

The International Atomic Energy Agency, the National Council for Science and Technology, and the University of Nairobi through the Institute of Nuclear Science and Technology organized a national workshop for Kenya through the NDT Project. Participants are from various Institutions in Kenya and the facilitator is from Vienna, Austria.