

ETHIOPIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION PAY COURTESY CALL ON DEAN SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Four executive members of the Ethiopian Medical Association recently paid a courtesy call on the dean of the Medical School. The team was in the country on invitation of the Kenya Medical Association and was accompanied by the chairman of KMA, Dr. Elly Nyaim. The team was received by the acting dean Professor Stephen Oendo.

The purpose of the courtesy call was twofold, namely to find out more on the relationships of medical school and the professional associations in Kenya and how they in Ethiopia may learn from our relationship. Secondly they expressed a wish to find avenues for future collaboration with our medical school.

The School assured them that we have cordial relationships with the KMA and regular consultations take place between us. The School is also willing to be involved in any collaboration with the Ethiopian Medical Association.

The team consisted of Dr. Yodit Tequabo and Dr. Tedros Tsegaye from the executive committee of the Association. Dr. Yeneneh Getachew, coordinator of research and continuing professional development unit and finally Dr. Adiy Hiruye the Executive Director of the Association.
