

Members of staff from all departments in the School of Education are attending training on using SMIS (Students Management Information System) for online course registration. The aim of the training was to ensure that the units in the School adhere to the University Policy on utilization of SMIS to generate class registers for examinations, and processing of the examinations within the set deadline.