

Department today hosted various technical staff from various units at ADD.

The training aimed to sensitize staff regarding migration from legacy communication systems to Voice over internet Protocol network (VoIP)

The training was conducted by ICT communications team