

NUPOSA took students to the 3rd EAC UNIVERSITY STUDENTS DEBATE ON REGIONAL INTEGRATION ON 3-5TH SEP 2014.

The event was hosted by CUEA and brought more than seven universities from Rwanda, Tanzania, Uganda and Kenya. The students were taken to task to discuss and debate on what are likely challenges of a political integration. The event was opened by the EAC Secretary General Ambassador Richard Sezibera accompanied by the DVC Academic Affairs from CUEA others included the EAC Secretariat Head of Political Affairs Ms. Isabella Waffubwa and moderated by John Sibi Okumu.

This event enlightened the students on the progress that has been made by the leaders of the EAC countries to integrate the region. The Secretary General pleaded with the students to lead in research in finding the best route to take towards integration. He was optimistic that integration is possible as it has been in other regions.

Below are some the photos highlighting the event NUPOSA officials also participated in the debate

In this photo are students from Makerere and Kigali, in between is John Sibi Okumu.

In this photo are students from Makerere and Kigali, in between is John Sibi Okumu.

