

Dr. Vincent Muoki Mutiso has been appointed Team Doctor for Harambee stars by Football Kenya Federation (FKF).

Dr. Vincent Muoki Mutiso, has been appointed Team Doctor for Harambee stars (Kenya's National Football team) by Football Kenya Federation (FKF).

Dr. Mutiso is a Consultant Orthopedic Surgeon and Senior Lecturer of the University Of Nairobi, Medical School, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Kenyatta National Hospital.

His first assignment was the match of Harambee Stars vs Comoros for which the National team has now qualified for the next round which will be against Lesotho.

He holds an MBChB and MMed (Surgery) degrees from the University of Nairobi and ODTS Orthopaedic Surgical Training from the Royal College of Surgeons of England. He holds a Trauma Fellowship from AO- International Switzerland and University of Ulm (Germany) and a Clinical Fellowship in Arthroplasty and Arthroscopy from University Hospital of North Staffordshire, UK. He holds a certificate in Hand and Microvascular surgery from the Medical University of South Africa. He holds Membership of many professional Associations and Societies and is passionate about Injury Prevention especially Road Traffic Accidents and in this regard served as Executive Chairman of the First ever International Conference on Emergency Management in Africa that was held at the Kenyatta International Conference Centre some years ago, has served on the Road Traffic Accident committee of the Kenya Medical Association and the Disaster management Committee of the Kenyatta National Hospital.

