

The second and third year students (2013-2014) has completed their fourth term activities which involved the lab work and industrial visits to enhance them with the practical work.

The fourth term was very successful and fruitful and seriously helped in the opening up of the students' minds.