

ABSTRACT

The seminar on the Kerio Valley was held at the Institute of African Studies at the University of Nairobi, 21-22 May 1981. In addition to introductory material and a list of participants, this volume contains 12 papers on aspects such as agricultural development in the Valley; marketing; irrigation systems; dietary patterns of inhabitants; health care; and responsibilities and activities of the Kerio Valley Development Authority.