

The University of Nairobi, School of Business students won the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Research Challenge, East Africa Finals held at the InterContinental Hotel, Nairobi on 12th January 2015.

The team lead by Mrs. Nyamute who is their faculty adviser, comprised of the following students Nidhi Batta, Stephen Kogi, Sarah Ndegwa, Michira Dolly and Cheryl Mageto.

The team emerged winners in a rigorous Research challenge competition among the Universities in East Africa.

The team is set to represent East Africa in the regional challenge in Amsterdam where it will compete with teams from Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) in April 2015. If successful at this stage, the team will proceed for the global challenge finals in Atlanta USA

Dean School of Business Prof. Josiah Aduda while receiving the trophies congratulated the team and assured them of his support.