

As a matter of social responsibility, E.I.E 2014/2015 fifth year students visited Good Samaritan Children's home in Kayole, Nairobi to donate food stuff and clothings.

The students organised on their own and the requested the college for the transport throught the department.

As a department, we wish to encourage them and others to continue with this spirit of remembering the less fortunate in the society.