

Magoha new DVC, Administration and Finance

By Miring'u Waweru

Professor George Magoha is the new Deputy Vice-chancellor (Administration and Finance) at the university of Nairobi .

Professor Magoha replaces Professor Crispus Makau Kiamba who was recently elevated to the position of Vice Chancellor.

Prior to his appointment Prof. Magoha was the Principal, College of Health Sciences at the same University.

Meanwhile, Dr Chiek Diarra has been appointed head of the African Virtual University (AVU) at Lavington Green, Nairobi.

Dr. Diarra is an experienced air-space specialist having worked with NASA, where he led several scientific expeditions to the moon and other planets.

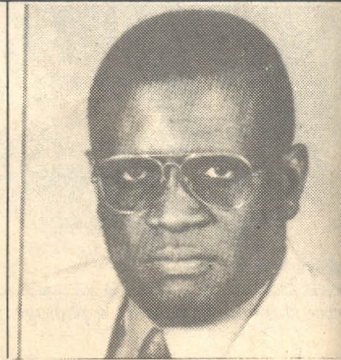

A national of both Mali and USA, he is also a goodwill Ambassador for UNESCO, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

He will be deputised by Dr. Magdalene Juma and Prof. Peter Materu.

AVU is a World Bank funded satellite-based learning programme that was started in 1997 and has 31 sites in 17 African countries .

In Kenya it has sites in Lavington Green, Nairobi and at Kenyatta University.

Prof. George Magoha