

College Website Champions Trained

The College of Agriculture and Veterinary Sciences (CAVS) website champions were today trained on website content upload and management. Twenty one (21) participants drawn from the various departments and units, each in charge of managing a department/unit's website were trained. The main objective of the training was to equip the staff with the requisite skills needed in implementing the new ICT Centre's strategies for improving UoN's webometric ranking.

A section of the website champions who participated in the training

The training was organized and conducted by the College Chief ICT Officer in-Charge, Mr. Mulwa P. Kyalo assisted by ICT officers from ICT Centre namely Mr. Brian Abook (Snr. ICT Officer - Web Communications) and Mr. Cedric Odera (Website Administrator). The College Librarian, Mr. Mugo H had an opportunity to give a short presentation on UoN Digital Repository.

