

East and Central African Journal of Pharmaceutical Sciences

Maitai, C.K Prof. (Chief Editor); School of Pharmacy, University of Nairobi

Abstract:

The East and Central African Journal of Pharmaceutical Sciences is dedicated to all aspects of Pharmaceutical Sciences research and is published in English. The scientific papers published in the Journal fall into three main categories. Reviews original research papers short communications review papers in any discipline of Pharmaceutical Sciences are written at the invitation of the Editor. Original Research Papers are subjected to external review, whereas Short Communications may sometimes only be reviewed in-house by the receiving Editor. Other Aspects Calendar of Events and Conference Reports, announcing and reporting upon symposium, meetings, courses and other events of interest, book reviews, surveying new literature in a field of Pharmaceutical and allied Sciences.