

Mr. Victor Marsai, a lecturer at the National University of Public Service in Hungary paid a courtesy call to the Institute today, Friday January 31, 2014.

He was received by the Associate Director, Mr. Gerrishon Ikiara and the two set in motion the process of signing a Memorandum of Understanding that will lead to greater co-operation between the two institutions in various fields of mutual interest. Mr. Marsai is a PhD student at his university and he is researching on conflict in the Horn of Africa with special focus on Somalia.