

The deputy Principal Kenya Science Campus University of Nairobi will today lead Kenya Science fraternity to the launch of the Presidential Digital Talent Programme (PDTP) at the University of Nairobi, Taifa Hall by the president of Kenya His Excellency President Uhuru Kenyatta, The Presidential Digital Talent Programme was initiated in the year 2014 by the Ministry of Information Communication and Technology and is being implemented by the ICT Authority through a private and public partnership arrangement. The programme will avail internship opportunities to fresh university graduates who will be attached to local companies, multinational and public sector players. The interns in government will serve on a variety of roles. The Presidential Digital Talent Programme is one of the key initiatives and project spelt out in the ICT Master plan and a key deliverable for the Jubilee government and the Vision 2030 Social and economic strategic pillars. President Uhuru Kenyatta will tomorrow,

February 10, 2015 launch

Invited guests should be seated by 12.00 pm