EAST AFRICA HIGH COMMISSION COMES INTO BEING

First meeting this month

THE EAST AFRICA High Commission is born today. The Order-in-Council, made by the King on December 19, 1945, has published in the London Gazette and the Commission will be the date of operation as of that date. It is a body corporate with perpetual succession and is empowered to do all such things as may be necessary for the better government of the territories under its jurisdiction. The High Commission's first meeting will be held towards the end of this month after the return from the United Kingdom of the Governor of Uganda.

The High Commission's secretary, the East Africa Central Administration, will be decided by the Governor. The four members of the High Commission will be: Sir George Sandford, described as 'Administrator in Charge of the High Commission'; Mr. J. C. Thompson; and Mr. H. C. Willmore, 'Postmaster General'. Mr. Thompson is also an officer of the office of economic and financial secretary or legal secretary.

Munich is only a name to Tojo

GENERAL Hideki Tojo, the Japanese wartime Premier, has said that he does not know much about the Munich agreement when the British Government was being criticised before the International War Crimes Tribunal.

The chief prosecutor, Mr. Joseph E. Keenan, said that he had asked Tojo about the Munich agreement and that Tojo had said: 'I know the name but not the details. I don't know what it was about. I only know that it was a name. I don't know what it was about. I only know that it was a name. I don't know what it was about. I only know that it was a name.'

As at present

East African Production Supply Control and the East African Import Control are as at present. The East African Import Control is the Chairman of both.

'Not ashamed'

Tojo consistently pointed out the signing of the Munich agreement by saying: 'I am not ashamed of it. I am not ashamed of it. I am not ashamed of it. I am not ashamed of it. I am not ashamed of it.'

Happy New Year

A message for the New Year from the Bishop of Mombasa

OUR King in his Christmas message to his people breathed the prayer that the spirit of Christmas might spread in the widening circle until it changes the face of the world. No reasonable person can doubt that the face of the world needs to be changed. A feeling of frustration is widespread. We had hoped for so much when the war was over and victory was so near. It has been said rightly that the more our disappointments and disillusion we become, the more we are disappointed. It is encouraging that the New Year begins to see the Christmas lights and the Christmas message still ringing in our ears. It is not the quiet rest in our minds which the Spirit of Christmas brings. It is the joy which comes from the knowledge that we are saved and that God's love is with us. It is the joy which comes from the knowledge that we are saved and that God's love is with us. It is the joy which comes from the knowledge that we are saved and that God's love is with us.

'We can and must produce more rice'

Zanzibar's part in helping Britain

(Special overseas correspondent)

ZANZIBAR was told in an uncertain whisper to "grow more rice" as its part in helping Britain in the present economic crisis. The British Empire Rice Board, which held a recent meeting of Zanzibar Legislative Council, and reporting on the African Governors' Conference held in London, this, he said, "we can and must do."

The African food crop survey had been reported in the report of the Philip Milford to King's College, London, in a report on the rice situation in the East African territories. The report stated that the rice crop in the East African territories is at present in a state of stagnation and that the land is being used for other crops. It is suggested that the rice crop should be increased to meet the requirements of the East African territories and to help in the production of rice for the British Empire.

Agricultural Conference

Experts discussed soil surveys and structure

A REPORT of the technical session of the Agricultural Conference held in Nairobi last July has now been issued by the Government Printer, Kenya, as a reprint from the East African Agricultural Journal of October 1940.

Details are given of the discussion on each of the seven main items before the conference. On the subject of soil surveys, the panel of experts, which included Mr. J. H. B. Keen, director of the East African Agricultural and Forestry Research Organisation, supported the view that soil surveys should be carried out on a large scale. It was pointed out that experts on soil surveys should be trained in the field and that the surveys should be carried out in a systematic manner.

Crumb structure

After considerable discussion on soil structure in relation to moisture-holding capacity, the panel of experts recommended that a study of methods of determining crumb structure be made at an early date, and that, if possible, a standard method be evolved. It was pointed out that crumb structure is a very important factor in soil fertility and that it should be given more attention in soil surveys.

Suitable base

In the discussion on biological and physical aspects of soil structure, the panel of experts discussed the importance of the soil base. It was pointed out that the soil base should be suitable for the growth of plants and that it should be able to hold water and nutrients. The panel recommended that the soil base should be improved by the use of organic matter and that the soil should be kept in a loose, friable condition.

BOB MARTIN SAYS:

"A fit dog makes a finer companion"

WHETHER YOUR DOG is a slow-champion or has a friendly little face or is particularly pedigreed, in choosing the best you can give him a fit companion. My advice is—obey, resist, command, instruct, discipline, exercise, scratch, or wash with loss of appetite. Such discipline is a sign of low condition, often due to an impure diet.

Other people's jobs—No. 3: The Forest Department

IN ITS CARE IS ONE OF KENYA'S BIGGEST ASSETS

And money for the work is 'not too flush'

NEW people ever stop to think what Kenya would look like if most of its trees were cut out of its landscape. They just carry on ordering furniture and fire-wood, and all and all the other things that come from the forest.

Fortunately there is an organization, whose job it is to ensure that Kenya does not do this. It is the Forest Department, which is to ensure that Kenya's trees are cut down for the purposes of her progress, and not for the sake of the country and all that is in it.

It is the job of the Forest Department to ensure that Kenya's trees are cut down for the purposes of her progress, and not for the sake of the country and all that is in it.

Department.

It is the job of the Forest Department to ensure that Kenya's trees are cut down for the purposes of her progress, and not for the sake of the country and all that is in it.

The war years

THE year of 1941 to the Kenya Forest Department is a year of many changes. It is a year when the Government has been obliged to make drastic cuts in its expenditure, and the Forest Department has had to make its own contributions towards the war effort.

It is a year when the Government has been obliged to make drastic cuts in its expenditure, and the Forest Department has had to make its own contributions towards the war effort.

Three aims

IN the achievement of these aims, the Forest Department has been guided by three main principles: the conservation of the forest, the improvement of the forest, and the utilization of the forest.

It is a year when the Government has been obliged to make drastic cuts in its expenditure, and the Forest Department has had to make its own contributions towards the war effort.

Felling system

ALL the extraction has been done by the felling system. This is a system in which the trees are felled by the use of axes and chainsaws, and the stumps are left to rot.

It is a year when the Government has been obliged to make drastic cuts in its expenditure, and the Forest Department has had to make its own contributions towards the war effort.

Recurring asset

KENYA has 26,000 acres of forest. This is a recurring asset, which will yield a continuous supply of timber for the country.

It is a year when the Government has been obliged to make drastic cuts in its expenditure, and the Forest Department has had to make its own contributions towards the war effort.

The lighter side

IT HAS been said of a certain statesman, who, in his private life, was a keen sportsman, that he was "not too flush" with money.

'Urban sprawl' needs watching -

-THOUGH EASY TO UNDERSTAND-

"SUBURBAN sprawl" has taken up a good deal of room in the mind of Mr. V. C. Colchester, who puts down the growing and increasing complexity of the problem partly to high land prices in the town.

Another factor he points to is the difficulty of conforming with municipal and township regulations due to shortages of building materials.

"It is my belief that the establishment of a new township or extension of an existing township, should be done in a way that does not create a residential area that is not planned and controlled by the local government," he says.

Mr. Colchester says that the present township boundaries are being established in a way that does not take into account the needs of the population. He says that the present township boundaries are being established in a way that does not take into account the needs of the population.

JEW'S WRECK HOTEL, EXPLORE LOAD OF LANDMINES IN CITY

Over 100 casualties in Jaffa, six Arabs killed in Jerusalem

Two explosions smashed the hotel into a heap of rubble and the Arab city of Jaffa yesterday exploded in a hail of fire. In the Arab city of Jaffa they quailed in terror as a lorry that had been converted into a mobile mine.

At least 100 were killed in the two explosions at the Semiramis Hotel headquarters of two Arab youth organizations, and in Jaffa at least 14 people were killed and the hospitals were crowded with nearly a hundred wounded.

All but three of the occupants of the Semiramis Hotel now are unaccounted for.

A storm was raging when the attack was made and the crash of the Arab city of Jaffa accompanied the crash and roar of the exploding bombs.

The two explosions smashed the hotel into a heap of rubble and the Arab city of Jaffa yesterday exploded in a hail of fire.

Orange-bomb landmines driven into one of Jaffa's squares—by a motor-car and blown up with the lorry on which they were loaded—were believed to have been the instrument employed by the terrorists there.

Both Jews and Arabs in the city were in a state of confusion. The Jews were in a state of confusion and the Arabs were in a state of confusion.

Government hospitals were filled with the wounded. The wounded were in a state of confusion and the hospitals were in a state of confusion.

UNAVOIDABLE DETOUR

De Gaulle's aim is to end party government

FRANCE FEELS A COLD WIND
General de Gaulle wants general elections in France. He carried his campaign to the working people of the mining, engineering and textile town of St. Etienne to tell his audience, "France must work harder or perish."

He said, "It is not enough to rely on American aid. The raw materials and goods which we can import with the exception of oil and the Marshall Plan will be sufficient in getting a start on the road to a new life in one year. It is not enough to get a start on the road to a new life in one year. It is not enough to get a start on the road to a new life in one year."

In Indonesia

THE formation of an interim federal government is a prelude to a sovereign United States of Indonesia to begin immediately in Batavia.

A resolution to this effect was passed by delegates of two cabinet committees at a meeting with U.S. State Dept. in Washington. The Indonesian Republic Government is being revived.

President Truman will make it known to the American people that the United States will do all in its power to help the Indonesian Republic Government to be revived.

What have we done? The United States will do all in its power to help the Indonesian Republic Government to be revived.

These arguments will be discussed by Mr. Marshall and Mr. Llewellyn Duggan, U.S. Ambassador in London, when they leave for the United States on Thursday.

Although in 1947 there has not been more than 100,000 Britons leaving the Empire in any one year, it is estimated that more than 500,000 Britons will have left the Empire by the end of 1948.

The number of Britons leaving the Empire in 1947 was 100,000, compared with 80,000 in 1946 and 60,000 in 1945. The number of Britons leaving the Empire in 1947 was 100,000, compared with 80,000 in 1946 and 60,000 in 1945.

Indian Congress 'makes it plain'

A Pressing Need

A few days ago we commented on a statement which appeared in the annual report for 1933 of the Commission on the Local Government of which the Hon. Mr. J. G. Williams is the head. It was associated with the report on the improvement of the Indian community in the West Indies.

We expressed the view that even with the existing shortage of building materials and skilled labour it would be impossible for new projects to be undertaken in the West Indies. It was pointed out that the shortage of skilled labour was particularly acute in the building trade.

It is interesting to note that the report of the Commission on the Local Government of the West Indies, which was published in the latter part of the year, has been received in the West Indies. It is a document of some 100 pages, and contains a number of valuable suggestions for the improvement of the Indian community in the West Indies.

The report is a valuable contribution to the study of the Indian community in the West Indies, and it is to be hoped that it will be widely read and its suggestions will be put into effect.

The executive committee of the East African Indian Congress has had a very busy year, and it is to be hoped that it will be able to carry out its programme of work in the coming year.

It is a document of some 100 pages, and contains a number of valuable suggestions for the improvement of the Indian community in the West Indies.

Some drink makes men think they can drive

Are they safer really drunk?

Who is more dangerous as a motor driver—the man who has had "just a few" or the man who has had "a good deal"?

One of the most interesting and important questions that has been raised in the minds of motorists in the West Indies is the question of the effect of drink on the driver. It is a question that has been raised in many countries, and it is one that is of great importance to the public.

The report of the Commission on the Local Government of the West Indies, which was published in the latter part of the year, has been received in the West Indies. It is a document of some 100 pages, and contains a number of valuable suggestions for the improvement of the Indian community in the West Indies.

Appeal for unity

The Hon. Mr. J. G. Williams, Minister of Education, has issued an appeal for unity among the various political parties in the West Indies. He has urged that the parties should work together for the benefit of the people, and that they should not be divided by party lines.

The appeal is a timely one, and it is to be hoped that it will be widely read and its suggestions will be put into effect.

Accused Retracts His Story

Assistant Inspector known as "E.C.C." has retracted his story in a case involving a motor driver. He has admitted that he had made a mistake in his report, and that the driver was not guilty of the offence.

The case has been a long and complicated one, and it is to be hoped that the driver will be able to clear his name.

Income tax

The Government has announced that it will increase the income tax in the West Indies. The increase will be 10 per cent, and it will be applied to all incomes over £100 per annum.

The increase is a necessary one, and it is to be hoped that it will be widely understood and its benefits will be felt by the people.

Police visit

The Police have visited the various schools in the West Indies, and have found that the children are well behaved and well educated. They have also found that the teachers are well qualified and well paid.

The Police are pleased with the progress of the schools, and they are confident that the children will continue to improve in the coming year.

War on Communism is under consideration

BY CHARLES E. GAYTON
"Sunday Times" Political Correspondent.

INCREASING Communist influence in the transmission movement will be considered shortly by the General Council of the Trades Union Congress in the light of the fact that there appears to be no doubt that first-class action will be taken.

The Council itself is not free from Communist representation and influence, but it is a minority influence. How long it may remain, if Communist influence in the trade union movement continues, is a question that troubles cabinet ministers.

The recent warning statement by Comrade G. L. Brown, Secretary of the Labour Party, Secretary of the Education Committee, and Secretary of the National Council of the Labour Party, to affiliated organisations in regard to the Communist movement, is sufficient. It must be backed by sustained cabinet action.

Communism in the Labour movement. This is essentially a concern of the T.U.C., which has had the matter in mind for some time, though without considering it formally.

It is a matter of concern that according to my information, the Labour Party has not yet considered the T.U.C. as a whole, but only the Communist Party of Great Britain, which is a member of the T.U.C. and is a member of the Labour Party.

It is a matter of concern that the T.U.C. has not yet considered the Communist Party of Great Britain, which is a member of the T.U.C. and is a member of the Labour Party.

Plan of action

The great majority of transmission lines, generally those who have been engaged in the transmission of electricity, are also in the danger, and to the need for a plan of action in the transmission of electricity.

The plan of action in the transmission of electricity is to be a plan of action in the transmission of electricity.

The plan of action in the transmission of electricity is to be a plan of action in the transmission of electricity.

One-man hope

There is a Government Minister who is a one-man hope in the transmission of electricity.

The one-man hope in the transmission of electricity is a one-man hope in the transmission of electricity.

The Colonies

Lord Latham's appointment as Governor of the Colonies is a matter of interest in the transmission of electricity.

MARSHALL'S AID SLOGAN IS 'MAKE IT ALL OR NOTHING'

He demands that help should start on April 1

THE "HALF-MEASURES" in the substance of Mr. George Marshall's evidence to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday opened the historic Commission investigation into the Marshall Plan for European recovery. In a blunt warning that if the Marshall Plan is not carried out as he would like to see it, "you cut your losses and abandon the whole thing," Mr. Marshall said that the Marshall Plan is not a "straight" warning. "An inadequate programme would involve wastage of money in a rather more or less calculated risk."

Of the importance of the Marshall Plan, Mr. Marshall declared, "The way of the world has been known is literally a matter of days."

He urged all Americans to support the Plan with their hearts and endeavour, saying, "I can say that it is my conviction that the only way to maintain the help for success is to make that success will be achieved."

The United States Foreign Minister said in substance to the committee that the Marshall Plan will not only help the war-torn nations but will also help the United States by creating a market for its goods.

Cripps spurs British on to greater effort

BRITAIN has given concrete evidence of her will and effort to achieve economic balance through her production and exports figures for the third quarter of 1937—and is also being spurred on by Sir Stafford Cripps the Minister of Economic Affairs and Chancellor of the Exchequer to strive still harder during 1938.

AMERICANS STICK TO PARTY LINE

SENATORS doubt it is a general policy of the United States Senate to support the Marshall Plan for Europe. It is a fact that the Senate has not yet passed the Marshall Plan, and it is a fact that the Senate has not yet passed the Marshall Plan.

The Republican Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Mr. Charles McNary, said that the Senate would not pass the Marshall Plan until it had been amended to include a provision for the Marshall Plan.

'Stock boost'

The President has said that the Marshall Plan will not only help the war-torn nations but will also help the United States by creating a market for its goods.

'Sabotage'

Mr. Marshall's evidence to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday opened the historic Commission investigation into the Marshall Plan for European recovery.

Anglo-Russian trade pact

The bill of the new Anglo-Russian trade pact was published today. It provides for a 10-year pact which will be made up of 40,000 tons of raw materials and 100,000 tons of goods.

RISING PRICES

FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1948

Many of our readers, especially those in the lower income groups, are distressed by the rising cost of living in this country. Almost from month to month there is evidence that the process is continuing one. It is not of course peculiar to Kenya, but it does make it less of an anxiety for those in the Colony who are living as a result of it.

Some of the increased prices which are inevitable are due to increased costs of production which in turn are the result of higher wages paid to workers and so on. The price of raw materials is also increasing.

Although there is an almost constant clamour for the abolition of controls, most considering people will agree that had it not been for such a result of it.

Price Control in the extent of which has been used to date, the probability is that the cost of living would have soared to much greater heights than it has to date. It is argued in some quarters that if this Control were abolished and free competition were re-established, the prices of many commodities would tend to decrease.

Experience hitherto has proved the contrary in almost every instance where goods have been removed from the price order and their sale to the retail buyer has increased.

Moreover, Price Control is only enforced with maximum price, there is no legal obstacle to retailers charging less than the controlled price.

It is important that where for reasons which seem justifiable and legitimate a commodity is removed from the price order, the public should be informed well in advance of the intention to restore it to the "free" market, and that this information should be accompanied by an explanation of the factors which have influenced the decision of the Price Control Authority.

Apart from the question of whether or not the increase in the retail price of a commodity (and readers will be able to make their own judgment as to that) on the arguments put forward in a letter on another page, it is not surprising that the first few days after the removal of a commodity from the price order should be a period of disturbance to the public.

We are sure that you will find that on one day a commodity is removed from the price order, and that on the next day a commodity is removed from the price order, and that on the next day a commodity is removed from the price order.

It may well be that there is some justification for the removal of a commodity from the price order, but it would have been wise for the reasons to have been explained fully in advance, that in all such instances, the public should be informed of the reasons for the increase in price being made without adequate reason.

Surely it should not be too much to expect that the public should be informed of the reasons for the increase in price being made without adequate reason.

Surely it should not be too much to expect that the public should be informed of the reasons for the increase in price being made without adequate reason.

Mount Kenya Hospital has done great work

For 175 first six months, the Mount Kenya Hospital has more than proved its value to the people of the Nyeri and Naikering areas of the Central Province. Proof of this was given at a meeting in Nyeri, which drew interesting news about the working of the Hospital Authority of Kenya.

Its working was explained by Mr. H. L. Steele, who was deputising for the Director of Health and Local Government. Mr. C. E. Mwangi, Director of Health, also spoke. Mr. Steele recalled that in 1941 the hospital was established by the Government and in 1946 the hospital was transferred to the Hospital Authority of Kenya. He stated that the hospital had done a great deal of work in the past six months, and that it had been successful in providing medical services to the people of the Nyeri and Naikering areas.

Three sources

The local Hospital Authority has today introduced the bill which will enable it to raise the necessary funds to meet its needs. The bill is expected to be passed by the Legislative Council in the near future.
