

THE MUSLIM STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION (MSAUN) "FOOD SALE" MOMBASA CAMPUS

The Muslim Students Association of University of Nairobi (MSAUN) Mombasa Campus on Thursday 26 2015 held a function dubbed "FOOD SALE" At UniPlaza Building backyard tent. There was Swahili food and snacks available for sale. The event was geared towards raising funds for the association which is used to finance Societal Projects such as helping orphanages, disabled people and other noble activities.

Dr. Jackson Maalu, Coordinator Mombasa Campus congratulated them on their good work they are doing, as a great part of a student's time at UON is spent outside the classroom. Coordinator office promised to support the students in all aspects of their University life, by offering programs, and services, and resources to make their life at UON successful and exciting as much as possible.
