MERCK CAPACITY ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM

Improving Supply Chain Integrity

Quality is Everyone's Responsibility

University of Nairobi, Nairobi
30th April 2015

As part of Merck's long term commitment to the social and economic development of Africa, "Merck African supply Chain Forum" will contribute to improving Supply Chain integrity through providing training and technical support in developing and implementation of GDP & GSP international guidelines.

The Forum was coordinated by the Department of Pharmaceutics and Pharmacy Practice, School of Pharmacy at the College of Health Sciences. This full day Forum was officially opened by the Prof Issac. O Kibwage, Principle CHS, University of Nairobi and a welcoming speech given by Dr Paul Mwaniki, President of the Pharmaceutical Society of Kenya (PSK). Dignitaries from the Pharmaceutical fraternity and a total of 114 Pharmacists and Health care providers from all over Kenya were present at this very enriching Supply chain Form.
