

STUDENTS GET HELPING HAND FROM GERMANY

By NATION Reporter

THE German Ambassador to Kenya Dr. H. Heimsoeth recently presented a cheque for £14,250 to the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Nairobi Dr. J. N. Karanja.

The money, given on behalf of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) is destined for 15 in-country-scholarships in the fields of agriculture, veterinary medicine and economics.

The scholarship scheme was worked out by DAAD and the University of Nairobi to help students from the three East African States to pursue studies at the University of Nairobi.

The following will benefit from the scheme: Alfred M. Muthae, Andrew N. Ngone, Maurice O. Odindo, F. Ohitare, O. Achwanya, Miss. T. Aloo, J. Kocar, J. Lutalya, J. Mukatha, J. Ngokà, W. Ohero, Miss A. Ole, J. Owiti, R. Saini, and S. M. Mutiso.

On January 25 the Ambassador held a reception for the scholarship holders at his residence. The reception was also attended by German and Kenyan professors at the University of Nairobi.
