

ABSTRACT

Every junior doctor will have to prescribe some form of anticoagulation therapy for their patients. Foundation year 1 doctors should be familiar with the use of warfarin and heparin as anticoagulants, and be able to prescribe them appropriately, safely and effectively. The use of these drugs is outlined here.