

The 2015 engineering students grand finale dinner held on 24th April

Venue: Pampa Churrascaria Panari Mbsa road

Time: 7 pm

Hosted by: mc Joseph Muli and George Alwanga

In attendance were:

The mechanical engineering students 2014/2015

Special guests from the dept:

Dr. Thomas Ochuku (chairman of the event) & Mrs Ochuku

Prof. Madara Ogot & Mrs Ogot

Mr Sam Gachuhi

M/s Fay Airo

M/s Patricia Munene

Also present were guests from Davis and Shirlif alumni students.

There was a short opening prayer from one of the students followed by an introductory speech by the chairman of the occasion Dr.Ochuku.

Dr Ochuku encouraged the students not to relent in maintaining the good reputation of the university when they eventually get into the corporate world. He also charged them to be good ambassadors of the department wherever they find themselves.

There was a brief explanation by the chef about the menu. This was followed by a self service by all present.

There were presentations by the following students:

Daudi Wanyela ó comedy

Vane Aminga ó on life after campus

Brencil Kaimba óperformed a beautiful Chinese song

Emmanuel Kimuyu ó an upcoming artist

The class members all danced with the help of a tune from the dj.

After the entertainments, prof. Madara Ogot spoke to the students about life after campus and what they should do to keep the light shining. He urged them to immediately start looking for internships and jobs where applicable.

Afterwards, Christopher Githaka, a student encouraged his fellow students for making it this far. He also charged them to always remember God in all they do.

There was a handing over ceremony of the library (dark room) keys by George Alwanga and Sam Gachuhi to the incoming fifth years.

There was an introduction of the dinner committee members by Udochukwu Christian the coordinator. According to him, the event would not have been successful if not for the tireless efforts of the committee. He also encouraged the incoming fifth years to emulate such acts of sacrifice and urged them to also have a colorful and even a better party come next year.

This was followed by cutting of the cake by the committee members.

The dinner was concluded by a vote of thanks from Beverly Muchiri and the invited guests departed at their own leisure while some students danced to the tune of the DJ while others continued to enjoy the dessert provided.

In conclusion, it was a colorful event and all thanks to the chairman of the dept. Eng. Prof. Ogola and Ms Fay for their support.

Our thanks also go to our lecturers of most who did not only give us their moral support but also contributed immensely to the success of this event
