

Dr. Richard Ayah attends Africa Hub Meeting Dar-es salaam

Dr. Richard Ayah (back left)

This years annual meeting of focal persons of the Africa Hub Health Systems Capacity Building Project was held in Dar-es-salaam hosted by Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Science.

The Africa Hub aims to improve capacities for health systems research at the HEALTH Alliance Schools of Public Health . The African hub comprises of the seven institutions from the HEALTH Alliance (School of Public Health University of Nairobi, School of Public Health University of Kinshasa- DRC, College of Public Health and Medical Sciences Jimma University- Ethiopia, School of Public Health Moi University-Kenya, Kenya, School of Public Health National University of Rwanda, School of Public Health and Social Sciences Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences Dar es salaam – Tanzania and Makerere University School of Public Health- Uganda).