

Dr. Anne Kasyoka Barasa has been awarded a Beginning Investigators Fellowship by the Union for International Cancer Control. This award is funded by the American Cancer Society, and is to enable Dr. Barasa to participate as a research scholar at the University of Massachusetts Medical School, under the supervision of Dr. Javier Gordon Ogembo. This will facilitate the transfer of technologies, techniques and skills needed to better serve cancer research activities at the University of Nairobi School of Medicine.