

African Development Bank donates more equipment to CAE

The African Development Bank in conjunction with the Government of Kenya, through the Ministry of Education has once again donated more equipment to the Department of Electrical and Information Engineering. The consignment, which contained both electronic and electrical equipment as well as computers, was received by Prof. H. A. OUMA, who is the current Chairman of the department.