

CODL has been conducting an orientation workshop for lecturers and tutors to support students on face to face and online from 20th to 22nd May, 2014.

- Some of the roles expected from an online tutor include:
- To make participants comfortable with technology and ultimately make technology transparent
- Creating learning community that supports and encourages students, monitoring progress and participation