

ABSTRACT

Hassan Hussein Kochore, an alumnus of the Institute of Anthropology, Gender and African Studies has won the Commonwealth Shared Scholarship to study MSc at the University of Oxford. Hassan who studied B.A Anthropology between 2008 and 2012, wrote a project report titled: 'Living on the edge': space and identity among the Boran of Marsabit County, Northern Kenya. The project report played a key role in the award of this scholarship to study at Oxford. We at the Institute would like to congratulate him on this achievement and wish him all the very best.
