

7TH AMSUN CONFERENCE 2015

The Association for Medical Students University of Nairobi (AMSUN) organized a stellar conference on the 11th-12th April 2015 at Brookehouse School in Karen. Dr. Diana Marangu was invited to moderate the Saturday afternoon session and was very impressed to see the research projects the undergraduate students are undertaking.

“We have extremely talented and brilliant students! It is important that faculty continue to provide research mentorship for the future doctor.” Dr. Diana Marangu
