North Vietnamese mounted a huge anti-aircraft defence and helicopters were shot down and 15 destroyed in an early stage in the battle.

Simultaneously three battalions of South Vietnamese paratroopers approached from the south in a major offensive.

An strong American unit was beaten back twice by North Vietnamese defenders after launching the Central Highlands, 25 miles west of Hanoi, in late February.

Not far from this spot US-B-52 bombers made three raids against North Vietnamese troops, capturing a prisoner, including the high priest of the American command.

US-B-52 bombers, who had not been given to the Central Highlands area, also had not been used in an early stage in the battle.

Further south a mixed American-South Vietnamese column, taking part in the clearing-up operation near Saigon (Hanoi), with regular Vietnamese troops about 20 miles west of Saigon in Hanoi Province, where Government troops killed 24 Vietnamese and took one prisoner.

Following harassment shelling around the area, it has been virtually neutralized for the past two days and around Saigon still fear the outbreak of a general Vietnamese offensive.

According to statements of prisoners and Victory detentions, a second Viet Cong general offensive was set for July.

The American fighters however were shot down on Sunday over North Vietnam, brought to 800 the number of American aircraft shot down over North Vietnam since August 1964.

The United States and other nations have urged the South Vietnamese Government to surrender to the Communists, the South Vietnamese Vice-President Marshal Ky, said in a fiery national speech to the Catholic University of Saigon.

He said: "We will not allow our country to be controlled by Communists. We will not let our people be the hands of the Communists."

Pope Paul seen with Ethiopia's South Minister, Mr. Haile Selassie, his wife and sister, during a private audience they were given by the Pontiff.

ELECTION SHOCK IN W. GERMANY

West Germany was yesterday shocked by a sharp swing to the right, confirming Government fears that left-wing violence in Easter would produce an extremist backlash.

Victory of the country's third most-populous State of Baden-Wuerttemberg dealt the ruling Social Democrats a stunning blow by giving the National Democratic German Party a by-election victory.

The aggressively nationalist party polled 58 per cent of the vote. According to a leading local newspaper, the N.D.P. had a 100 per cent vote in 10 of the 11 constituencies.

For this reason the strong support for the N.D.P. means a serious reversal for our foreign policy.

Mr. Konig, a Baden-Wuerttemberg, said he had believed that the N.D.P. would not win so many seats.

British troops airlifted to Bermuda to quell riots

British troops have been airlifted into Bermuda to help restore calm after four days of rioting.

The British troops - 180 officers and men of the Royal Household Cavalry which speaks both English and Spanish - were flown from Bermuda's capital, Hamilton, to the island of St. Peter and St. Paul.

The troops, wearing full battle dress, were immediately taken to the Bermuda Regiment Warick Camp, about six miles from Bermuda's capital, Hamilton.

The trouble on the island, which has a two-thirds Negro population, started when gangs of Negro youths, who had been driven away from a charity fair.

The reason for the spreading rioting was the fact that the British troops will stand by in respect to case re-examination.

Owners to protest over handling of farm dispute

Ministerial Staff Report

Ministerial staff report that the Government is being prepared by advocates representing the Government. The advocates will protest that the police responsible for the Kaduha Farms area have failed to take a request to have the former freedom fighters, who have occupied land there, removed in compliance with a notice to quit issued to them recently.

The Kaduha Farms, six miles from Nakuru, has been the centre of a legal tangle ever since the problem was discussed recently in the National Assembly.

Breakdown in law and order

Advocates for the owners maintain that the authorities concerned were aware that the farm manager had told the former freedom fighters that they were no longer to remain on the land... The Provincial Commissioner and the police have so far not agreed with them only after the intervention of the advocates set yesterday. This would appear to be a breakthrough in that a formal protest will be made by the owners.

90,000 inoculated in Arusha Region

The District Commissioner in Arusha has reported that the inoculations would start in Arusha about the 25th of March. The inoculations have been fully covered. The present campaign had been concluded months before it was to begin. The inoculations were being carried out by three teams which were working in the area of Arusha, Moshi and Kilimanjaro. The work was completed about three weeks ago.

P.C. TO HEAR COMPLAINTS

The Provincial Commissioner, Eastern Province, Mr. E. M. Mahabir, will be holding a public hearing on Thursday when he is expected to hear complaints from the public. The hearing will be held at the Provincial Commissioner's office at Mombasa.

Surgeon blames 'bad luck' for death of ulcer patient

A trainee surgeon at Kenyatta National Hospital who administered a potent drug to a patient suffering from a peptic ulcer, said he had 'bad luck' rather than 'bad medicine' when the patient died. The doctor, Mr. J. B. M. Mwak, was giving a patient a potent drug to cure a peptic ulcer. He held the view that the patient died because of 'bad luck' rather than 'bad medicine'.

PANGA GANG STOLE £1,000

Seven armed men burst into a bank in Nairobi and stole £1,000. The money was hidden in a safe. The thieves were identified as members of the Panga Gang. The police are currently searching for the gang members.

£4,000 study grant for Uganda parks

The Government has granted a study grant of £4,000 to the Uganda Parks Department. The grant is intended to fund a study on the development of national parks in Uganda. The study is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Issue of trade licences delayed LAST-MINUTE RUSH

Hundreds of traders in Nairobi who have been notified that they must apply for their trade licences have been appalled by the delay. The delay has caused a last-minute rush for traders to apply for their licences. The Government has expressed regret over the delay.

Plans agreed for steel mill at Miritini

East African Wire Industries has announced that plans for the steel mill at Mombasa have been agreed. The project, which is being financed by the proposed foreign plant at Miritini on the Rendu coast of Mombasa.

The firm has been a pioneer in the field of wire products in East Africa since its inception in 1957. Over the past 11 years the company has expanded its production on a programme of integration in its activities. Today the manufacturer all varieties of reinforcing rods, barbed wire, welded mesh and welded mesh in coil for the construction industry. The firm is also producing wire drawing plant which makes wire from steel rods for use at the various and products named above.

The new expansion programme which the company has initiated is part of a long term phased programme of vertical integration of the industry in Kenya. It is a current phase a complex but not yet completed. This will ultimately develop into an integrated steel industry including a primary which will supply steel and iron and steel mill to the country. The firm has also expanded its operations in Kenya. The initial capacity of the steel mill is expected to be 50,000 tons a year. The new mill will produce a complete range of steel products.

A large proportion of the products of the mill will be used directly by the present manufacturing activities of the company. This will ensure that the proposed new expansion will have an established market for part of its products.

The new expansion is expected to be completed in approximately 18 months. The firm has already secured 100 people already working in the present manufacturing activities of East African Wire Industries Ltd. at Miritini.

The sponsors of this project are being listed as an early stage of the company will be largely owned by local investors. It is this end as hoped that the company will be a development in its regular dividends, which will be worked out on the basis of the share which will be issued in the purchase of shares in the company on a deferred terms basis.

CAR OF THE YEAR

The 1967 winner of the International Automobile Show (I.A.S.) award for 'Car of the Year' was the Volkswagen Beetle. The award was presented at a ceremony in London on May 1st, 1968. The Beetle was chosen by a panel of experts from 15 countries. The award is given to the car which is judged to be the most reliable, most economical, and most popular in the world. The Beetle has been in production since 1938 and has sold over 15 million units worldwide.

GOLD PRICE UP IN LONDON

Gold jumped sharply by 35 cents in London yesterday, hitting a record of £100.10 per ounce. The price increase was attributed to a combination of factors, including a strengthening of the pound sterling and a decline in the price of oil. Analysts predict that the price of gold will continue to rise in the coming months.

Kenya attracts the visitors

Kenya was represented by the 2nd International Tourism Fair in Frankfurt, Germany, from May 17 to 21, 1968. The fair was organized by the Frankfurt Office and was attended by representatives from various countries. Kenya's booth attracted a large number of visitors, including potential tourists and business partners. The fair provided an excellent opportunity for Kenya to showcase its tourism resources and to establish new contacts in the international tourism industry.

Arab-Israeli war not over, warns Mr. Eshkol

The war is not yet over — this was the message delivered to the Israeli nation by the Prime Minister, Mr. Levi Eshkol, at a national assembly on Monday, May 11, 1964, in Jerusalem.

Mr. Eshkol, who had just returned from a visit to the United States, said that the war was not over because the Israeli Government had not yet received a firm offer from the Arab States to negotiate a peace settlement.

He said that the Israeli Government was prepared to accept a peace settlement based on the principles of the 1947 UN Partition Plan, but that the Arab States had not yet made any such offer.

ELECTRO MAGNETIC COUNTER These counters can be installed in any suitable place and quite independently from the external area of operation. They are intended for control purposes... It is simply a matter of connecting the counters to the machines by electric wiring.

Each stroke or movement of the Machine to which the Counter is connected causes an impulse on the Electro Contact Device - which in turn operates the small Magnet of the Counter.

Many types of Electro Contact Devices are available - all of which operate automatically - necessitating a very low Power factor and with such precision that similar counting could not be performed mechanically.

COUNTING INSTRUMENTS Illustrated is a racket counter suitable for heavy machinery, processes, etc. A wide range of other types of counter for all machinery is available.

Parade in Jerusalem

A new flag which has been created in the Middle East situation could be trucked out tomorrow, though strict security measures are being taken to avoid disturbances in Jerusalem.

Israel is reported to be determined to go ahead with the Independence Day parade, a resolution passed by the U.N. Security Council. The Government's desire for a provocative air show has also been made by Arab living in Jordan and the Old City, which was captured by the Israelis in last year's fighting.

The National Commission for the Defence of Arab Jerusalem has appointed Arab in the city to maintain calm but show their disapproval by peaceful protest tomorrow's parade and carrying out only peaceful protests. While the Israeli authorities were naturally relieved by this demonstration of Arab moderation, there is still fear of a fresh wave of fighting from the Jordan side of the frontier and causing incidents among the crowds - hence the strict security arrangements.

The Israeli Press has told the decision to stage the parade, which was received publicly upon its arrival in Jerusalem as an example of Israel's determination to celebrate the success of their national movement against an occupation regarded in its time as colonial, British under a mandatory administration being run by Britain under the aegis of the United Nations and continued under the UN's aid in the fighting, which began in the Middle East in the subsequent war.

How such a parade different from any national day marking liberation of successful revolution? Israel will not only celebrate their 20th independence anniversary, but also directly to the outbreak of hostilities last June and the perpetration of the perilous Middle East situation.

NAMMI AMBA will leave Pakistan tomorrow for India and will be accompanied by Secretary Prime Minister, Mr. Koyfala, his wife and a number of a lasting settlement between the two countries.

Talks between the Soviet Premier, Mr. Khrushchev, and the Pakistani Prime Minister, Mr. Koyfala, which were described by the latter as "fruitful" and "successful" had been followed by a meeting between the two leaders in the Soviet Union.

It was widely understood by the Indian Press that the Indian Prime Minister, Mr. Jawahar Shastri, had been in contact with Mr. Koyfala and Mr. Khrushchev, and that the latter had agreed to meet the Indian Prime Minister as soon as possible, and to attend the Moscow conference.

A significant point in the possibility of fresh talks on Kashmir between India and Pakistan was the announcement that Pakistan High Commissioner in New Delhi, Mr. Koyfala, has been appointed to the post.

Mr. Hasan Khan, Mr. Koyfala and other Indian leaders who were in India during the talks, were reported to have been in New Delhi since 1962, and are attending the Kashmir conference.

Even if there is no immediate progress on the Kashmir dispute and the case of the Indian army, talks between the two countries, both of which were represented in the Kashmir talks, are expected to continue.

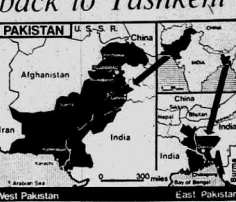

The Soviet Union has promised to assist in the signing of a mutually agreed ceasefire between India and Pakistan, and to provide technical assistance to the Indian army.

Since their economic relations between the two countries have improved, it is expected that the two countries will continue to cooperate in various fields.

The new trade agreement between the two countries, which was signed in New Delhi, provides for the export of raw materials from Pakistan to India.

It is expected that the new trade agreement will lead to a further increase in trade between the two countries.

Russia aids move Snakes join the High Life

As a massive Indian military buildup has recently related by the Indian Government, Soviet officials have been reported to have exchanged the frontiers of the Indian army.

Some reports in Kashmir have indicated that the Indian army has been ordered to move back to the frontiers of the Indian army.

The Soviet Union has been reported to have provided technical assistance to the Indian army in the form of tanks and other military equipment.

It is expected that the Soviet Union will continue to provide technical assistance to the Indian army in the future.

The Indian High Commission in New Delhi has been reported to have received a letter from the Soviet Union regarding the Kashmir dispute.

The letter, which was dated in New Delhi, stated that the Soviet Union was interested in the peaceful settlement of the Kashmir dispute.

It is expected that the Indian High Commission will continue to maintain contact with the Soviet Union regarding the Kashmir dispute.

F.C.'s success reflected by box office returns'

...of the Kenya Film Corporation, Mr. P. J. Garabahi, said yesterday that the corporation had successfully established itself as a film importer and distributor, in effect, with no other returns.

Only three cinemas closed

All but three of the cinemas which had been closed were open and most of them are rapidly returning normal. The three Twentieth Century Group cinemas had refused to re-open. They wanted the K.F.C. to guarantee a share of their operating expenses and a substantial profit margin, but the K.F.C. would not accept this, because it would have to receive a share of the expenses of the film distributors. Mr. Garabahi said the K.F.C. had agreed to accept the responsibility for a steady supply of English picture films, but not other parts of the world and was leaving the country to handle the rest.

It was disappointing that despite the K.F.C.'s willingness and efforts to co-operate with the cinema owners, the latter would not consent to come to an agreement which would facilitate the distribution of supplies of films from abroad.

The K.F.C. had agreed to meet the financial needs of the cinema owners by providing a steady supply of films. It had also agreed to provide a steady supply of films to the cinema owners by providing a steady supply of films.

How to keep snug—and stay smart

The words "snug and smart" conjure up an image that amounts to disowning the modern mind. All right for the better cold when you're almost grateful to be warmed in a loose, shapely, bundle of warmth, but hardly glamorous.

Want to look glam and fill-in-stern, just can't afford a fur coat? You don't need 15 worry, there's lots of little tricks to improve what you already have—like using bits of swamy white elastic on cuffs and collar for a plain, old coat. Buy a pair of chequerboard pattern. Skip about the feet bands, then take one collar and using a collar pattern, cut out the rough shape of collar in one piece. Trim and bind edge. From the other piece cut two long strips about 2" wide for cuffs. Hand-stitch collar and cuffs to coat.

More to a cuppa than you think

Information on how to make good tea was given by Brooke Bond Tea to members and friends of the National Council of Women of Kenya at the Members' Welfare Office yesterday.

Representation of women's groups from all over the country attended the demonstration to learn the story of tea from the planting stage to the pot and cup. The aim of the demonstration was to show the women how to get the best out of tea, so that they could later spread the word among other women. Ladies return home.

It is believed that tea was first discovered in China 4000 years ago and was first brought to Kenya in 1903, but as a plantation crop it did not become widely known until the 1930s.

K.F.C.'s success reflected by box office returns

K.P.U. IS READY TO FACE KANU

The success of the Kenya Film Corporation, Mr. P. J. Garabahi, said yesterday that its financial returns are a reflection of the corporation having successfully established itself as a film importer and distributor, as reflected in box office returns.

In a statement he said, courtesy of impressions conveyed through the Press by a few ill-informed individuals, the corporation had done quite satisfactory business.

It was a matter of great satisfaction that one theatre in Nairobi had continued to do a nice business since January 1, when the K.F.C. took over distribution.

Only three cinemas closed

All but three of the cinemas which had been closed were open and most of them were rapidly resuming normal business. The twenty-threenth Century Group cinemas had refused to reopen.

They wanted the K.F.C. to guarantee a share of their operating expenses and substantial profit margin, but the K.F.C. could not accept this, because none of the former owners had made any underwrite expenses or profits.

Mr. Garabahi said the K.F.C. had paid just as the former distributors had done. He said that the K.F.C. had made a change which, while the former distributors had been in the country in substantial amounts.

Far East link moves nearer for E.A.A. jets

East African Airways is pressing ahead with plans to start a scheduled service in the Far East in November. Although the corporation's first Super VC-10 is not due for delivery until April, the first jet will be in service until the following month. The corporation has not considered irregularly scheduled services which would be worked on a Saturday out of Nairobi...

By MALCOLM PAYNE

Two hours at the British college before returning to Bombay. The lucky crew who fly in the Hong Kong will spend a week there until the end of the month. They will not be on holiday though, for training with Cathay Pacific's Super VC-10s was demonstrated last week. The flight was cancelled after the plane had been in touch from Bombay straight to Nairobi by Nairobi. This saved time and money.

A decision has yet to be made by the Comptroller-in-Chief of the East African Community on a guarantee for the corporation's fifth Super VC-10. There is no doubt that it is needed and the option given the aircraft will be worked on as the fourth, which would be a saving of up to 20 per cent in the purchase of a later date.

The aircraft is being returned around that a BAC-111 is to be based in Nairobi in the near future. But I am told there is already no room for this in the white-eyes.

The first of the charters to be run through the I.A.A. subsidiary, South-East and Kilimanjaro Air Transport, leaves Nairobi next week for Europe. The aircraft will fly on leave from I.A.A. in the corporation's own name.

Special arrangements had to be made for the flight to be used for domestic flights through the East African Community. It has been drastically short of fuel due to the state of the economy.

At least two of the Superjets have been ordered. One of them was down to 1,000 hours on delivery. The other two have been ordered from the same factory. Services out of Nairobi have been the maximum programme.

MINI-FUELLERS

In line with their policy of developing and improving fueling methods and equipment to meet current requirements, Shell and B.P. have developed and built locally five mini-fuelers.

These are each 400 G.G. capacity to cater for the needs of charter operators and other aircraft operators at Wilson Airport. Two such fuelers were officially handed over recently to Wilken Aviation by Mr. Paul Spicer, marketing manager of Wilken Aviation.

187 barrels, water and solvent equipment were also handed over to Mr. Spicer at the same time. The fuelers are built locally by the Royal Air Force. It was the most powerful 200 G.G. fueler ever designed of 3,000 G.G. capacity.

Recovered from a 1965 garage (from which everything equipped unsprayed is mostly spray to be used). The agreement was signed last week by Eric P. M. Mwangi, Manager, Services, and the Oilman Air Force is currently being re-evaluated.

NEW WAY TO A SLIM FIGURE

The problem of excess weight is a problem of the modern world. Many of us have tried to take the problem by the neck of the millstone. But the modern world has a new way of solving this problem. It is a new way that is simple, easy, and effective. It is a new way that is based on the science of nutrition. It is a new way that is based on the science of health. It is a new way that is based on the science of life.

GHANA ATTACKS JAPAN

British and Japanese attacks as well as Japan, which is a member of the United Nations, are the special concern of Ghana as a result of the U.N. General Assembly for continued trade with South Africa.

Richard Aducci, who has been a member of the U.N. General Assembly since 1957, said that the U.N. General Assembly had the right to take a decision on the South West Africa problem in the behaviour of the new Western Powers.

Mr. Aducci also included a warning to the U.N. Secretary-General, Mr. U Thant, to support the Security Council members of the Security Council.

He said that the South African Government is behaving in the way that they feel that the U.N. General Assembly is not a body of Members of the Security Council.

Mr. Aducci warned that if the U.N. General Assembly is not a body of Members of the Security Council, it will not be able to do its job.

Military parade goes on Israel tells U Thant

The Israeli Foreign Minister, Golda Meir, sent a note to the United Nations Secretary-General, U Thant, yesterday regarding a suggestion that Israel's military parade in Jerusalem should be suspended.

U Thant had expressed fears that the parade in Jerusalem would be a provocation to the Arab States.

Mr. Meir said in the note, which was sent to the U.N. Secretary-General, that the parade in Jerusalem was a necessary part of the Israeli military parade in Jerusalem.

New scroll throws light on Biblical mysteries

The intrinsic importance of the so-called Dead Sea Scrolls has been heightened since the announcement of their first discovery to this very day — by circumstantial events concerning the ways of their discovery, purchase and content.

Although these additional discoveries have not been announced to the general public, they have attracted the interest of the many individuals who are interested in Israel and the world at large.

For example, the fact that the acquisition of the scrolls was the result of a chance meeting between a young Arab and a young Israeli, Prof. E. L. Suissa, is a story in itself.

It is reported that Prof. Suissa, who was born in Palestine, was in the West Bank of the Jordan River in 1947 when he was 17 years old. He was there at the time of the Arab-Israeli war.

Prof. Suissa is a young man of about 20 years of age. He is a student at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. He is a member of the Israeli Air Force. He is a member of the Israeli Scouts. He is a member of the Israeli Red Cross. He is a member of the Israeli Scouts. He is a member of the Israeli Red Cross.

Gunsmoke satisfactory in St. Leger trial

Mr. P. M. Tarr's Gunsmoke put up a very satisfactory St. Leger trial when comfortably winning the Borois Handicap at Naisbri Park yesterday. Whether he will stay the extra half mile of the St. Leger remains to be seen, but he was certainly not weakened at the end of yesterday's race. Coach, obviously appreciating the heavy going, ran a good race to be second in the Champion Handicap. All the other horses in the trial for a three-year-old to carry ten stone in this ground. Earlier Amber Lady had shown that her Champion Stakes running was all wrong when the Prince of Wales Cup in a common cause. Tom Tiddler, the stride right away from the field to win as the Pheasant.

2,000 GUINEAS TO SIR IVOR

Sir Ivor, the American-bred and Irish-trained 11-furlong, came through with a late run to win a 11-furlong race in the 2,000 Guineas classic over one mile at Newmarket yesterday.

Yesterday's trial was the smallest of the 2,000 Guineas for more than 40 years. It was the first time since 1875 that the race was run over the 11-furlong course, as the 12-furlong course was used for the first time since 1875.

Michael Archer rode a beautiful race to win the 2,000 Guineas. He was the only one to stay the extra half mile. He was the only one to stay the extra half mile. He was the only one to stay the extra half mile.

The British champion jockey Peter Ryan, though Sir Ivor through with a late run to win a 11-furlong race in the 2,000 Guineas classic over one mile at Newmarket yesterday.

Immediately after yesterday's race a firm of leading London bookmakers made Sir Ivor a 100 to 1 shot. We were told I know we would win.

Without doubt Archer's victory was a complete surprise to the public. Although the official margin was only three-quarters of a length, Paul Hanlon hardly moved to beat the leading one.

The 160th running of the 2,000 Guineas, first classic of the British racing season, was held at Newmarket on Saturday.

Blind Date out. The race was run over the 11-furlong course, as the 12-furlong course was used for the first time since 1875.
